

Society

By RUTH LENORE FISHER

THE annual Junior-Senior party of the Salem high school was given in the form of a masquerade this year which proved a merry affair. It was given Wednesday night in the high school auditorium. Daintily gowned old fashioned women, Japanese, Indians, soldiers, sailors, vagabonds, and all the characters to make up a "regular" masquerade were present to enjoy the merriment. A short program consisting of speech by Ralph Bailey, speech by Earle Shafer, a vocal solo by Mabel Marcus, impersonations by Rodney Martin and John Traglio and a vocal duet by Archie Holt and Floyd White.

At the close of the evening light refreshments were served.

William Harris, formerly with the United States National bank of this city but now at a bank at Nyssa arrived in this city yesterday afternoon for a short visit with his mother.

A Lazy Liver

Causes a great deal of trouble, biliousness, constipation and sick headache. Do not put up with it; correct it at once by taking

Hood's Pills

Made by C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

Miss Nellie Burns, at the state school for the deaf, left last night for a several days' stay with her parents in Albany.

Mrs. James Burns and daughter, Miss Nellie Burns of Bradford, Canada, arrived last evening in the city for a visit at the home of Mrs. Burn's brother in law, Adam Burns. They are on the way to California for the benefit of Mrs. Burns' health. It has been more than 30 years since the two families have met.

Miss Nellie Burns, at the state school for the deaf, left last night for a several days' stay with her parents in Albany.

Mrs. D. C. Sherman of Portland has arrived in this city to spend two months with her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Culver.

The Salem People's chorus, of which Professor John Sites is director, has recently sent to Mrs. W. H. East, nee Bernice Clark, in Portland a beautiful mantle clock as an appreciation of her work as accompanist for the chorus before her marriage recently.

Mrs. Ralph Glover and daughter, Miss Maxine Glover, returned yesterday from a short stay in Portland.

People who live in the rush and hurry of cities sometimes find it a puzzle to know just what it is that causes others to give up a happy life out of doors for the crowded subways, the throngs on the street and in the stores. Two factory girls who went to St. Paul from their country homes in Minnesota expressed just what the difference was when they said: "We like the shows, things to do and places to go to."

And the Young Women's Christian association, which always consults the minds and thoughts of the girls themselves before making any plans for them used this statement to build up just the kind of program that would most appeal to girls who live in the country or in small towns. Good, live girls can have altogether too much peace and quiet, and the Y.W.C.A., realizing this, has mapped out long lists of the most interesting things to do, which are keeping girls happy and busy from Maine to Washington.

Plays and pageants are coming to take their place in the sun. There are few girls who don't like an important part in a play and fewer still who can resist the fun of planning costumes, scenery and all the little details which go to help in the production of a drama to be seen by their parents and friends.

Miss Dorothy Stafford entertained her mother from Oregon City at Lanes hall on Thursday evening. Mrs. Stafford will leave Friday for Eugene.

On arriving at the home of his wife's parents, Portland, on last Saturday evening, Rev. Alfred Bates found a number of his friends assembled to participate in a birthday dinner in his honor. The pastor was the recipient of many birthday gifts. The friends enjoyed a pleasant evening together.

KAY TALKS TO CLUB MEMBERS

Question Is Raised As to Who Gets Profit for Cost of Clothes

Who gets the "dough?" That is the question now so puzzling to those who are wanting to buy a new suit of clothes.

Thomas B. Kay, discussing present high prices asked for men's wearing apparel, stated to several members of the state legislature at the Methodist church Wednesday evening that manufacturers of woolen cloth were getting only a fair profit on their operations.

To verify this assertion, Mr. Kay called attention to the suit he was wearing.

"The cloth in this suit," said the manager of the Salem Woolen Mills, "was manufactured by us. It is all wool and worth a little over nine dollars in the market at current prices. I had it made into a suit. The cost for making this suit was $40."

"Who gets the 'dough?'" "S. W. McClure, secretary of the National Woolgrowers' association, states that it takes four pounds of wool to make cloth of average winter weight to make a suit for a man of medium proportions."

This wool could be bought in the Boston wool market for $5.25 today. Adding to this the cost of manufacturing it into cloth, it would seem that Mr. Kay's statement, that manufacturers are not getting more than reasonable profits, is correct.

"But," said one of the solons, "the suit I am wearing cost me $65. Why so much difference? The woolgrowers say they are not getting rich. Tailors, wholesalers, retailers and transportation companies say the labor cost and other items of expense, being deducted, leave them only fair margin for profits. Then who gets the dough?"

