

By Ruth Lenore Fisher

Mr. and Mrs. John McNary entertained Tuesday evening at their home on Summer street. Their guests included the members of the Merry Go Round club, with Mrs. S. C. Dyer and Mrs. Frances Lovelace as additional guests. After the cards Mrs. W. G. Allen and Miss K. Page received the prizes for high scores. The prizes for high scores were given to Mrs. W. G. Allen and Miss K. Page. The prizes for high scores were given to Mrs. W. G. Allen and Miss K. Page.

Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., were hosts last Monday night at their home in South Commercial street for the "Bobby" Burns club, the affair being planned in commemoration of the beloved poet's birthday anniversary. The guests were met at the door by Miss Agnes Bayne, dressed in a highland costume, and during the evening a Scottish program was enjoyed which included a vocal solo by Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, a reading by Rev. James Elvin, an address on Burns by John Bayne, a few remarks on Burns by Rev. T. S. Anderson, Colonel E. Hofer, Dan Fry, Sr., and a recitation by Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist. Mr. and Mrs. McGilchrist, Sr., delighted the guests with some fancy Scotch dancing. Typical Scotch dishes Scotch fashion were served late in the evening. It is planned to have regular meet-

TONSITO

The great hair remover, on sale at U. G. Shipley Co., Brewer Drug Store, Sanitary Beauty Parlors and Mrs. Irene Scott's.

NU-BONE CORSETS

A. E. LYONS

429 Court St. Phone 958

STAMPED GOODS ARRIVE

Our first shipment of new stamped articles for spring just arrived including new Bag Tops, etc.

NEEDLECRAFT SHOP

Phone 958 429 Court St.

NEW APPAREL ARRIVES A HEAD OF SPRING

When so many are wondering when the new Spring Garments for Women will arrive, this advance shipment makes its appearance quite a treat to see them and you yourself will be glad, for they are unquestionably most attractive and arrive at a time when you are very much concerned about a suit, coat dress or skirt.

Kasow Bros.
THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE

Ladies' Store
466-472
State

Men's Store
416
State

Mrs. William G. Neade (Doris Ryan) a bride of last week.

of Oregon. Mr. Condon was professor of geology at the University of Oregon a number of years ago. Mrs. Dolman has studied extensively and her intimate knowledge of the subject makes the little meetings extremely interesting. Mrs. Dolman is almost an authority on astronomy.

The appearance of Ruth St. Denis and her company in this city next Wednesday night will call out a large number of society folk. The Salem Woman's club, in order to show their appreciation to the local management for bringing such a high class show to Salem, are assisting in selling the tickets for which they get a certain percentage for the club.

Complimenting Miss Norma Wechter, whose engagement to M. Smith, a naval officer on the U. S. S. Pollack, was recently made known, Mrs. William Hamilton was hostess at a dinner and dancing party Friday evening at her home. The dinner guests included Miss Wechter, Miss Rose Hirsch and Herbert Wechter, and later the pupils of the state blind school, where Miss Wechter is a teacher, came and spent the evening with a merry dancing party. The quartet from the school entertained the party with several selections and Miss Hirsch, the music instructor, sang a group of solos. One of the features of the evening was the presentation to Miss Wechter by the pupils of several beautiful pieces of silver as an engagement and a farewell gift. The rooms were decorated with pink and white spring flowers and in the refreshments that were served by the hostess the pink and white color scheme was carried out.

Those who came in for the dancing were Misses Frances Tones, Ellen Scroggins, Magdalena Deir, Freda Maurer, Eleanor Courtney, Marie Burns, Iva Myers, and Messrs. Walter Norby, Lake Einstein, Jennings Latimer, Buell Field, Edward Robinson, Malcolm Meddler, Walter Thrasher, Teddy Howe, Cecil Carlyle, John Ragsdale, Herman Moore, Harold Millington, Russel Hudson, Larry Millapaugh, and as additional guests Miss Juanita Moores, Miss Olive Moores and Miss Ruth Wechter.

Miss Lucy Holt and George Holt were honor guests for a farewell party Tuesday evening to which the young people's union of the First Baptist church was host. Miss and Mr. Holt will leave Salem Tuesday with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Holt, for Seattle where they will live in the future. The evening was Mrs. S. E. Edwards asked a few close friends in Thursday afternoon to her home for bridge and later tea. They included Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. John W. Harrison, Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn and Mrs. William Lerehen.

The Marion county children's bureau will give the first of a series of lectures which it will give to the mothers of the city, next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Commercial club. Dr. W. B. Morse will speak on vaccination and the prevailing epidemics and one of the nurses from the Deaconess hospital will talk about the prevention and care of children during these diseases. It is asked that all mothers and women of the city who are interested attend.

Miss Marjory Kay is home from the University of Oregon for the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kay.

Miss Gladys Purdy Parrott and Harold Wygant were married at a pretty service Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the parsonage of the First Methodist church with Rev. Richard N. Avison officiating. Only the parents of the young couple witnessed the ceremony. Following the service Mr. and Mrs. Wygant left for Klamath Falls to make their home.

Mrs. W. M. Plimpton will entertain the bridge luncheon club at her home on North Church street Wednesday.

