THE largest and most beautiful social affair of the week was the dancing party on Tuesday evening for which four prominent matrons were hostesses, Mrs. Roy Burton, Mrs. Carl Webb, Mrs. H. C. Marvin and Mrs. T. B. Galloway. The Moose hall where the guests were assembled was lovely in a dress of pink and green, tall palms and huge clusters of pussywillows were a background for large baskets of oriental poppies and pink peach blossoms. On each side of the floor lamps with pink silk shades gave a distinctive touch. A delightful feature of the evening were the leap year dances which were from 10 o'clock until 11 o'clock which caused much merriment. At midnight a supper was served. Hunt's orchestra furnished music for the evening. Invitations were issued to about 65 couples of the younger social set.

MRS. WALTER McDUGAL, who has recently returned from several months in England, was hostess for a beautiful party Wednesday when she entertained the matrons of the Bridge Luncheon club at the Marion hotel. Orchid chrysanthemums formed centerpiece for the tables. Mrs. McDougal invited Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. R. M. Hofer and Miss Mabel Withycombe as guests of the club for the afternoon.

The Arabian Knights, composed of Salem Shriners is making plans for a formal ball to be given February 12 which will be one of the largest and most elaborate social events of the season. It will be given in the armory and the committee, of which Zedec Riggs is chairman and which includes Lee Gilbert, Dr. T. C. Smith Jr., Lowell Will and Glenn Niles, has issued invitations to the Shriners of Albany, Silverton, Woodburn and Dallas. The committee asks that all Salem Shriners whom the committee has not seen personally send notice whether they will attend.

MRS. RALPH WATSON, a much feted visitor in this city for the past two weeks, was the honor guest for a beautifully arranged bridge luncheon which her sister, Mrs. Charles Ramp, gave on Tuesday at her home in South Salem. The centerpiece for the pretty table was a large brown basket filled with various everlasting flowers. The handle of the basket was tied with a huge bow of yellow satin ribbon. At the close of the play Mrs. Edwin L. Baker won the high score. Covers were laid for Mesdames Ralph Watson, H. H. Olinger, Oliver C. Locke, W. H. Dancy, George G. Brown, Edwin L. Baker, Will H. Bennett, Milton L. Meyers, John Caughell and Mrs. Ramp.

Mrs. Charles Miller entertained on Thursday at the Marion hotel with a luncheon. The affair was planned in honor of Mrs. Louis Josse of Portland who has been a house guest of Mrs. Clifford Farmer the week. Fragrant violets, with narcissi and pussywillows gave a delightful suggestion of springtime in the decorations. After the luncheon there were cards. Plates were laid for Mrs. Josse, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Armin Steiner, Mrs. E. A. Skelley, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. A. J. Rahn and the hostess.

Mrs. S. E. Edwards entertained with a dancing party for her small daughter, Gwenneth, on Friday evening at the Amos Strong home to celebrate Miss Edward's eleventh birthday anniversary. The rooms were decorated with pink blossoms and the pink was used in the dainty little luncheon which was served from 9:30 until 10 o'clock. Mrs. Fred Thielson, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. W. H. Lytle and Mrs. Amos Strong assisted Mrs. Edwards in the affair. About 30 little folk were bidden to the party.

For the benefit of the primary department of the Bungalow Christian church a very pleasing program was given at the church Friday evening, which netted a goodly sum for the department. A group of artists of the city gave of their time and talent for the affair which was a decided success, both socially and financially. The program given follows:

Woodland Song, Mrs. R. W. Stimer; To Spring, Louise Findley; Where My Caravan Has Rested, Gladys Stevenson; Aunt Jemima's Courtship, Myra Gleason; Como Bello, Mrs. R. W. Stimer; (a) Sing Me a Song of the Lad that Has Gone, (b) Requiem, (c) The Mother Heart, Lena Belle Tartar; Prelude, C. Sharp Minor, Lucille Enjmons; The Last Song, Let Miss Lindy Pass, The Dying Rose, Lena Belle Tartar.

