

CITY NEWS

Will Celebrate Sunday—

The daughters of the American Revolution will hold patriotic exercises at the armory Sunday, Washington's birthday, at 3 p. m.

Cretonne Special—

Values to $1.75, 68c yard, while they last. Hamilton's.

Convention Well Attended—

Among those who attended the convention of Metropolitan Life Insurance agents held in Salem Saturday were delegates from Albany, McMinnville and a number of other towns. One of them was Nick Moffitt of McMinnville.

Flag Raising Enjoyed—

Salem Heights school celebrated a flag-raising Friday afternoon with a brief and impressive ceremony which was witnessed by the pupils and patrons of the school.

Legal Blanks—

Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.

Inspection Tour Ends—

Mrs. M. L. Fulkerson, who has just returned to Salem from a tour of inspection of the schools in the vicinity of Silverton noticed especial ly the spirit of progress in district No. 195, where new blackboards and new seats have been installed. The responsibility for this improvement may readily be attributed to the activities of Miss Mabel Furue, who is in charge of this school.

B. P. O. E. Dance—

Tuesday night, Feb. 17th.

Music Club Entertains—

The Valentine motif in decorating added charm to the regular monthly meeting of the Cecilia Music club which was held at the home of Miss Mabel Marcus last Wednesday. The program was rendered by Frances Hodge, a piano solo; Maude Powell, a reading; and Mabel Marcus, a reading. Elaborate refreshments were served.

Leabo Family Returns—

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Leabo, who were among the earlier residents of Salem, have returned after a sojourn of several years in Oakland, Calif., and are making their home at 1780 Court street.

Kimball Factory Tuner Arrives—

H. B. Adamson, expert piano tuner and repair man, arrived from Kansas City and decided to start in Salem taking the position of the late T. L. Holley with G. W. C. Will, the music dealer.

Mining Company Forms—

The Little Butte Mining Company with capital stock of $100,000 has been incorporated by W. J. Bruggerman, E. L. Potts and T. J. Simpson. Headquarters of the company have been established at Brownsboro, Jackson county. The Eugene & Western Lumber Company, with headquarters at Eugene, has been incorporated by F. B. Roberts, E. C. Immel and V. D. Collison. The capital stock is $10,000 and the purpose of the corporation is to conduct a general lumbering business. "The P. T. Ainge Company" of Portland, has been incorporated by P. T. Ainge, E. J. Curtin and Julius Cohn. The capital stock is $50,000. The corporation will engage in the manufacture of fixtures and furniture. J. E. Graham, David Pepp and H. W. Graham have incorporated the Crow-Elkhart Sales Agency, with a capital stock of $5000. Headquarters of the company will be located in Portland. Notice of dissolution has been filed by The C. J. Johnson Company, with headquarters in Portland.

Appraisers Are Named—

The administration of the estate of Reatha Low, who died recently in Salem, has been assigned to Charles E. Low, W. S. Low, William Hughes and G. E. Unruh have been appointed by County Judge W. M. Bushey to appraise the property involved.

Justice Returns Here—

Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris were the guests of friends in Portland for the week end. They attended David Warfield's performance of "The Auctioneer."

Card of Thanks—

We wish to extend our thanks and gratitude to those who helped us in our recent loss of our Baby daughter and granddaughter Mildred Grace Hullin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hulien Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Schoeffler Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boyd

Girls' Tryout Delayed.

The try-out for the Willamette girls' inter-collegiate will be postponed because of the Revival meetings. The new date will be set later.

Beckett Funeral Held.

Funeral services for the late Clyde Wallace Beckett, prominent Polk county man, who died Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the Rigdon chapel. The chapel was not large enough to accommodate the many relatives and friends who were in attendance and the floral tributes were beautiful. Rev. H. N. Aldrich of the Leslie Methodist church conducted the services.

VERIBEST TRANSFER

We want your business and will satisfy you to get it. All the service possible for the price.

VERIBEST TRANSFER

Phone 1344 129 S. Com'l

EAGLE DRESS SHIRTS

$2.00, $3.00 to $10.00

SCHEP'S

344 State Street

The Kuppenheimer House in Salem

519 Court St. Derby building

OREGONUS

A PERFECT ORGAN

Manufactured by

HENDERSON'S CIGAR FACTORY

Phone 219

Salem Auto Radiator Shop

Radiators, Fenders and Gas

Tanks Repaired

Tractor Radiators a Specialty

Ford Radiators for Sale

198 S. 12th St. Salem, Ore.

Bonds, Mortgages

Interest Bearing Investments

HAWKINS & ROBERTS

204-207 Oregon Building

MYRTLE KNOWLAND

Music and Musical Merchandise

Sonora Dealer in Salem

415 Court St. Salem, Oregon

Telephone 362

EYEGLASSES

THAT FIT

DR. L. HALL WILSON

210-211 U. S. National Bank Bldg

U. S. GARAGE

654 Ferry Street

USED BUT NOT ABUSED CARS

SPECIAL—New Series Studebaker, value $1625, today $1300. U. S.

