

TALK FEATURES TREATY DEBATE IN U. S. SENATE

Senator Norris Speaks for Four Hours in Denunciation of Proposed Pact

PEOPLE MAY HAVE SAY

Borah, of Idaho, Would Carry Peace Row Direct to People of Nation

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The senate talked without acting today in its consideration of the peace treaty.

Most of the time went to the irreconcilable opponents of ratification, Senator Norris, one of the irreconcilables, making a four hour speech in denunciation of the treaty provisions affecting Egypt and the treatment accorded the Egyptian delegates to Versailles.

Only for a brief period, just before adjournment was there any discussion of the pending reservation which deals with the decision of domestic questions under the league. Adoption of the reservation in its original form was advocated by Senator Smith, Democrat, Georgia, who argued that the substitute presented by Senator Hitchcock would amount to amendment of the treaty.

The leaders on both sides made separate canvasses of the attitude of Democratic senators towards acceptance of the crucial article ten reservation in the form it went through last November, with the result that both claimed to be gaining strength. Among the Republicans it was declared that only a few more Democratic votes would be needed to insure ratification, but administration senators asserted ratification would fall by a wide margin unless the Republican article ten reservation were modified.

The Democratic leaders, who also are understood to have felt out sentiment among the irreconcilables, particularly with a view to political consequences on the basis of Republican reservations again were blocked by Democratic votes. Such a result, it is generally conceded, would throw the whole question into the campaign, and some Democratic senators are said to be anxious to learn how far the irreconcilable opposition should the Republican national convention declare for ratification with reservations.

On this question, it was declared, divided counsels were found among the irreconcilables. Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, has said openly that he would carry the fight for rejection to the people after the convention. Others of the group are said to favor accepting the decision of the convention while even Mr. Borah has been indefinite in the suggestions he has made with regard to the possible formation of a third party.

CHURCH RACKET UP FOR HEARING

Judge Crosby May Direct Taking of Further Evidence in Court Action

BOSTON, Feb. 27.—Judge Crosby of the supreme court, after hearing arguments by counsel in the Christian Science church litigation today took under advisement a motion by counsel for the directors of the church that Frederic Dodge, as master in the suits, be directed to hear further evidence before filing his report. The evidence which the directors wish to introduce is in connection with the suit of John V. Dittmore against the directors to compel them to recognize him as a member of their board.

No action was taken by Judge Crosby on a motion by counsel for the directors that the time for the filing of the master's report which expires on March 1 be extended to March 15. He remarked, however, that there was some question about the legality of granting such an extension unless requested by the master himself.

PUNCH LACKING IN ALIEN LAWS

Attorney General Would Punish Citizens Guilty of Federal Infractions

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Strengthening of the federal laws "in order to punish the citizens for the offenses of which the penalty for the alien is deportation," was recommended by Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer in an address before the New York county lawyers' association here tonight. "The condition, described as the ultra-radical class war movement in the United States," he declared, is the greatest menace to the peace, safety and good order of the country.

"Already," he asserted, "there are evidences of re-organization of the revolutionary groups so as to escape the operation of the deportation statutes. Naturalized citizens, who as individuals are immune under the present laws, are taking the leaf, feeling safe by reason of the difficulty of the government's making a case under the conspiracy statute.

"The deficiencies of our present laws are well illustrated by the fact that bomb throwers who, with intent to injure the government, made murderous attacks upon homes of government officials, committed no crime under the federal statutes.

A man might walk down Pennsylvania avenue in Washington with a bomb in his hand, intending and publicly threatening to blow up both houses of congress and be immune from prosecution under any general federal statute and should be actually proceed to the capitol and actually explode a bomb with that purpose and with the plain intent of doing injury to the government, he would commit no crime under federal laws except possibly that of defacing or destroying government property."

Referring to the result of the country-wide raids on radicals, Attorney General Palmer asserted "that what once seemed like a serious menace of organized revolution has been successfully met." He expressed the opinion that most of the three thousand and aliens arrested would be deported.

Non-Partisan League To Enter Coming Campaign

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 27.—Following an all-day conference of members of the non-partisan league of Nebraska, announcement was made tonight by C. A. Sorenson, the league's attorney, that it had been decided to enter the congressional contest, and that conventions will be held in the third, fifth and sixth districts March 9, at which candidates will be endorsed for nomination. These candidates will be members of the Republican party, it was stated. No action was taken as to endorsements in the first, second and fourth districts.

Addresses were made by James Mahanah of St. Paul, Minn., in advocacy of the Plumb plan of railroad management, and by Thomas Daken in denunciation of the American Sugar Refining company, which he accused of responsibility for what he said was the present alleged shortage of sugar.

LAWYER IS HELD FOR VIOLATION

Attorney in Arizona Deportation Cases Accused by Witness

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., Feb. 27.—Bruce Stephenson, one of the attorneys for the defense in the Misbee deportation cases, was accused of perjury in connection with testimony given at the trial of Harry E. Wootton, first of 210 defendants to be placed on trial, in an information issued by the county attorney's office late today.

A warrant for Stephenson's arrest was issued by A. W. Wentworth, justice of the peace. The complaint was signed by W. A. Beaton, whose testimony was in direct contradiction to Stephenson's.

