COMMERCIALLY DEAF

Germany's stiff-necked denseness in sensing the necessit for her strict compliance with the first armistice terms, and her brazen indignation at the harder ones imposed as a penalty for the non-fulfilment of the first makes one think of the banker at Weeping Walter, Neb., who was asked by an impecunious farmer for a loan. The banker was one of those people who are deaf for commercial purposes. The farmer was chronically wanting to borrow, and his security was getting shaky. "I'd like to borrow $5000." plead ed the farmer. The banker cupped his hand be hind his lame ear and said:
