INDIGESTION GOES, GONE!

"Pape's Diapepsin" at once fixes Your Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomach

Stomach acidity causes indigestion!

Food souring, gas, distress! Wonder what upset your stomach? Well, don't bother! The moment you eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin all the lumps of indigestion pain, the sourness, heartburn and belching of gases, due to acidity, vanish—truly wonderful!

Millions of people know that it is needless to be bothered with indigestion, dyspepsia or a disordered stomach. A few tablets of Pape's diapepsin neutralize acidity and give relief at once—no waiting! By a box of Pape's Diapepsin now! Don't stay miserable! Try to regulate your stomach so you can eat favorite foods without causing distress. The cost is so little. The benefits so great.

BANQUET GIVEN FOSTER PLAYERS

Farewell Event Takes Place on Stage of Bligh Theater Friday Night

A merry farewell banquet was prepared as a surprise in honor of the Howard Foster Players company Thursday night by the management of the Bligh theater, to express the appreciation of the diversion which the company has supplied to the public at the Bligh theater for the past five months. The players will soon leave here for Ashland where they will fill an eight weeks contract.

The luncheon was served on the stage of the theater after the evening's show was completed. Covers were laid for 28 persons and the table was cozily decorated with floral remembrances to Mrs. Howard Foster, a small doll visitor for fair Honolulu, with befitting surroundings, reposed in the center of the table. T. J. Bligh arranged the affair and F. W. Jobelman was master of ceremonies.

After the luncheon Mr. Jobelman gave a toast to the Foster players and responses were made. One of the most appreciated incidents of the evening was a song by Freddie Jobelman, 13 years old. Master Jobelman was introduced by his father as an outsider. Freddie was not seen until the song was over and it was believed by some that the singer was a person who had long studied music.

The Howard Foster Players company is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Foster and their two charming children; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Phipps and O. W. Orton.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Bligh, Master George Bligh, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Miller, Miss Loretta Miller, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Hinkle, Mrs. L. Grezory, Mrs. Serenae DeJoules, M. M. McConville, W. B. Summer-ville, Mrs. B. L. Blackwood, H. C. Marvin, Murray Wade, Hazel Pick-ton, Fred W. Jobelman, Ivan Cooper, Harold Friend, Will Carver, Archie Holt, Norma Ray, Freddie Jobelman and Miss Helen Campbell Glenn Norton.

DALLAS, Or., Jan. 31.—(Special to The Statesman).—T. C. Stockwell arrived home this week from a trip to England and Wales made on a Portland built ship, Mr. Stockwell who is a wireless operator, a graduate of the Portland Y. M. C. A. wireless school, left the Columbia river about July 1 last year, on the steamship Kangi, a product of the Standi-ship shipyards, with a cargo of lumber for Plymouth, England. On the trip over the ship encountered a tail-end storm in the Caribbean sea but Mr. Stockwell states that the vessel behaved wonderfully well. The only other mishap which befell the ship was on the return trip when the wireless apparatus was carried away during a storm.

After a short visit with his family here, Mr. Stockwell intends to go to sea again, this time probably to the Orient.

CHARLES W. HAWLEY, JR., the new Organist at the Oregon who comes from the Twoli Theatre, San Francisco, California.

TONIGHT! YES! YOU MUST!

You Can't Stay Bilious and Constipated. Your Liver and Bowels Need "Cascarets"—No Gripe!

Turn the rascals out—the head-ache, biliousness, indigestion, colds, the sour stomach and misery-making gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a laxative, clogged bowels, or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of discomfort.

Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

Cascarets tonight straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep.

Walker Whiteside in "The Master of Ballantrae"

The celebrated sword combat in the last act of Robert Louis Stevenson's thrilling play of romance and roguery, "The Master of Ballantrae."

Which will she save? Husband or lover? Two men fight desperately with naked swords, beneath the flickering light of a candleabrum, held aloft by a trembling old servant. The wife hides in the shadow, battling with her soul, but Fate decides the question, and the lover meets his just deserts, for he is the villain of the piece.

In a nut shell, this scene is the climax of Robert Louis Stevenson's thrilling play of romance and roguery, "The Master of Ballantrae." Walker Whiteside will present this masterpiece of adventure and sentiment; villainy and fidelity, at the Grand Opera house in Salem on Tuesday night, February 3rd. James Durie is the part which Mr. Whiteside will portray. A dashing, devil-may-care rascal; lovable in spite of his faults; detestable by reason of his frailties.

In the star's excellent supporting company will be found such players as Hubert Druce, Frederick Roland, Maurice Barrett, Harry Dornon, William H. Sullivan, Carl Vose, Miss Sydney Shields, Miss May Buckley and Miss Virginia Duncan.

Handsome costumes of the year 1756, will be worn by Mr. Whiteside and his associates, and beautiful scenes showing the huge baronial hall in Castle Duriadeer will command attention by reason of their beauty and fidelity to the architecture of the century.
