MRS. Homer Couley entertained with a dinner last night at her country home celebrating the seventh birthday anniversary of her son, Homer, Jr. Red hearts and red candles formed attractive table decorations and were in keeping with the valentine season. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre, Miss Rovena Eyre, David Eyre, Jr., Homer Couley, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Couley.

Mrs. E. E. Waters is home from Portland where she visited for a week with her daughter.
Mrs. W. C. Knight has returned to her home in Portland after a short stay in Salem with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Miles.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo which is pure and greaseless and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Bayne came in Wednesday from their new home at Chemawa for a short stay with relatives. Mr. Bayne has recently purchased a large orchard at Chemawa.

Flowers and cheery messages are being sent to Mrs. J. N. Skaffe who is ill at her home with influenza.

The Women's Mission circle of the first Baptist church will meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the church parlors. All the women will take their mite boxes.

Little Ransom Miles, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Miles, is visiting for several days in Portland with his aunt, Mrs. W. C. Knight.

Mrs. Laura Bent of San Francisco has arrived in Salem and will visit at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer.

The Y. W. C. A. in Italy was 25 years old in November. Since the first club was started in 1894 50 centers have opened in all parts of the peninsula and the work was growing rapidly when it was halted by the war.

During the past year the American Y. W. C. A., co-operating with the Italian association, has opened industrial centers, as well as a hotel in Genoa and a boarding house for students in Rome.

Mrs. J. P. Hunt entertained the women of the east circle of the Christian church for their business and social meeting yesterday. The house was prettily decorated with pussywillows and purple spring blossoms. At the close of the afternoon a light lunch was served. Those present were Mesdames Abner Lewis, Sarah G. Drager, W. M. Bushey, Mary Howd, Eugenia Gillingham, Leland W. Porter, S. A. Riggs, N. M. Ransom, E. A. Downing, T. C. White, E. L. Townsend, G. V. Volkel, Guy E. Wilcox, H. W. Conger, E. Conger, L. W. White, Miss Mary Porter, and Miss Cecelia Wilson, and the hostess.

SHERIFF ORR GIVES WARNING

Poultrymen Are Told to Look Out for Peddler of Poultry Medicine

Sheriff John W. Orr of Polk county has sent to The Statesman a letter of warning to poultry producers against persons going about the country representing themselves to be poultry experts sent out by the state. These persons are dispensers of certain so-called remedies which they dispose of to the farmers at exorbitant figures. In some instances this has proved to be common sheep dip.

Sheriff Orr's letter follows: "Will you kindly inform your readers through the columns of your paper that there are parties going about the country representing themselves to be paid by the state of Oregon and show them how to cull out the chickens from the droves, and how to take care of their poultry in general.

"After doing a lot of work free for the poultryman they will try to sell him remedies of different kinds at a very high price, and in most cases the unsuspecting poultryman, feeling that he is under some obligation for the useful hints given him, and the man being sent out by the state, as supposed, they think they are taking no chances in making a very liberal purchase.

"I have information from the secretary of state that there is no one receiving pay from the state for this work, and I am so informed by Professor Dryden, of the Agricultural college, at Corvallis, that they do not have any field men working in connection with the college at this time."

Y. W. C. A. Budget More Than Half Solicited

The Y. W. C. A. workers and captains were again successful yesterday in their drive for the $5000 budget fund, $1,212.50 having been turned into headquarters. This brings the total amount already raised to $2,780.50. All workers and captains will meet this morning at 9:30 o'clock for a special meeting to raise the remaining amount today and Saturday.

BE RID OF PAINFUL CORNS

"Gets-It" Makes Them Loosen Up So They Lift Off Painlessly.

There's no more pain after a few drops of "Gets-It" lands upon corn or callous and instantly dries.

In a day or two you lift the old misery-maker right off without even feeling it. That's the last of Mr. Corn and the last of your misery. Millions who have lost their corns the "Gets-It" way say it is the only common-sense way to get rid of the pests. "Gets-It," the never-failing, guaranteed money-back corn remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Sold by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Salem and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry, Capital Drug Store, Wm. Neimeyer, Central Pharmacy.
