Calder, Republican, New York, to strike out the clause dealing with self-determination, was tabled 51 to 30, and an amendment by Senator Steffring, Republican, North Dakota, to eliminate the phrase expressing hope for consummation of Irish freedom was tabled, 70 to 11.

After the Irish reservation finally had been approved, Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, made a last minute fight to secure a change in the Republican reservation to article ten, but his substitute providing that the United States would use its 'friendly offices to help preserve territorial integrity and political independence' was tabled by a vote of 45 to 34.

After a final attempt to modify the Republican reservation to article ten had failed, the senate tonight reaffirmed by a vote of 54 to 26, its adoption of reservation.

Warm Debate on Irish Debate on the Gerry Irish reservation reached a high pitch of bitterness with many changes of political manipulation and bad faith.

Senator Lodge declared that such a policy had a touch of "hypocrisy" when put forward by a nation which had fought for four years to hold the south in the union against its will.

Among the democrats Senator Wolcott, Delaware, and Trammell, Florida, assailed the proposal as an attempt to drag politics into the treaty fight, while Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, leader of the ir-reconcilables, declared the effort of Senator Lodge to amend the self-determination feature was a political move which it was hard to find words to describe.

Country Tired of Debate. The first roll call on the reservation came while the senate was in committee of the whole and when the result was seen, republican leaders tried in vain to stave off the second vote until tomorrow.

Lodge Raps Wilson Senator Lodge declared there had been "no conspiracy" and that republican senators only had been "endeavoring to act together."

It is an anomalous situation," Senator Simmons said, "when by reason of an iron bound agreement of some sort which probably had been entered into at the very beginning of this controversy, those who wanted to ratify the treaty on the republican side could not vote their convictions without consulting men who differed from them on every fundamental principle."

We have no one to write us letters. "I have endeavored to secure modification in this reservation which would permit as many senators as possible to support it. But we have reached the limit. The parting of the ways has come, and if senators on the other side cannot supply the necessary votes to ratify the treaty with the reservations as they now stand, then on their heads be it, and we will take it to the tribunal of the American people."

Borah Wilson's Ally. Senator Borah said he had been standing "with the president in seeking the defeat of the treaty."

Suffered With Rheumatism Catarrh and Stomach Trouble "I think Number 40 For The Blood as a blood purifier has no equal. When I began to take Number 40, I was in very poor health, as I had Rheumatism, Catarrh, Stomach Trouble, Lead Poisoning, and an Itch that I had tried almost every known remedy to relieve. I have taken six bottles of 'Number 40' and am on a fast road to recovery. I owe my life to it, as I used to weigh 127 pounds and now weigh 148, my usual weight. I could write more but this should be enough to convince the most skeptical, and you are at liberty to use this letter anyway you desire." Geo. Klinker, Lima, Ohio.

The ingredients in "Number 40 For The Blood" are set down in the U. S. Dispensary and other reliable medical books as follows: "Employed in diseases of the glandular system, in blood poison, constipation, stomach and liver troubles, chronic rheumatism, catarrh, sores, ulcers, skin eruptions, mercury and lead poisoning. Under its use nodules, tumors, scrofulous, swellings that have withstood all other treatment, disappear as if by magic."

MARTIAL LAW IS IN FORCE IN BERLIN (Continued from page 1) There were fewer disturbances in Berlin last night than any night since the revolution. Several detachments of troops were sent away but the majority were here this morning.

COBLENZ, March 18.—(By The Associated Press)—An effort is to be made to concentrate Americans now in Germany at some point, so that all of them who desire to leave the country may be able to do so. As far as is known all the Americans in Germany are safe.

PARIS, March 18.—Major General H. T. Allen, commander of the American forces along the Rhine, was in Paris today consulting with Hugh C. Wallace, American ambassador, concerning the situation in Germany.

Ebert at Stuttgart. COPENHAGEN, March 18.—A telegram from Stuttgart evidently emanating from the Ebert government, denies that the imperial president has accepted the resignation of General von Luetwitz. It also denies that the leaders of the majority parties have negotiated with the other parties relative to holding elections in June, election of an imperial president by the people or reorganization of the cabinet.

