No Boxing Yet—Because of a hitch somewhere in the proceedings the city council voted Monday night to defer sanctioning a boxing commission for the city. It is said that neither City Attorney Macy nor members of the police committee, Schunke and Volk, object to the commission, but action must await later developments.

My Friends—The staff and employes of the Oregon State hospital and brother Elks, for your constant uration and tender care shown my wife during her recent illness and passing; and for the lighting of my sorrow's weight by touch of friendship, sweet and sympathetic, I tender to you my deepest and heartfelt gratitude. Charles S. Huddleston.

Mrs. Stroud Dead—Mrs. Ruby J. Stroud died at her home in Rosedale early yesterday morning. She was 75 years old. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. C. A. Bear of Turner and Mrs. R. M. Cammack of Rosedale, and by two sons, E. D. Stroud of this city and M. J. Stroud of Des Moines, Ia. The body is at the Rigdon establishment and funeral announcements will be made later.

Wanted—A Teacher—For high school who can teach English, first Latin and geometry. Salary $125. Work to begin next week. See Mrs. Jones, 215 South Commercial street, upstairs, or phone 583.

Two Collisions Reported—Two autos collided with Salem street cars yesterday. The reports of the two accidents were turned in to the police department and it was ascertained that they were not of a serious nature and the damage was slight. The delivery truck of the No-Vary grocery store was being driven east on Court street and a streetcar was coming south on Liberty street. It was claimed that the driver of the delivery truck endeavored to get across the car track in front of the street car and as a result the auto was hit by the car. The rear wheel of the auto was demolished and the rear axle was also broken. The driver was uninjured. H. A. Davis, 1315 South Fifteenth

PERSONAL MENTION

Tiarks, 33, are the heirs mentioned in the will and both residents of Salem. Edward Tiarks was appointed administrator of the estate by the county court, and was required to furnish a bond of $16,670. The appraisers of the property are H. Tasto, Robert Gillich and H. Niederkrome.

Wait is Administrator—Ellen Southwick has petitioned the county court to appoint O. S. Wait administrator of the estate of Rebecca K. Wait, who died December 18, 1919, and left an estate worth about $19,000 with an income of about $1000 a year. Ellen Southwick was the oldest child and is entitled to be appointed administratrix but she waived the right and desires that Mr. Wait be appointed in her stead. There was no will left by the deceased. The heirs at law are Ellen Southwick, 55, daughter; Mary G. Wait, 41, daughter, both of Salem, Oregon; George Wait, 40, son, Calgary, Alberta; O. C. Wait, 53, son, Salem and O. S. Wait, 50, son, Rickreall. The court appointed J. N. Skafie, L. D. Gibson and Samuel Phillips as appraisers of the property and O. S. Wait as administrator of the estate.

Three Couples Marry—Three marriage licenses were issued by the county clerk Monday. Otto Dahl, 28, of Silverton, secured a license to marry Miss Edna Johnston, 26, of route 1, Gervais. The marriage ceremony will be at the bride's home today. W. T. Aydlett, 26 of Portland was issued a license to wed Miss Ruth Grimm, 26 of Salem. The marriage was conducted Monday. Homer J. Conklin, 26 of Salem, obtained a license to marry Miss Grace Pratt of 1210 South Commercial street, Salem. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride Monday.

New Corporations—The Montgomery Warl Warehouse corporation of Portland yesterday filed articles of incorporation at the office of H. J. Schuiderman, state corporation commissioner. The capitalization is $50,000, and the incorporators are W. A. Johnson, William C. McCulloch and Roger McVeagh. Other firms filing articles were: Wiles Auto company, Forest Grov; incorporators, Joe A. Wiles, Paul Abraham, A. H. Camarada, capitalization, $25,000. Shirek & Son, Portland; incorporators, S. Shirek, Max Maison, R. A. Shirek; capitalization, $10,000. Resolutions showing an increase in capitalization were filed by the following firms: Gite Mercantile company, Salem, $10,000 to $50,000; Ritz Hotel company, Portland, $5000 to $20,000; Northwest Fence & Iron Works, Portland, $25,000 to $50,000. Resolutions of dissolution were filed by the Alcazar Players and by the Holman Transfer company of Portland.
