THE STORY OF AN ACCIDENTAL GROOM

He was a lawyer, a school teacher, a nurse-maid, a washerwoman, and ALMOST a husband. Then quite accidentally he became a REAL husband.

It's the funniest complication you ever saw. Don't miss this happy, snappy picture; it's the most enjoyable in many months.

DOGS' PETITION IN CIRCULATION

Council Will Be Urged to Repeal or Amend Present Ordinances

To avoid any misunderstanding of their purpose those in favor of the action advocated to help the dogs have made a more definite statement of their aims and intentions.

1. It is their desire to have a sufficient tax on dogs levied by the state to insure that such dogs as are kept will be owned only by persons who really value them and are willing and able to care for them.

2. They wish laws adequate to insure the destruction, or other satisfactory disposal of such dogs as are a nuisance or a public menace.

3. They desire that ordinances now in force in the city of Salem be so altered as to make possible the keeping of dogs under conditions more favorable to health and sanitation than are now possible.

From this statement, issued by T. G. Bligh, one of the leaders of the movement, it would appear that there is no intention to conduct a "personal liberty for dogs" campaign. The idea is to make the state safe for a canine aristocracy which shall include only such dogs as are assured of adequate care and with provisions to prevent the keeping of a dog by any man becoming a nuisance to any one else.

To the end of securing alterations in the Salem law a petition is being freely circulated and is meeting with eager support. It will be presented to the city council and reads as follows:

"The undersigned citizens of Salem and vicinity would respectfully request your honorable body to amend the present ordinances regulating the keeping of dogs in this city which in their practical operation make it impossible for law-abiding citizens to keep such animals in a humane and sanitary manner and deprive many citizens of the pleasure and benefits of owning a dog. We believe that the existing laws governing owners of dogs have the effect of costing the taxpayers money and returning no revenue to the city, besides having the effect of keeping desirable residents from coming to our city to make their homes."

It would appear that there are uses to which dogs can be put that bring valuable returns and that there are also bonds of sentiment which frequently attach to the keeping of a dog. Many citizens believe that these benefits may be secured without allowing the common welfare to suffer, as is attested by the numbers who are freely signing the above petition.

TROOPS SENT TO SCENE

Impossible for him to have walked from the I. W. W. hall to a billboard a quarter mile distant and back down town where he met the acquaintances within the brief time he said had elapsed between the shooting and meeting with the men.

This question was asked by defense counsel in an endeavor to show that Barnett could not have left a rifle at the billboard, where the state alleges a rifle later was found, and which rifle it is contended, Barnett used in shooting from the Avalon hotel at Grimm and other marchers.

Barnett's rifle was of .30 caliber, he said, and not a .38-55, the caliber of a rifle introduced in evidence. One of the men who testified to corroborate Barnett's testimony said the defendant had only a .30 caliber gun to his knowledge.

Defense Has Inning.

Defense ran short of witnesses shortly after 11 o'clock this morning, forcing an adjournment until tomorrow, when sufficient witnesses to last through the day will be on hand, according to Attorney Vanderveer.

Completion of the effort to prove the Barnett alibi will be concluded tomorrow, Vanderveer said today, after which the defense of Loren Roberts, one of the ten defendants, will be undertaken.

A plea of insanity in behalf of Roberts has been made and an alienist will be called to testify in an effort to prove this contention.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cured with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c.

place by lot, as provided for by statute, but by stipulation of state and defense counsel. Vanderveer argued that he had exercised his 20th peremptory challenges on the 30th juror, the state exercising its one such challenge, under the impression that a vacancy would be filled in the order of original selection. State counsel did not insist upon choosing the juror by lot.

Unimpeachable—if you were to see the unequalled volume of unimpeachable testimony in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla, you would upbraid yourself for so long delaying to take this effective medicine for that blood disease from which you are suffering.

GERMAN HALTER MADE OF PAPER

Local Store Displays Relics Found on Battle Fields During World War

Perhaps the most interesting of the war relics now on exhibition at Kafoury's women's store is a blue colored bridle that once encircled the physiognomy of a German mule (or are all mules German at heart). The interesting thing about this halter is that it is made of paper. Many of us have read of the German use of paper as a cloth and leather substitute and now here is a chance to see an example of it.

A number of guns are on exhibition. One of these is a Lewis machine gun with its circular magazine and air cooling barrel. There is a regular U. S. Enfield such as a great many men in Salem will recognize, and also a .303 automatic rifle which was much used by the American forces.

A Russian cavalry gun, captured in the marshes on the eastern front by the Germans, a German infantry rifle and cavalry carbine, now on exhibit were all picked up on European battlefields.

Another interesting item is a German helmet of a new and unusual design which it was reported was designed to have been worn by the Uhlans after France had been completely subjugated. Large numbers of these helmets were found in a German store house. For some reason or other they had never been used.

A very instructive part of the exhibit are the two cross section shells illustrating two types of the ammunition that was used in the famous French 75 mm gun. One of these illustrates the arrangement of the explosive and ignition of a high explosive shell, the other shows the manner in which the balls are imbedded in a shrapnel shell.

The exhibit also includes a canteen, metal food container, a bayonet, a partially covered with coney skin, an enlisted man's cavalry sash, two bayonets, and a field telephone set complete, all German and all picked up on the field of battle by American troops.

ELKS LAY PLANS FOR GREAT TIME

Committees Are Named for Annual State Convention Here in July

A regular Elks' good time (which, as all the Elks know, is some good time), is planned for visiting Elks who will visit Salem in July for the state convention. Ten thousand are expected. If so, this will be several and careful planning will be required. Adequate preparation is assured by the early appointment of committees to attend to every phase of this unusual opportunity of showing Oregon Elks at large what a very nice place Salem is.

The Salem lodge, which is No. 336 of the B. P. O. E., are planning a very elaborate program which it is expected will be worked out in a style well befitting the occasion. Among other things it is desired that a sufficient number of automobiles be at the disposal of the local organization to provide for the requirements of the pleasure of the guests during their entire stay in Salem. All sorts of entertainment will be provided for the visitors and it is expected that nothing will be lacking to make the convention a perfect and a very memorable event from the standpoint of the visitors.

The following committees have been appointed and are now at work to insure success:

Executive—August Huestein, chairman; Harry J. Wenderoth, T. B. Kay, W. D. Evans, Arthur S. Benson, secretary.

Accommodations—E. A. Kurz, H. W. Meyers, C. S. Hamilton, W. I. Needham, Fred S. Lamport.

THRIPS WORRY FRUIT GROWERS

"What Shall We Do?" Is Cry of Producers in All Parts of County

Prune men, attention! What will be done with thrrips? That is a rather vague name for a parasite that is now believed to infest some Oregon prune and pear orchards.

A limited quarantine for sections in this state affected with thrrips is recommended.

Professor A. L. Lovett, entomologist at the Oregon Agricultural college, says thrrips appear about March 20 to April 5, at which time the trees should be sprayed with a solution recommended by the Oregon Agricultural college.

"There are some very good indications that thrrips injured the prune crop last year in some sections of the state, according to writer in the Oregon Grower.

"Some growers take very little stock in the thrrips, and believe the damage so caused to be from frost. However, the indications are that next year a careful grower will not

Take Your Mother's Advice

An ambitious mother advised her son to go to a business school to prepare for a good place in a business office.

The son instead quit school and started in as a clerk in a business where he is today—almost where he started.

"Do you see that young man over there?" said the boss one day. "He's bright and intelligent and might have become my office manager but for one thing. He wouldn't train himself for anything better than his present job."

The one who gets the big jobs in business is the trained worker. Make preparation at this school.