Agitators appeared early in the morning and quickly drew crowds. In Wilhelmstrasse a soldier harangued a group of comrades and civilians with a tirade against foreigners. There was a fresh outbreak of agitation against Jews, many of the street speakers calling upon the people to keep them out of public office.

A strange airplane drew thousands of eyes as it dropped leaflets signed "League of Professional Soldiers of Germany," which stated that it was opposed to a new government and would recognize only the government to which it had sworn allegiance, and await the call of Noske to re-organize.

Cost of Living Rises. Food prices have continued to soar, and there has been a scramble of the people generally to lay in as much as they could place their hands on. The markets were besieged and all the stalls soon stripped.

Radicals Are Feared. The fact that the independents and communists so far have not resorted to extreme violence characterizing the revolutionary strikes of 1918 and 1919 is regarded as a hopeful sign. It admits two inferences: First, that they are biding their time until they can perfect their physical organization for a supreme effort to seize the government, and second, lack of military equipment and fear of risking a struggle against the troops now in charge at Berlin, who are believed to be far from sympathetic towards the reds.

London Optimistic. LONDON, March 18.—Diplomatic dispatches from Germany filed last night give a much more optimistic view of the general situation, notwithstanding that there had been more reports of Spartacist uprisings. This is a complete reversal of the opinion expressed Tuesday night by the same diplomats, who then intimated that the Spartacist activities were more to be feared than the Kapp government.

SOVIETS FEAR RESULTS FROM KAPP REVOLT (Continued from page 1) had gotten were those of agriculture and posts. When the latter went into the ministry, the employees notified them they would not take his orders.

Kapp Resignation Recounted "At 10 o'clock Tuesday night after arrival of an ultimatum from the independents and communists saying that unless the troops immediately left Berlin, a council republic would be proclaimed, von Luetwitz and the officers of the Reichwehr announced they were willing to fight the communists under the Bauer government.

During the afternoon's negotiations between Ernest Daunig and other communist leaders on one side and Colonel Bauer and General Pabst on the other, Pabst even threatened to join the independents and communists. Daunig was ready to proclaim a soviet republic under military protection.

At 5:55 o'clock Luetwitz expressed a willingness to resign. His successor, von Seeckt (Ebert's chief of staff) will now try to make the iron (Baltic) and marine divisions return to Doebertitz, where they will be demobilized. The national assembly probably will return to Berlin in a few days.

Referring to the presence of a number of women at the dinner, Mr. Cummins said the Democratic party "possessed an appeal to the women of America because of the social aspects of the program which had been outlined by its great leader and which has been carried to such a successful culmination."

On that committee of 171," he asserted, "they have reactionaries and progressives; they have Taftites and Rooseveltians; they have economists and appropriators; they have reservationists of all kinds—mild reservationists and wild reservationists; they have bitter-enders; they have capitalists and pacifists and militarists. The former chairman of the Republican national committee and 17 women, all to go on a voyage of discovery for the purpose of discerning what Republican principles are."

Assembly Meets. STUTTGART, March 18.—The German national assembly opened at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the fine arts building. It was presided over by Konstantin Fehrenbach, who issued the call for the present session. There was a large attendance of deputies, especially from the socialist parties and also of uninvited Reichswehr officers.

Holland Gentle With Wilhelm. THE HAGUE, March 18.—The Dutch government was taken to task for what was declared its leniency towards the former German emperor, a decree limiting Count Hohenzollern's movements and his pledge not to mix in politics.

Deputy Schaper, socialist, said he was dissatisfied with the premier's answer, as a mere slight increase in the guards about the former emperor was not enough and Count Hohenzollern's pledge not sufficient.

Deputy von Ravenstein, communist, declared the government's policy of silence had strengthened the general belief that the former emperor came to Holland originally with Holland's silent approval. Count Hohenzollern, he said, had been permitted to live the quiet, easy life of a retired country gentleman, with a motor car at his disposal in which he could cross the frontier any time he saw fit.

Other deputies took a similar stand, some wanting to know how long the Hohenzollerns would be allowed to stay in Holland.

The quick arrival of the fire department prevented the spreading of the flames which were threatening the destruction of the house. The resulting damage was confined to a few burning shingles removed by the firemen.
