Estate Is Appraised—An evaluation of $2105.86 was placed upon the estate of the late Caroline Palmer, by W. J. Culver, L. M. VanCleave and C. A. Koba appraisers. The property is composed mostly of bank deposits and notes.

Marvel Tire Life on Exhibition—261 Court street. Ed Keyes, Agt.

Day Named Guardian—Robin D. Day was appointed guardian of Nicholas Turans, a patient of a state institution, by county court yesterday. Turans is an insane person and has some money coming from the United States government which will not be entrusted to him except through a guardian.

May Conclude Case Today—The case of the state against John Wise, who is held on a criminal charge, is now on trial and will probably be decided today. The case is called for 9 o'clock. The jury selection was well under way yesterday.

Three Licenses Issued—The marriage licenses were issued yesterday to residents of Marion County, Ralph H. Ray, 26, of Sefton, secured a license to wed Marie Flannery, 27, also of Salem. The ceremony took place at 425 South Liberty street yesterday. Joan A. Rob- ween, 25, a former of Seio, will marry Anna M. Bauer, 18, of Salem. The wedding is planned for tomorrow and will be held at 670 South Fourteenth street. Arriving at the county clerk's office just a few minutes before the end of the business day, Clement E. Turnidge, 25, secured a license to marry Hazel Inman Hawkins, 16. Both are of Talbot. They were married at the court house Saturday.

Highway Condition Good—W. J. Bishop, president of the Willamette Valley Transfer company, came down from Portland yesterday and reports the Pacific Highway in good condition for motoring except a stretch of several miles beyond Barlow.

Rural Carrier Examination—The United States civil service commission has announced an examination for Marion county to be held at Albany, Salem and Silverton on February 14, 1914, to fill the position of rural carrier at Jefferson and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above mentioned county. The examination will be open only to citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in form No. 1577. Admission of women will be limited to the widows of United States soldiers, sailors, or marines, and to the wives of United States soldiers, sailors, or marines who are physically disqualified for examination by reason of injuries received in the line of military duty. This form and application blanks mentioned above or from the United States civil service commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

George Cochran, LaGrande attorney, was in Salem yesterday to attend the opening of the legislature.