The many friends of Mrs. Will H. Bennett will be glad to know that she is able to be up and about her house after a week's illness with laryngitis.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Carlton Smith will entertain the Five Hundred club to which they belong on Monday evening, February 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crass of Vancouver, Wash., left Friday for their home after spending a short visit with W. H. H. Darby and Dr. W. H. Darby. Mr. and Mrs. Crass have been spending several weeks in southern California.

Miss Nellie Marthaler of Fairfield is spending the week visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. R. Broyles in this city.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Leslie Methodist church will hold a business meeting and an old fashioned quilting party at the home of Mrs. Mae F. Boyce, 1690 South High street, next Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Luther J. Chapin entertained the women of the Missionary society of the Leslie Methodist church at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. D. H. Bowen delivered a very interesting lecture on her experience as a missionary in China during the Boxer uprising. The hostess served light refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

The Daughters of Veterans held their installation meeting Wednesday evening in the armory, installing

THE CALL FOR A NEW SUIT

Is well nigh irresistible when you investigate the assemblage we are now showing in the Suit department.

Smartly designed, well made, not extreme in style and best of all at prices most reasonable. You will breathe easier when you hear the prices of the suits here this early in the season for they are making happy the early chooser.

H. G. Shipley Co.

Where Shopping Is a Pleasure

the recently elected officers for the coming year. Mrs. F. A. Elliott is the retiring president and Mrs. F. W. Cook is the new president.

The Salem Ministerial association was host for a luncheon yesterday honoring Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Holt who leave Tuesday for Seattle. The affair was held in the Rose room at the Spa and included in the party the members of the association and their wives numbering 40.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Ed Ross announce the birth of a son on Sunday, January 25. He has been named William Roberts.

Miss Jessie Miller is in Portland with relatives for the week end. She will attend the grand opera.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney had as their guests at dinner Friday evening Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Holt, Miss Lucy Holt and George Holt. Covers were laid for eight.

Professor and Mrs. T. S. Roberts have as their house guest from Portland Miss Anne Holmeren, who is making an extended stay in that city from her home in Kansas City.

Miss Mildred Wells is spending the week end with friends in Sheridan.

Lyle Bartholomew and four guests including George McFall of Portland George Goulding of Montgomery, Alabama, Sheridan Reed of Portland and John Spencer of Portland, all University of Oregon men, were in Salem a few days this week at the Fred A. Bartholomew home on their way to Eugene from Portland.

Word has come to Salem from the University of Oregon campus that Dolph Lawrence Craig, a pre-medical student there and a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Craig of this city, has just been pledged to the Batchelor club.

A pretty home wedding that is of much interest was that of Miss Selma Kumrow and George Spicer, which was solemnized Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Kumrow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Kumrow, 1288 State street. Rev. H. C. Stover read the services in the presence of the relatives and a few friends. Miss Kumrow wore a gown of white crepe de chine with silver lace trimmings and carried an arm bouquet of white and flesh colored carnations. Her bridesmaid, who was her sister, Miss Florence Kumrow, wore a pretty frock of robin's egg blue georgette and carried a deep shaded pink carnations. Lee Morelock was best man for the groom. Little Marguerite Smith as flower girl wore a dainty blue dress and carried a basket of white narcissi.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Ruby Wells sang "I Love You Truly" and the Lohengrin wedding march was played by Mrs. Otto Wilson. During the wedding feast which followed, Mrs. Wilson cut the ices and Miss Viola Smith, a sister of the bride, poured. The house was artistically decorated with palms and white carnations intermingled with trailing ivy.

A honeymoon trip to Chicago had been planned, but because of the influenza situation the trip east had to be postponed and after a short stay in Portland they will return to make their home with the bride's parents on State street.

Both are well known Salem people. The bride came here with her parents seven years ago from the east. She was graduated from the Salem high school in June, 1919. The groom came here more recently, last March, from Portland and is owner of the Salem Auto exchange.

Governor Ben W. Olcott and son Chester, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner and Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Meyers came home yesterday from a week's sojourn at the Steiner cottage at Neskonwilt.

Mrs. R. B. Goodin and Mrs. Ralph Glover furnished a happy evening Wednesday when they gathered the members of their Monday afternoon bridge club and their husbands at the Goodin home for an evening of five hundred. Mrs. John Brophy and Charles Murphy carried off the high scores at the conclusion of the play. A dainty supper was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Johnson provided a charming hospitality Tuesday evening at their home when they entertained at cards, inviting guests to make up five tables of five hundred. Miss Zoe Stockton and Henry Conover won the prizes for high scores. When the cards were finished the hostess served a dainty supper.

Mrs. Paul V. Johnson entertained with a little dinner at her home Friday evening. The color scheme was yellow and a basket of yellow tulips gave a delightful thought of springtime. Plates were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Jones entertained the Original Dutch Treat club at their home Tuesday evening. A basket of spring flowers formed an attractive centerpiece to the table around which were seated Mr. and Mrs. George H. Alden, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Lodge, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Jones.

(Continued on page 2)

FROLASET CORSETS

For Spring Wear. Also Athletic Girdles for misses and women who engage in all kinds of athletic sports. These are made of elastic material and flexible stays, so they insure comfort and ease. Elastic bandages for stout figures.

RENSKA L. SWART CORSET SPECIALIST

115 Liberty Street.

FUR SALE 10% OFF

Best Alaskan Fox
CAPES, SCARFS

Now is the time to buy furs as our new stock will sell at advanced prices on account of the increased cost of raw material

West Fur Co.

521 Court Street