"It Pays" To Pay Promptly

Your Reputation as a Citizen Demands You "Pay Promptly"

Credit is simply a matter of convenience. Every man and woman desires to keep their credit good. There is but one sure way to have a good credit and that is to "Pay Your Bills Promptly." How can you be sure that you are going to be able to pay your bills when they are due? You must save first and when you contract a bill you must know in advance where the money is coming from to pay that bill. The merchants are to blame for Bad Bills as much as the people who contract them. It is so easy to get credit. Anyone can have things charged. The merchant should know that the man or woman who asks for credit is able to pay promptly before credit is extended. Every person who asks for credit should be sure that they will be in a position to pay promptly before they contract a debt and all will be well. Too many people think that it is right to buy goods on their credit whether they are sure they can pay promptly. They simply take a chance and "IF" they cannot meet the bill when due they let the merchant worry. This destroys credit and is the worst handicap anyone can have. Pay your bills promptly and keep your credit good.

The person who pays debts promptly establishes a reputation for integrity and commands the good will and confidence of friends, business and professional people—the butcher, the baker and candlestick maker—likewise the banker, the doctor, the landlord, grocer and others.

The person who does not meet bills and other obligations promptly—who is procrastinating, indifferent or who pays under protest, is discredited, brings reproach upon himself or herself and reflection on friends and relatives.

A debt is largely a transaction based on honor. Don't contract an obligation you can not meet. Don't sear your conscience—don't denigrate yourself by refusing to pay what you justly owe. Good credit is your best asset. A good reputation is one of the greatest enjoyments in life.