Garage. Phone 1752

POTATOES

Seed and Table Stock. Get them now, they won't last long.

Phone 717. Office 542 State St.

Warehouse Trade and High

MANGIS BROS.

LONG DISTANCE AUTO

TRUCKING

WILLAMETTE VALLEY

TRANSFER CO.

Phone 1400

We also do local hauling.

WANTED!

WHITE

BEANS

PEOPLES CASH STORE

271 Chemeketa St. Salem, Ore.

WANTED!

WHITE

BEANS

PEOPLES CASH STORE

271 Chemeketa St. Salem, Ore.

WANTED!

WHITE

BEANS

PEOPLES CASH STORE

271 Chemeketa St. Salem, Ore.

WANTED!

WHITE

BEANS

PEOPLES CASH STORE

271 Chemeketa St. Salem, Ore.

ducted the services and the quartet of the same church sang two songs. Pallbearers were J. W. Harriet, Byron Harriet, John Shindler, Sam Phillips, Dar Gibson and Henry Vandervort. The body was laid to rest in the City View cemetery.

Sextette From Lucia—

Will be played by six of Salem's young musicians tonight in concert given by orchestra at First Christian church. Tickets on sale at Patton Brothers' book store. Adults 50c; children 25c.

Funeral of Mrs. Bolter—

The funeral of Mrs. A. M. Bolter will be held at 2:30 this afternoon, at the Finley undertaking parlors in Portland. Mrs. Bolter was a resident of the Brooks neighborhood, an died at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Wanted—Man To Do Janitor Work

Apply at Gray Belle.

Speeder Is Arrested—

When Traffic Officer Moffitt arrested him on Twelfth street, C. T. Thompson, 19, was said to be going at the rate of 35 miles an hour. He said that business called him from the city and prevented his appearance before Police Judge Race, so he forfeited his bail of $5 to Chief of Police Welsh, Monday, and was released.

Karlton Back at Desk—

F. A. Karlton has so far recovered from an attack of influenza which kept him confined to his home for the last two weeks as to be able to take up once more his duties as assistant state superintendent of instruction.

Deputy Clerk Ill—

Another victim of the influenza is Miss Ruth Wallace, a deputy in the office of County Clerk Boyer, who was taken ill Saturday night and is unable to continue her duties.

Rigdon and Son—

Reliable funeral directors.

Roads Reported Good—

A. H. Moore reports the roads to Portland to be in fair condition, season considered, after a trip there with his family. Mr. Moore visited J. N. Ryan who is rather seriously ill in one of the Portland hospitals. Mr. Ryan was at one time employed on the mechanical staff of one of the local dailies.

Churchill Goes East—

J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction left Salem Saturday night for an extended trip east during which he will attend, first the annual convention of the national society for vocational instruction to be held in Chicago, February 19 to 21, and later the annual meeting of the department of superintendents of the National Educational association which is to be held in Cleveland, Ohio.

Love, Watchmaker and Jeweler—

337 State street, Salem.

Grade Crossing Sought—

Application has been filed with the Oregon public service commission asking for the establishment of a grade crossing over the Southern Pacific railroad tracks in Coos county. Hearing of the application has been set for late in the present month.

Fire Survey Completed—

Deputy state fire marshals who have been making a number of fire surveys in Eastern Oregon have completed their task at Ontario and left.

USED CAR BARGAINS

1918 Velle Six.....$1300
1918 Studebaker Six.....$900
Light Four Studebaker, has run less than 6000 miles.....$450
Cadillac Roadster.....$450

SALEM VELLE COMPANY

162 North Com'l

WEST FUR CO.

Furs of Quality

New Location

251 Court St. Opp. Court House

DO YOU KNOW

That You Can Get

The Best Meal in Town at

THE BLUEBIRD CAFE

You Will Appreciate The

Cleanliness and High Quality of Food

163 South Commercial St.

One Trial Will Convince You

DENNISON ELECTRIC CO.

JOB WORK AND FIXTURES

222 North Liberty Street

WANTED

JUNK AND MACHINERY OF ALL

KINDS

We also buy second-hand goods.

If you have anything to sell for a good price call 398. The Square

Deal House.

CAPITAL JUNK CO.

271 Chemeketa St. Salem, Ore.

NEW

DREAMLAND RINK

East End State Street

SALEM OREGON

ROLLER SKATING

Every Afternoon and Evening

1:30 and 7:30 p. m.

Band Music Friday

Admission 10 Cents

Wanted!

WHITE

BEANS

PEOPLES CASH STORE

271 Chemeketa St. Salem, Ore.

Wanted!

WHITE

BEANS

PEOPLES CASH STORE

271 Chemeketa St. Salem, Ore.

Wanted!

WHITE

BEANS

PEOPLES CASH STORE

271 Chemeketa St. Salem, Ore.

H. G. Shipley Co.

Outfitters to Women, Misses and Children

Quality Merchandise

Popular Prices

uled time, by his illness which confined him to his home, 580 Center street. Mrs. Varney was also suffering from the influenza but her condition is much improved.

