Black Rock Logger Is Accused of Larceny

DALLAS, Or., March 12.—(Special to The Statesman)—H. M. Smith, a logger from the Black Rock country was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff T. B. Hooker on the train from Black Rock as he was leaving that territory for parts unknown.

Smith is charged with larceny from a dwelling, the alleged act having been committed last December. At that time an effort was made to apprehend him but after following his trail to Salem the officials lost track of him. Yesterday he appeared at Black Rock looking for work but as there was too much snow on the ground he decided to locate elsewhere. He was recognized by former friends who notified the sheriff's office and his capture followed.

A hearing will be held today before Justice of the Peace John H. Sibley. In the meantime the prisoner is confined in the county bastile.
