Superfluous Hair Now Removed Roots and All!

(New and Instantaneous Home Method)

A boon to women troubled with superfluous hair is the new phenacetin process. It is totally unlike the depilatory, electrical and other methods heretofore employed for the removal of hairy growths. It is the only thing that enables one to remove the hair completely—roots and all—in one's own home, without the assistance of an expert. The result cannot be doubted, for the user sees the hair-roots with her own eyes.

A stick of phenacetin, with easy directions, can be had at any drugstore. It is entirely harmless (a child could safely eat it), odorless and non-irritating. It is an instantaneous method, and so thorough that the skin is left perfectly smooth and hairless, bearing not the least evidence of its former disfigurement.

many of the prominent and interesting places. Mr. Evans was until just before leaving Salem owner of the Commercial Book store.

Miss Ruth Johns is ill at her home with the grip.

A number of the Royal Highlanders enjoyed a jolly social time last night in the club rooms, the evening hours being filled with social converse and music, augmented with light refreshments, which were served at a late hour.

Mrs. A. V. Davidson is home again after four months absence in Los Angeles. While there she was entertained by a number of former Salem folk, among them being Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Dabney, Mrs. Elmer Starr and Mrs. John Kitchen, formerly Miss Olivia Swegle, who is well known in Salem.

Mrs. B. C. Miles is in Newberg where she is passing a several days stay with her daughters, Miss Eva and Miss Lura Miles.

Mr. and Mrs. John Maurer enjoyed as their guest for the day yesterday, Mrs. Maurer's nephew, Vernon Parsons of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cory entertained over the week-end the former's brother, P. G. Cory of Portland.

Mrs. Hiram H. Saxton has returned to her home at Newport after visiting several days in Salem with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Prunk, Sr., 333 South Church street, and her brother, William Prunk, Jr. Mrs. Saxton is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prunk.

The friends of Mrs. Frank D. Blich will be glad to know that she and her small son and infant daughter are at their home on North Liberty street after several weeks passed in the hospital.

Germs of Disease should be promptly expelled from the blood. This is a time when the system is especially susceptible to them. Get rid of all impurities in the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and thus fortify your whole body and prevent illness.

At the informal tea for which she was honor guest yesterday, Miss Gula Gamble, girls work secretary of the northwest field of the Y. W. C. A., spoke on club leadership. The association rooms radiated with spring cheer, with a profusion of daffodils used throughout. Preceding Miss Gamble's address, Miss Mable Marcus gave a vocal solo, and following the talk Miss Frances Ward sang a group of songs. Miss Lucille Ross was accompanist for each of these. During the tea hour Mrs. F. A. Elliott, president of the local association, and Mrs. Frank Spears presided at the tea table, and assisting them were Miss Mary Fake and Miss Julia Elvin. The board members and about 20 other guests enjoyed Miss Gamble's interesting talk.

A wedding which took place in Eugene and which is of interest to the Salem younger set was that of Miss Eileen Frances Tomkins, a sophomore in the University of Oregon, and Lieutenant Kenneth F. Hall formerly of Portland, but now of Salem, where he is with the state highway commission. The wedding was at noon in the Gamma Phi Theta sorority house on the campus. Rev. William M. Case, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Eugene, officiated. Mrs. Hamilton Weir, house mother, was matron of honor. The guests included 30, girls of the house, sorority sisters of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Tomkins of Cascade Locks, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Hall, parents of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Therman Ross of Portland, an aunt of the bride. A wedding luncheon followed the ceremony.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hall will make their home in Salem. Mrs. Hall is one of the talented and popular members of her class. The groom was born in Portland and later graduated from Yale. He was overseas with the 28th engineers and returned home last August.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Evans (Sibyl Harrington) whose wedding was an event of the autumn, returned yesterday from a several months sojourn in the south where they visited

Croup and Cold Troubles Are Best Treated Externally

COLDS are simply inflammation or congestion of the mucous membrane, or lining of the respiratory organs — air passages and lungs. They should be treated just as surface inflammations, such as burns or bruises, are treated—that is, the medication should be applied directly to the inflamed parts. But medication cannot be applied directly to the air passages and lungs except in the form of vapors that can be inhaled, and until the discovery of Vick's VapoRub, there was no efficient, economical method of supplying these vapors.

VICK'S VapoRub is the discovery of a North Carolina druggist, L. Richardson, who found a way to combine the standard, time-tested remedies—Menthol, Camphor, Turpentine, Eucalyptus, Thyme, Juniper, etc.—in salve form, so that when Vicks is applied to the body, these ingredients are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors, inhaled with each breath all night long, carry the medication direct to the affected parts. At the same time, Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, aiding the vapors inhaled to relieve the congestion.

Spasmodic Croup and Children's Colds

Vicks is particularly recommended to mothers with small children. It is externally applied and, therefore, can be used often and freely with perfect safety. Let the children run out-doors, even in Winter, and get their needed fresh air and exercise, and simply apply a little Vicks over the throat and chest at the first sign of a cold, covering with a hot flannel cloth. For spasmodic croup, rub Vicks freely over the throat and chest until the difficult breathing is relieved. One application is commonly sufficient, and an application at bed time usually prevents a night attack.

Deep Chest Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Coughs

For inflammation of the respiratory organs where there is tightness or soreness, Vicks should be rubbed well over the throat and chest until the skin is red; then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. The bed clothing should be arranged in the form of a funnel, so that the vapors arising may be freely inhaled.

In severe cases, hot, wet cloths should first be applied over the throat and chest to open the pores of the skin before applying Vicks.

If the cough is annoying, small portions of Vicks, the size of a pea, can be swallowed every few hours.

Head Colds, Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever

For these troubles, Vicks can be melted in a spoon and the vapors inhaled, or a little applied up the nostrils and snuffed back into the air passages. There is no "cure" for Asthma and Hay Fever—Vicks gives temporary relief in some cases.

Used as a Liniment, Salve, Poutice or Plaster

In addition to its vaporizing qualities, Vicks has also been found to be an excellent anti-inflammatory application. It makes a cooling, soothing dressing for such troubles as Bites, Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Frost Bite, Headache, Itchings, Poison Oak, Soreness, Sprains, Sunburn, etc.