Stephenson was placed on the witness stand by Frank E. Curley, assistant chief attorney for the defense, in an effort to disqualify Charles F. Mannus, a juror passed by the state, but to whom the defense objected.

ROPER NEXT TO LEAVE SERVICE

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Would Engage in Private Business

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Daniel C. Roper, commissioner of internal revenue, has informed governmental officials of his intention to resign shortly. Although his formal resignation has not been received tonight at the White House the matter of his successor is understood to be under consideration.

Beyond the fact that he plans to return to private life, no information as to the future plans of Mr. Roper was available here tonight as the commissioner was absent from the city. The resignation, however, it was ascertained, will not become effective for several weeks, Mr. Roper having consented to remain at the head of the revenue bureau until after income tax returns for the past year have been filed and the collection of such taxes, the first installment of which is due March 15, is well under way.

In returning to private life, Mr. Roper will end a long public career as the administrator of the greatest tax collection agency ever organized, which last year gathered approximately $8,000,000,000 in government revenues. He became commissioner of internal revenue in September, 1917, just as the war emergency was forcing an abnormal increase in all federal taxes and necessitated the expansion of the bureau from a small peace time affair, concerned chiefly with imports on alcohol and tobacco, into a tremendous machine reaching into the pockets of millions of citizens for increased income taxes and into the records of corporations and partnerships.

Mr. Roper's bureau was given the task of enforcing nation-wide prohibition by the Volstead enforcement act and he utilized the personnel and machinery formerly devoted to collection of excise taxes to establish a prohibition enforcement section with branches in every state.

RAILROAD BILL TO BE APPROVED

Executive of Lines Gather in New York and Consider New Legislation

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Approval of the railroad bill now awaiting action by the president, was expected at a meeting here today of executives representing approximately 90 per cent of the country's railroads, who discussed the provisions of the bill in connection with the resumption of private ownership on March 1. In a statement after the meeting the executives predicted that the proposed legislation would be successful if the "credit of the carriers is made sufficient to enable them to perform their public duties."

According to the executives, the railroads are approximately five years behind in operating equipment as a whole, and sufficient credit must first be established before the carriers could begin the task of overcoming that deficit. It was estimated that the roads are ten years behind in passenger cars, two years behind in locomotives, one year behind in freight cars and two years behind in Pullman cars.

The bill every agency connected with the operation of railways is upon trial, the statement said.

The Salem labor council is the latest of the local organizations to get behind and help with the Salem general hospital project. Simeral next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the labor temple on Court street for the purpose of formulating plans for forwarding the interests of the hospital. Johnson of California, speaking here tonight in behalf of his presidential campaign. "It would refuse to make the republic subordinate to any junta of diplomats sitting in Geneva or elsewhere."

Langer served on Senator Johnson's entertainment committee tonight. Senator Johnson was met at Arnold, about six miles away here by a committee of five named this afternoon at a meeting of the Republican state committee called by William Lemke, also vice president of the non-partisan league.

The committee headed by State Senator J. I. Cahill of Grant county, a league endorsee, motored to Arnold and tendered Senator Johnson its services. Senator Johnson greeted the committee, but announced that arrangements for his visit were in the hands of R. S. Wilcox his state manager.

PACKERS MAY BE DIVORCED FROM ALL BUSINESS

More Than 87 Corporations and 49 Individuals Effectively by New Ruling

DECREE HELD SWEEPING

Big Industry Is Efficient and Conducted on Small Margin, Is Report

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Disavowment of the packers from all business not directly related to the packing of meat was made mandatory today through signature by Chief Justice McCooy in the District of Columbia supreme court of a decree filed by Attorney General Palmer with the concurrence of the packers.

The decree, which must be carried out within two years, affects 87 corporations and 49 individuals of which Swift & company, Armour & company, Morris & company, Wilson & company and the Cadah Packing company are the major members. In his statement to the court, Mr. Palmer said the decree was "sweeping in its scope," adding that he was sure it would be "highly beneficial to the public in its effect."

"The decree," he said, "is designed to restore freedom of competition and increase the opportunities for individual initiative in business, which must in time bear good fruit for the public welfare. In brief, the decree removes the menace of control of unrelated industries by the 'big five' and confines their activities in future to the business of distributing meat and its by-products under an injunction which restrains them from unfair and unlawful practices."

M. W. Borders, in making a joint statement for the defendants, said it was not guilt which prompted the packers to enter into the decree, "for they have not violated any law." Instead, the packers, he said, desired to assure the American people that monopoly of the food supply by the packers was not possible; to stop criticism of the industry, damaging alike to it and to the people; to promote better understanding between the industry and the public during "the dangerous period of reconstruction," and to stabilize conditions in order that the efficiency and benefits of the industry might be preserved.

"That the packing industry is efficient and conducted on the smallest margin of profits of any large basic industry in the country," he said, "the defendants stand ready and willing to demonstrate at all times. If this is true as to profits, which we most solemnly assert, then it is to the interest of every man, woman and child in this nation that this essential and complex industry . . . be given just, fair and equitable treatment."