The discussion stopped right there. The puzzling question remained unanswered. A leading clothier has just issued a published statement that clothing prices will advance from 25 to 40 per cent in the near future.

"Are you going to take a vacation this year?" "No; I've got to spend two weeks at Atlantic City with my wife."—Grit.

NEW SHOW TODAY

BLIGH THEATRE

THEY ARE HERE

New Style---

Pumps and Oxfords

Priced to you at our usual low prices.

SALEM SAMPLE STORE

141 North Commercial Street

Specials at January Sale

BUSTER BROWN SHOE STORE

A VISIT TO THIS STORE WILL CONVINCE YOU OF THE REAL BARGAINS OFFERED

Women's Shoes

Regular $16.50 to $18

Many shades and combinations, special

$12.85

Women's Shoes

Regular $12.50 to $14

Dressy Street Boots

Sale

$9.85

Children's Shoes

Greatly reduced. Fine assortment to choose from

Boys' Shoes

Extra Special

Regular $6.50. Sale

$5.45

Boys' Shoes

Regular $5.75. Sale

$4.85

Men's Shoes

Regular $7.50, Special

$5.85

Men's Shoes

Regular $10.00, now

$9.85

High-grade Footwear at a Great Saving

$40 IN CASH GIVEN AWAY

Why should Salem people Buy Oregon made products?

In order to stimulate interest in Oregon Products week, January 19th to 24th, Gale & Co. will give $40.00 in cash prizes for the best essays on the above subject as follows:

First Prize.....	$15.00	Sixth Prize.....	$1.00
Second Prize.....	10.00	Seventh Prize.....	1.00
Third Prize.....	5.00	Eighth Prize.....	1.00
Fourth Prize.....	3.00	Ninth Prize.....	1.00
Fifth Prize.....	2.00	Tenth Prize.....	1.00

Rules that govern this contest:—

1. Anyone residing in Oregon is eligible to compete for these prizes, except employees of Gale & Co.
2. Essays must be plainly written or typewritten, one side of paper being used.
3. Essays must not consist of over 300 words.
4. Essay must be accompanied by the name and postoffice address of the writer.
5. Essays must be received by Gale & Co., or deposited in the postoffice properly addressed to Gale & Co., contest department, Salem, Oregon, on or before 6 p. m. Saturday, January 24, 1920.
6. In awarding prizes the judges will consider: First, strength of reasons given; second, style and forcefulness of composition; Third, neatness and brevity.

JUDGES OF THE CONTEST—In order to insure absolute fairness and impartiality in awarding prizes, the following judges of the contest have been selected: T. E. McCroskey, manager Salem Commercial Club; E. J. Hendricks, manager Statesman Publishing Co., and George Putnam, manager Daily Capital Journal.

Prize winner's names will be announced in the daily papers as soon as awards are made by the judges.

Address all answers to Contest Department

Gale & Company

Commercial and Court Streets

SALEM, OREGON

Formerly Chicago Store

New Road to be Extended to Lake Labish Territory

A new road will be extended to Lake Labish. The proposed highway will be opened by the county and will lead from the Pacific highway eastward between the farms owned respectively by W. C. Bolter and M. L. Jones.

Macadam will be placed on large section of Labish directly accessible to the Southern Pacific station at Brooks. This proposed road will make a tation at Brooks.

The Tie That Binds

Our Policyholders To Oregon Life

- 1—Liberal low premium policies. (No fine-print restrictions.)
- 2—Insurance in force from date of application—if insurable. (A point to be remembered.)
- 3—We have never disputed or compromised a claim. Always paid in full on the day proofs of death were presented.
- 4—All assets—except U. S. Liberty Bonds—invested in Oregon, thereby upbuilding your own state.

Oregon Life Insurance Company

Home Office: A. L. MILLER, Pres. CORBETT BUILDING, Fifth and Morrison. Portland, Ore.

P. J. CLIBBORN, District Manager.

210 Masonic Temple SALEM

The Children's Bread

Note Why They Love It.

HOLSUM is the Bread to serve with milk to delight the children.

It will win children to Bread-and-Milk who think they don't like that fine body-building food but who would be greatly benefited by it.

The winning appeal lies in the fine HOLSUM flavor. The dish takes on an attraction that it lacked before.

When the little ones see HOLSUM Bread it is easy to add the milk.

Your dealer has it fresh from the modern ovens of your finest local bakery.

You have never tasted a more delicious Bread, because it is HOLSUM.

CHERRY CITY BAKING CO.