Desertion Causes Divorce—

Anna V. Cummins was granted a decree of divorce from Ruben O. Cummins in the circuit court yesterday. Desertion was the grounds of the decree. Mrs. Cummins filed suit for divorce in the circuit court some time ago and in the complaint alleged that she and Mr. Cummins married in Salem in November of 1917, that about one year after their marriage Mr. Cummins, against her wishes, willfully abandoned and deserted her. In addition to the divorce the court awarded her a sum of $500 as alimony, the costs of the action and a right to use her maiden name, Anna V. Lomax.

Baby Daughter Arrives—
Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Sherman have a new arrival in their home, a 6½ pound baby girl. In celebration of this occasion, Professor Sherman has given his classes several days vacation this week. He reports that mother and babe are doing nicely, and are being well cared for at the home of Mrs. Sam Vail on Cottage street.

Girl Wanted—
At the Spa.

Ferguson Initiated—
Verne Ferguson, president of the Willamette freshmen for the past term, was this week inducted into the mystic lore of the Sigma Tau fraternity. Although it is a national engineering fraternity called the Sigma Tau, the local Willamette "frat" by that name need not change its name. This was ascertained by a letter from the national Sigma Tau fraternity which was received by the local society last week.

Army Instructions Come—
W. W. Sites, of the Salem army recruiting station, has received information that enlistments in field artillery for service in the Panama canal department are now authorized. Special assignments are granted to all men enlisting and re-enlisting for the field artillery, Panama canal department.

Protest Is Urged—
In a telegram received from Washington, signed by John E. Benton, the Oregon public service commission is asked to protest against insertion in pending railroad legislation of a clause empowering the interstate commerce commission to change purely intrastate rates without formal hearing to curb alleged discrimination by the state service commissions against intrastate rates. It is held that such an act would deprive the state commissions of power that rightfully belongs to them. The office of the Oregon commission is not informed relative to the position held by Benton, signer of the telegram.

Water Applications—
The Sutherlin Valley Water Users' association has filed an application with the state engineering department for the appropriation of 25 second feet of water from the Calapooia creek for irrigation of an area of land near the town of Sutherlin. Other applications filed yesterday were: by C. D. Nickelson of Hood River covering an appropriation of waste water for domestic purposes and the operation of a hydraulic ram. By Mary J. Hill of Kerby, Oregon, for the appropriation of water from the west fork of Illinois river for the irrigation of a 25 acre tract in Josephine county. By Mrs. C. N. Bradford of Fife, Ore., covering an appropriation of water from Long Hollow creek for the irrigation of 25 acres in Crook county. By Adelsperger & Conrad of Marshfield for the appropriation of water from springs for domestic use from three different tracts near Marshfield.

New Corporations—
The Northern Livestock Loan company, a new Portland corporation, filed articles here yesterday at the office of H. J. Schullerman, state corporation commissioner. The capitalization of the firm is $360,000. The incorporators are: John H. Town, Henry St. Rayner and Albert E. Peake. Other articles were filed as follows: Portland Financial corporation, Portland; incorporators, Joseph Burke, Victor St. Rayner, Emile E. Ratelle; capitalization, $5000. Coquille Hardware company, Coquille; incorporators, Arthur Ellingson, Hulda Ellingson, William Pettys; capitalization, $15,000. Broadbent Cheese company, Broadbent; incorporators, E. F. Schroeder, W. F. Warner, R. E. Forrest, W. L. Bell; capitalization, $8000. Arago Cheese company, Arago; incorporators, R. M. Bunn, J. D. Carl, Clarence E. Schroeder; capitalization, $4500. Supplementary articles of incorporation were filed by Markham & Kepple, Inc., of Portland, changing the name to the Sunset Auto Repair company. Resolutions were filed by the firm of Markham & Kepple of Portland showing an increase in capitalization from $500 to $2500, and by the Gillen-Chambers company of Portland showing an increase from $10,000 to $200,000.
