Uproarious Comedy Again Given Ovation in Salem

Twin beds, the big comedy which for several seasons has broken so many records in well-known cities by its sparkling humor, was greeted by Salem theater goers last night at the Grand Opera house. Miss Josephine Saxe, the leading woman who plays the part of Blanche Tawkins, who with her husband finds life in a New York apartment extremely exasperating, typified the baby doll, butterfly wife who is the cause for a number of exciting complications which kept the audience in an uproar. Miss Kathryn Tracy playing the part of Signora Monti, was a strong aid to Miss Saxe.

Shipp Doubtful If He Won Wager After All

Watt Shipp of the Valley Motor company wins and loses a wager. Last March Mr. Shipp and four other men interested in the Valley Motor company each bet $5.00 on estimates of the coming year's business. The pot was $25 and the winner was to take all. Shortly after the wage was made it was decided that the winner should take the rest of the party to a dinner.

Yesterday the year was at end and fortunately or unfortunately Mr. Shipp was the winner of the $25. Mr. Shipp went to the Marion Hotel and ordered a sumptuous dinner prepared. The number of men interested in the Valley Motor company has expanded according to the year's business and by the time they were all fed Mr. Shipp feels as though he lost the bet—financially.

A Warning—to feel tired before exertion is not laziness—it's a sign that the system lacks vitality, and needs the tonic effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sufferers should not delay. Get rid of that tired feeling by beginning to take Hood's Sarsaparilla today.

Possibly another reason why William Harrison (Jack) Dempsey did not go to France was that he was afraid of mal de mere.

Quantity of Wine Found by Government Operatives

A large quantity of wine was found by United States revenue officers, assisted by Sheriff W. I. Needham's office, when they raided the Joseph I. Hug farm, about two miles east of Salem Saturday. The officers placed the illicit beverage under lock and key until the case is investigated further. Several 40-gallon kegs were found according to report. In addition to the wine now in the possession of the authorities it is believed that large quantities of wine have been disposed of. One unconfirmed report reaching the authorities was that the winner was the source of the private supply of several Salem residents. No arrests

PERSONAL MENTION

F. R. Dickson, North Salem contractor went to Albany yesterday. Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, left Sunday for Chicago where she will attend a meeting of the executive board of the American Library association.

Joseph Domagala and family have recovered from their recent illness. Carl Webb is at work again after a three weeks illness with influenza. A. M. Clough, who has also been suffering with the same malady, is reported as recovering satisfactorily.

Bernard Ramsey, Sheldon Sackett and Howard George will be three of the Willamette university debaters who will participate in intercollegiate debates this year, having been selected as a result of the try-out held last night at the First Methodist church. The fourth member has not yet been selected by the judges, but it is said the selection will be either Miss Ina Moore, Dewey Probst or Frank Bennett.

Eight contestants participated in the try-out. The question was "Resolved, That the United States should assume a mandatory control over Mexico. The affirmative side of the question was upheld by Vern Bain, Ina Moore and Bernardo Gapuz, and the negative was supported by Sheldon Sackett, Bernard Ramsey, Howard George, Deey Probst and Frank Bennett.

The judges were Rev. Leland W. Porter of the First Christian church, Justice Henry L. Benson of the supreme court, and Prof. Harry Savage of Salem high school.
