THE smartest social affair of the week and one of the beautiful appointments was on Wednesday when Mrs. T. C. Smith Jr. entertained the members of the Bridge Lunch-club at her North Winter street home. Crocuses, daffodils, anemones, and other spring flowers fashioned in gold baskets adorned each table, a large basket on the larger table and smaller ones on each small table. Spring flowers also added a pleasing color note to the living room. Besides the club members plates were laid for Mrs. Ilen W. Olcott, Mrs. George F. Rodgers, Mrs. William H. Lytle, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. Dan Fry Jr., Mrs. Gertrude Cameron of Silverton, and Mrs. M. A. Goff.

Mrs. J. L. Van Boren will entertain the club at the next meeting.

MRS. George Pendle of London, who is at the Marion hotel for several weeks, has been entertaining during the week Miss Cherry Austin, also of London, but who recently came over to Corvallis. For her guest Mrs. Pendle entertained with a charming informal tea on Wednesday afternoon.

MRS. Frank W. Spencer Thursday afternoon entertained the Piety Hill club for one of its delightful social gatherings and for the yearly business meeting and election of officers. In the late afternoon the hostess served tea informally. The officers who are elected for the year are Mrs. William Brown president; Mrs. Charles H. Robertson, vice president; and Mrs. E. C. Cross, secretary and treasurer.

The matrons who were present were Mesdames William Brown, E. T. Barnes, W. E. Kirk, Thomas B. Kay, Charles H. Robertson, Charles K. Spaulding, John H. Scott, E. Hartley, John H. Albert, W. P. Fowle, E. C. Cross, E. Cooke Patton, and E. W. Spencer.

MRS. John E. Brophy assembled a company of friends at her West Salem home for an afternoon of bridge Thursday. Spring flowers in a beautiful array adorned the rooms. After the play Mrs. R. B. Goodin received the awards for high scoring. At the luncheon hour Mrs. Brophy was assisted by Mrs. Ralph Glover and Mrs. George Riches, in serving a dainty repast. Mrs. Brophy invited as her guests the members of the Monday afternoon Bridge-club, and Mrs. George Riches, Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Mrs. Ray Pomeroy and Mrs. Harry Wenderoth.

Mrs. R. E. Downing entertained Tuesday evening at her home with a beautifully planned dinner when she entertained the members of the Cherry City club for one of their enjoyable dinners. Plates were laid for 16.

The many friends of Mrs. C. Clancey will be happy to learn that she and Mrs. Edward Witzon arrived yesterday from Colorado where they have passed the winter months. Mrs. Witzon will remain only for a few days before leaving for her home, but Mrs. Clancey will remain indefinitely at the home of her son, C. B. Clancey.

Mrs. Harry Wiedmer entertained for Mrs. Ward Bowles and Mrs. Emma Karterman, two Salem visitors of the week, with a charmingly informal dinner Tuesday evening at her home. Places were made for Mrs. Bowles, Mrs. Karterman, Mrs. L. K. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Maurer, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fleming and Mr. and Mrs. Wiedmer.

Mrs. Seymour Jones, regent for the Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, vice president general, Miss Edith Benedict,

The women were very happy for the fact that the Chemeketa chapter will entertain at Salem the conference next March. Miss Edith Benedict was re-elected state secretary. They were entertained very delightfully at a reception Friday night and the official luncheon of the organization was held yesterday in the Hotel Albany. At this Mrs. Isaac Patterson and Mrs. Seymour Jones of this city responded to toasts.

Miss Josephine A. Kerr and Gustav Erickson were quietly married at the home of the brides mother on State street at 7 o'clock last night by the Rev. H. C. Stover. Only a few close relatives of the couple were present and immediately following the wedding they left for Portland for a short trip. They will make their home in Salem.

Mrs. Arthur McGin of Hubbard is passing the week-end with Mrs. John A. Carson.

Mrs. John Wallace Harrison, president of the Nancy Hank Lincoln club, which was recently organized from the Mothers' club of Lincoln school, has announced the committees which she has chosen to work with her during the coming year. The civic committee members are: Mrs. John W. Harrison, chairman, Mrs. O. L. Scott, Mrs. Clifford Elgin; the social committee, Mrs. Ralph Thompson, chairman, Mrs. D. C. Minto, Mrs. E. Arpke, Mrs. Chester Baker and Mrs. B. Ringheim. The program committee will have Mrs. A. F. Fellows, Mrs. James Fairchild and Miss Ruth Cushing; on the membership committee are Mrs. A. C. Bohmstedt, Miss Julia Iverson, Mrs. O. L. Donaldson, Mrs. A. C. Shafer, Mrs. O. F. Franklin and Mrs. L. S. Sheldon.

A group of prominent maids and matrons are arranging for a jitsy dance to be given Tuesday evening March 23, in the armory for the benefit of the Marion County Childrens bureau. Mrs. William Connel Dyer is chairman of the committee and is assisted by a group of prominent society folk. The armory has been donated for the evening and all the money received will go to purchasing necessary things for the clinics, which are held on the last Thursday in each month in the Commercial club rooms.

The Di a he ko club was entertained at a dinner party Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

E. B. Millard. The soft shaded beauty of yellow as the color scheme was used, with a bowl of Jonquills centering the table. Yellow shaded candles added a note of cheer and small yellow nut baskets were at each plate. Plates were laid for the ten members of the club and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Toud as additional guests. Those of the club who were present were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Littler, and Mr. and Mrs. Millard. The evening was pleasant with music from the Victrola.

The general monthly meeting of the Salem Art league will be held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the public library auditorium. The feature of the evening's entertainment will be the repetition of the lecture on colored photography by A. C. Barber, which will be illustrated by the pictures which he has taken of views around Salem. Preceding the lecture, at 7:30 o'clock a short business meeting of the league will be held.

Mrs. Ruth Dennison entertained the women of the Jason Lee Memorial church at her home Wednesday afternoon for an enjoyable coffee. Mrs. C. M. Roberts, Mrs. Bert Waller and Mrs. Frank Prince were the assisting hostesses.

The Three Link Needle club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Louise King on South Capitol street Friday afternoon. The hours were spent with games and sewing and at the close light refreshments were served by Mrs. W. A. Cummings and Mrs. C. C. Nichols. Mrs. Charles Cameron will entertain the club for the next meeting on March 12, at her home on North Twenty-first street.

The Tuesday Musical club met at the studio of Miss Lena Bell Tartar March 2, for a business and social evening. One thing of interest to members is the change of the name of the club. This being a branch club of the State Music Teachers association, it was decided as best to designate the club as such and by the unanimous vote of the members present the club will hereafter be known as the Salem district of the State Music Teachers association. After other business affairs had been disposed of the members adjourned to the banquet room of The Spa where a delightful hour was passed. At the next regular meeting which will be April 6, American music and musicians will be discussed.
