COURT UPHOLDS BANKING LAWS

Charter Not to be Granted for Another Bank at St. Johns, Portland

Among 12 opinions handed down by the supreme court yesterday were three of more than ordinary interest. These were the action of S. A. Mulkey et al. vs. Will H. Bennett, state superintendent of banks, and members of the state banking board, appellants, reversed; George A. Hartman et al. vs. the city of Pendleton et al., appellants, the famous Pendleton Public Library case, affirmed and modified; and Laura A. Collins et al., appellants, vs. Ada L. Long et al., a Linn county case to set aside a will, affirmed.

The case of Mulkey and others against the superintendent of banks and the banking board, composed of Ben W. Olcott as governor and secretary of state and O. P. Hoff as state treasurer, was a proceeding in mandamus to compel the defendants to issue the plaintiffs a charter to do a banking business in the district of St. Johns, Portland. The bank was to be known as the Bank of Commerce.

Bennett Withholds Charter. Bennett refused to issue a charter for the proposed bank, pointing out that a national bank already existed at St. Johns, which was the amalgamation of two national banks formerly located there, also that a state bank on the outskirts expected to move into the business district. The promoters appealed from Bennett's decision to the banking board which upheld Bennett. Mandamus proceedings were started in the circuit court for Marion county and the decree of Judge Bingham favored the petitioners. The state officials ap-

18 YEARS SERVICE ENDS

Minister Leaves Post With No Plans for Future and With Regret

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—(By The Associated Press)—Henry P. Fletcher has resigned as United States ambassador to Mexico to take effect in the course of the next few weeks.

Those who know the reason for Mr. Fletcher's decision say that he was convinced that a continuation of the efforts he has made during the four years during which he has held this important post to bring the Carranza government into accord with the United States government on the many irritating issues which have arisen, involving the protection of American lives and property rights would be futile.

18 Years Service Ends. He terminates 18 years of service in the diplomatic branch of the government with great regret and without any particular plans for his own future, but feels certain he can no longer be helpful in cultivating proper relations with Mexico as long as President Carranza remains in control there. The Ambassador's activity in the presentation of the American demands, have made it certain that he could not return to his post with benefit to either government.

Confirmation Not Offered. State department officials tonight did not offer any confirmation of the reported resignation and Mr. Fletcher, himself, is absent from Washington.

Mr. Fletcher was appointed ambassador to Mexico in February, 1914, but did not go to Mexico City until February of the following year. He returned from Mexico a year ago and the affairs of the embassy there since have been conducted by George T. Summerlin, as charge d'affaires.

He was passed for cause by the prosecution.

Little Known of the Affair. Under examination by the defense Young said he had no prejudice against the I. W. He said he was not a member of any labor organization, that he simply did not care to join them. He believed in labor's right to strike, however, he said. Youngs knew little about the Centralia affair, he said, for his work made it impossible for him to read much of the tragedy as it was told in the newspapers. He examined numerous newspaper articles submitted by the defense which told of events following the shooting of four former service men, but declared he had read but few of them. "Not enough to form an opinion," he said. During the war Young was a member of the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen but his membership expired more than a year ago, he said. The loyal legion is an organization formed by lumbermen and workers during the war in an effort to speed up spruce production.

Final Question Passed. As a final question of the examination Attorney George F. Vanderveer for the defense asked Young, if he would be willing, if a member of the I. W. W. and on trial on a similar grave charge, to place his life in the hands of a jurymen who might be of the same frame of mind he was now in and Youngs replied that he would be so willing. Vanderveer then accepted the juror.

Now it's the high cost of sports. Half a million dollar purses for fighters, $125,000 for baseball players, $40,000 purses for wrestlers, $50,000 for skaters! Bobby McLean of Chicago, world's professional ice skating champion, is to receive that amount for a series of races on February 7 and 8 at Christiania, Norway, in which he will defend his title against Oscar Mathison. McLean is the possessor of more than 150 championship titles and has won no less than fifteen international championships. He won his first international title when he was only fifteen years old.

TWO CABINET CHANGES MADE; THIRD LIKELY

LANE GOES OUT SOON

Successor to Glass is Surprise

Leffingwell Rumor Proves Error

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Two more changes in President Wilson's cabinet were made today and a third is expected soon.

David E. Houston of St. Louis, secretary of Agriculture since the beginning of the Wilson administration, was given the treasury portfolio and Edwin L. Meredith of Des Moines, Ia., was named to succeed him as head of the department of agriculture.

The third cabinet change expected soon is the appointment of a secretary of interior to succeed Franklin K. Lane, who desires to retire to private life. Mr. Lane's successor has not been selected.

Selection is Surprise. In selecting Mr. Houston to succeed Mr. Glass the president is counter to all guesses of administration officials, most of whom had expected Assistant Secretary Leffingwell to be given the office.

In choosing Mr. Meredith to succeed Mr. Houston, the president selected a practical farmer as well as a business man. Mr. Meredith is editor of Successful Farming, and before establishing that paper was publisher of the Farmers Tribune. He is president of the Associated Advertising clubs of the World, a director in the Chicago Federal Reserve bank and was one of the excess profits advisers of the treasury department appointed in 1917.

In a statement today at Miami, Fla., Mr. Meredith said one of his first undertakings as head of the agricultural department would be to work out some method of getting crops to market without too much lost motion. He is expected in Washington soon to take up his duties.

Original Cabinet Passing. When Secretary Lane passes out of the cabinet only four of the president's original official family will remain. Besides Mr. Houston, they are Secretary Daniels of the navy department, Secretary Wilson of the labor department and Postmaster General Barlow.
