Son Is Administrator—
T. L. Davidson Jr., 37, was appointed administrator of the estate of J. L. Davidson, Sr., by the county court yesterday. Mr. Davidson died here recently leaving an estate in Marion county to the probable value of $10,700 and real property in Yamhill county worth about $1300. The only living kin and heir to the estate is T. L. Davidson, son of the deceased, according to the report filed with the court. E. M. Page, Olga Gray and Donald W. Miles were selected by the county court to appraise the property of the deceased in Marion county and Joe Stewart, Levi Marks and A. B. Bewly were appointed to place a valuation on the property in Yamhill county.

Legal Blanks—
Get them at The Statesman office Catalog on application.

Appraisers Named—
W. E. Welch, F. J. Tucker and Fred Trew were appointed by the county court yesterday to appraise the property of Callista Moore, Emma Moore, and Kenneth, Harold, William and Donald Moore, minors. The property all lies in Columbia county, near Rainier.

Salem Doctors to Talk in Schools Friday Night
Under the auspices of the Red Cross, lectures on symptoms, home nursing and care of influenza will be given in the schoolhouses of Salem Friday night beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Local physicians will give the addresses. The Red Cross is sponsoring the lectures to educate the people in precautionary measures which may be necessary to ward off the disease, particularly in view of the shortage of nurses which would be considerable if the epidemic should assume serious proportions. Smallpox will be discussed in the lectures also.

New Place in Argo Hotel Equipped for Best of Trade at Big Expense

John R. Loper, formerly of the Home restaurant, has leased from J. H. Lauterman the spacious dining room in the Argo hotel and has fitted it up with an entire new equipment at a cost of more than $4000. The new place will be known as the Argo Hotel Dining room. It will open next Monday, the first meal being at the noon hour on that day. The new dining room will be one of the largest in Salem. Including the kitchen its dimensions are 40 by 75 feet and it has capacity for 125 persons. It will not be seated for full capacity at first, however, but will be equipped to serve about 80 persons at one time. Money has been generously expended on decorations. The walls are decorated with imported tapestry paper up to the plate rail, which extends entirely around the dining room. The floor is covered with inlaid linoleum.

The dining room is in the Argo building at the left of the lobby on entering the hotel, the two compartments being connected by a door. Also there is an outside entrance to the dining room. Breakfast will be served a la carte, while luncheons and dinners will be a special service. Mr. Lauterman, owner of the Argo, has also recently decorated the lobby of the hotel at a considerable expense and it now is equipped to take care of commercial business in first class fashion.

Paris Newspapers Make Capital of Congress' Refusal to Adopt Treaty

PARIS, Feb. 4.—Commenting upon the letter of Viscount Grey, British ambassador to the United States to the London Times with regard to the American position on the peace treaty, the Echo de Paris says: "The allies are abandoning President Wilson."

The paper adds that Viscount Grey succeeded in persuading Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain and former Premier Clemenceau, to adopt his viewpoint when in Paris some weeks ago and the letter to the Times will, it asserts, probably be followed by an official note along the same

SENATOR TAKES HAND IN RACKET
Chamberlain Says Deposed Postmaster Will Be Used Same as Other Persons

PORTLAND, Or., Feb. 4.—A special dispatch from Washington received here today quoted Senator Chamberlain as saying that if Frank S. Myers, dismissed by the president as postmaster at Portland, persists in opposing the order he "will be treated as any other private citizen who tries to obstruct public business and will land in jail." The senator is quoted as declaring Myers will not find any friends in the senate to take up his case, should he carry out his announced intention of appealing to that body to retain him in his position here.

Myers, upon being advised of the senator's statement, said: "I am well aware that for the past six years Senator Chamberlain has been trying to have me removed but I do not believe the United States senate will deny me a fair hearing." Myers claims his removal was for political reasons.