Mrs. E. L. Kappahahn entertained with a delightful party Friday evening after the W. L. O. A. C. basketball game, complimenting two university students, Knighton Liston and Harland Allington, who will not return to school the next semester. Games and music were enjoyed and a dainty supper was served. In the dining room kewpies dressed in freshman class colors, orange and Mrs. E. S. Tillingshast is in Portland visiting with relatives for the week.

Miss Lorella Bolter and James Chester Yantis were married at a quiet service Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bolter, 1216 Trade street. Rev. H. C. Stover officiated in the presence of only the immediate relatives of each. The bride was very attractive in a gown of cream crepe de chine with a full length veil. She carried an arm bouquet of brides roses and banyan. After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Yantis will be at home to their friends at 2319 Mill street, Salem.

Mrs. J. C. Griffith and Mrs. Joseph Albert returned Thursday evening from a weeks stay in Astoria and Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Gleason entertained a coterie of friends Thursday evening at their home for a five hundred party. After the cards the high score prize was given to Dr. O. A. Olson, and the consolation to Herbert Stiff. A delicious supper was served at the small tables which were centered with red carnations and with red shaded shaded candles. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Gleason were Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Ellis, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Finner Dause, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stiff, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Canfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rollison.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger have gone to The Dalles where they will visit for a week with the doctor's brother, Dr. Bert Olinger.

Mrs. William Everett Anderson left yesterday afternoon for Portland to spend the week attending the grand opera and to visit with her sister, Mrs. S. F. King.

Mrs. Clifford Brown spent a short time in Portland this week visiting relatives.

Miss Dorothy Buchner is spending the week end in Corvallis at her sorority house, going up to attend the basketball game between W. L. O. A. C. and to attend some college festivities of the week end.

Mrs. Charles Maxwell of this city appeared on a musical program at the Bethel M. E. church in Portland Thursday evening for two numbers which were enthusiastically received by the audience. The musical was given for the building fund of the church and Mrs. Maxwell, with her beautiful mezzo soprano voice was a favorite for the evening. She chose for her songs, "Roses of Picardy" by Haydn Wood, and "Wake Up," by Phillips; and she sang for encores, "Sorter Miss You," by Clay Emith, and "I Dunno," by Wells.

The Ladies Aid society of the First Presbyterian church was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. David A. Hodge Friday afternoon. Mrs. John A. Carson, president, had charge of the afternoon program. Short talks were given by members of the society. During the social hour dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Hodge and the assisting hostesses who included Mesdames G. W. Shand, A. Pooler, E. L. Lamb, E. N. Whittschen, and H. A. Sams. About 55 matrons were present.

The aid society of the W. R. C. held an all day meeting Thursday in the McCormick hall which was enjoyed by all the members present. At noon a dinner was served and during the day sewing was the diversion.

Virgil Golden of the Oregon Agricultural college is spending the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Golden.

The Yew Park circle of the First Methodist church met with Mrs. E. E. Gilliam Wednesday afternoon for its regular meeting and social. During the afternoon arrangements were made for the circle to give a dinner at the church next Wednesday evening. Guests of the circle for the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Maurer of Falls City, parents of the hostess.

The regular monthly meeting of the Marion county Republican women's club Thursday afternoon which was held in the Commercial club rooms. Officers for the year were elected. They are, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, president; Mrs. Helen Southwick, first vice president; Mrs. Seymour Jones, second vice president; Mrs. A. L. Johnson, secretary, and Mrs. O. P. Hoff, treasurer. The Japanese question which has been studied by the club for several meetings was again discussed along with other current events.

An unusually large gathering attended the monthly coffee of the Jason Lee women Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Effie Dunlap on North Fourth street. An atmosphere of good fellowship prevailed and many new Salem folk were present. After dainty refreshments had been served by the hostess and Mrs. Fred Barker, Miss Vera Wright gave several vocal solos accompanied by Mrs. C. M. Roberts.

Mrs. T. B. Kay was in Portland for a short stay during last week.
