CATLIN ADDS $100 TO AID SALEM CLUB

More Than $7500 of $10,000 Included in Budget is Subscribed and Campaign Will End Next Week

LETTER BOOSTS FOR HOME TOWN PRODUCTS

Business Men Unanimous in Opinion That Club Has Proved Its Worth

The Salem Commercial club, after two weeks' drive, has raised approximately $7,500 of the $10,000 contained in the budget of the organization for operations during the year 1920. The latter sum, if forthcoming as expected, will be used as a working capital, while the overhead expense will be defrayed almost exclusively from membership dues and incidental receipts.

Although there has been no brass-band tactics resorted to by the solicitors, the subscriptions have been coming in rapidly, and T. E. McCroskey, secretary of the club, believes the goal will be reached before a week from today.

Phoenix Busy City.

It is admitted by practically every business man in Salem that the Commercial club, has done wonders for the city, and the response to the appeal for funds this year is far greater than ever before.

The following letter, written by Russell Catlin, under Phoenix, Ariz., date, gives some idea of what he thinks of the Salem Commercial club and the natural resources that abound in this vicinity:

"In recent issues of the Salem newspapers I have noticed that you are calling for subscriptions for your publicity and extension work. I want to be one of the 100 men to contribute $100 to this cause, and enclosed you will find check for that amount.

"I have spent a little more than two months in this city, and in my opinion it has nothing on Salem except the winter climate, and a well-defined policy on the part of the business interests of the city to work together in the interests of a better and larger Phoenix.

"The city is experiencing at this time a good sized boom, due largely to the activities of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce. The city is full of strangers, and most merchants have more business than they can handle."

Subscriptions Are Liberal.

"40" HAS CONQUERED BLOOD POISON

Scrofulous eruptions, pimples on the face are both annoying and disfiguring. Sores, ulcers, mucous patches, copper colored spots, glandular swellings, inflamed eyelids, wasting of the muscles, constipation, a form of dyspepsia and stomach trouble can all be the result of blood poison. "Number 40 For the Blood," an old doctor's prescription, is the best treatment for all forms of blood poison known to medical science.

Made by J. C. Mendenhall, 40 years a druggist, Evansville, Ind.

Sold by Perry's Drug Store.

"FLU," GRIP, COLDS
Pneumonia, Fevers, Hard Coughs, Tonsillitis

Read this plain statement. First, This whole brood of wicked enemies of health may be kept at bay, the medical authorities say, by keeping up the high quality of the blood, and observing the ordinary laws relating to sanitation and health.

That is why Hood's Sarsaparilla is recommended as a preventative of "flu" and other diseases—it is the standard blood purifier and vitalizer.

Second, for a definite case of any of the prevailing complaints, it is wise immediately to call a physician. Third, for that weakness and prostration following the "flu," grip and other diseases, Hood's Sarsaparilla by renewing the red blood corpuscles wonderfully restores health, builds up the whole system, creates an appetite and "makes food taste good." If a cathartic is needed Hood's Pills are recommended.

OIL PROSPECTS GOOD IN MARION AVERS EXPERTS

C. H. Watt Drills Well at Locomb Which Shows Favorable Results

COMPANY IS FORMED

H. C. Pyle Is Elected Manager and Operator—Work to Continue

Oil has been struck in Marion county, according to the account brought to this city yesterday by C. H. Watt.

Mr. Watt is an experienced oil driller, having operated oil drilling machinery in many of the producing fields in the east and south. He is now a resident of Salem.

Mr. Watt says that well at Locomb is now down 100 feet and filled with water. Crude oil, however, rises to the surface as rapidly as it is skimmed off. He exhibited a sample of the oil yesterday from the new well. It is known commercially as a heavy or fuel oil, having an asphalt base.

The Oregon oil is of the same quality as California and Texas oils. Its present market value is $4.80 a barrel.

"How do you explain the presence of this oil so near the surface?" was asked Mr. Watt.

His theory was that during some violent eruption, the earth's crust became tilted upward, carrying a portion of a primary oil deposit with it. How deep the main oil pool lies can not be told at this time. But he said the company is planning to go down 2500 feet unless oil in paying quantities is struck at a more shallow depth.

The company is made up of Locomb and Lebanon investors. The manager is H. C. Pyle, a timber operator. The company has 8000 acres under lease lying immediately around the project well.

The first indication of oil in that locality was discovered when a deep water well was drilled several years ago.

"We are drilling a hole 12 inches in diameter," said Mr. Watt. We now have 500 feet of casing on the ground.

"Our engine and rig are the same as used in the eastern oil fields. The iron drill alone weighs over two tons. Our prospects for oil are as favorable as any I have seen in the fields of California, where the wells produce all the way from 25 barrels to 5000 barrels a day."

Mr. Watt said a company is now being organized in Salem and that 62 local men have already agreed to contribute $100 each to sink test wells.

The first well, Mr. Watt said, would be put down somewhere near Salem.