Burial Date Is Set

The funeral services of the late Mrs. W. A. Pomeroy (Alice Wheeler), who died at Tulea, Oklahoma, Wednesday February 11, will be held at the funeral parlors of Edward Holman & Son, 220 Third Street, Portland, Oregon, on Wednesday, February 18, at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in the Riverview cemetery.

Night Patrolman Ill—

Night Patrolman Frank White may have influenza. He became ill while on the down town streets Sunday night and was taken to his home in a taxi. Patrolman White was recently appointed to take the place of Troy Branson.

Silverton Store Robbed—

A Silverton hardware store was relieved by burglars of two hundred pocket knives and twelve razors according to the report made by the Silverton authorities to the Salem police, early Sunday morning. Local police were asked to aid in the search for the thieves and their loot.

Evangelist's Talks Inspire—

Reverend Daniel G. Hodgins, a well-known evangelist of Ohio, is conducting the revival meetings now being held at the Highland Friends church. His preaching is scriptural, practical, and reverent. Meetings are every afternoon at 2 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Train Wreck Disastrous—

A Southern Pacific freight engine backed his train off of a spur on South Twelfth street early Monday morning while it was too dark to see the end of the spur. Two telegraph poles with considerable wire were torn down and seven gondola cars were derailed but no one was injured.

Cashier Purchases Car—

J. D. Mix drove home to Independence, where he is cashier of the bank, in a new Velle car which he purchased Saturday from the Salem Velle company, 162 North Commercial street.

School Is Improved—

Miss Agnes Bock is in charge of the Davis school, district No. 95, which was reported by School Supervisor Mrs. M. L. Fulkerson as showing general improvement. Much modern equipment, including new seats, has been installed and the grounds and buildings have been thoroughly cleaned.

Salem Visit Delayed—

Owing to unforeseen circumstances the visit which Lynn Harold Hough planned to make Salem and Willamette university has been indefinitely postponed. Hough is touring the west in the interest of the educational program of the Methodist church.

Auto In Collision—

A Ford Sedan belonging to E. F. Ryder, 1305 Broadway, and a delivery car owned by the William Gahlsdorf company collided at the corner of Chemeketa and Fourteenth streets Monday afternoon with more or less damage to the machines but without injury to drivers, who were the only occupants. Mr. Ryder was driving his car and Homer Best was at the wheel of the delivery car.

Hall Improvements Made—

The Foresters of America are making a general overhauling of the rooms, installing lockers and making other improvements in their quarters for the benefit of themselves.

Lafferty to Build—

A permit was granted F. G. Lafferty to erect a machine shed and bunkers by the city recorder yesterday. The estimated cost is $300. The building will be located on Front street at Center.

Rotarians—

All Rotarians will be expected at the "luncheon" at Marion hotel Wednesday, February 18 at 1 p. m. Make a note of the hour. District Governor Clayton Williams will speak. 25 visiting Rotarians will accompany the speaker.

Charles De Weese Dead—

Charles De Weese died at a local hospital yesterday afternoon after a lingering illness. The body will be shipped today by the Rigdon company to Marshfield where funeral and burial service will be held. The body was accompanied by his father, Lewis De Weese of North Bend. Mr. De Weese was 37 years old.

Body Arrives in Salem—

The body of Otto Maurer who died in Snohomish, Wash., Friday, arrived in Salem yesterday and will be at the Rigdon Undertaking establishment until 1:30 p. m. today when it will be taken to the Evangelical church where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock. Rev. T. W. Launer of that church will officiate and burial will be in the Lee Mission cemetery.

Varney Assumes Duties—

Percy M. Varney, formerly chief of the Salem police department, is now sufficiently recovered from the influenza to assume his new duties as parole officer at the state penitentiary on Monday. Mr. Varney was prevented from taking up his duties on the first of February, the sched-selves, the Yeomen, the Royal Highlanders, and other orders who use their assembly hall on North Commercial street.

Team Ready for Play—

Paul Wapato, varsity captain, has been coaching the Willamette Freshman basketball team, who will play their first game tonight against the Salem high school. A large number of the freshmen have been turned out and no regular team has been chosen but in the game at the Willamette gymnasium tonight Gansons and Thomas may be forwards, Stone, center; Ellis and Notson, guards.

Banquet Seats on Sale—

Tickets are being sold by the Washingtonian society of Willamette university for their annual banquet, to be given next Monday evening in the basement of the First Methodist church. They will cost you 65 cents each. Those who are responsible for this one big feeding event is the Washingtonian year are the students whose homes are in Washington, who constitute the membership of the society. Among the speakers will be representatives of each class in the university, the alumni, the trustees, the faculty and every organization in the school.

WA - F

Furniture, ranges, stoves, tools and, in fact, anything you have to sell. I buy for cash. Phone 519 or 511.

WOODY, The Auctioneer