Be Young In Body, Mind and Looks Despite Your Years

How often you have wished that you could = indulge in the strenuous exercise of out door sports with the vigor and enthusiasm of youth! But the end of the week finds you all in - you are tired, listless and lack the energy to go out for a vigorous walk or a round of the links-or any other exercise that requires much physical exer-tion. Many a man, even in his middle forties, has a vague feeling that he is "getting old"—and right at a time when he should be at his very best physically. Andheis growing old, not in the sense that the years are pressing heavily upon him-but in the sense that his vital forces are wasting away faster than Nature re-places the worn out tissues.

Thousands—yes millions—of people find themselves in this condition early in life. And there is no excuse for it. You can check that tendency to grow old. You can carry your youth with its joys and enthusiasm into your 70's and 80's. But you must give Nature all the help you can. The best unistance you can find assistance of a sound, constructive character is in the use of

TALENTED WOMAN ARRIVES TODAY

Mrs. Jean Morris Ellis Has Numerous Appointments While in Salem

Just a little slip of a woman is Mrs. Jean Morris Ellis, but she certainly produces the goods.

She went into Medford unknown and unannounced. When she left she carried away a most expensive framed testimonial as a witness of the gratitude of the American Legion for the help she had given the mem-

When Mrs. Ellis' work was explained to Dr. Carlton Smith and Dr. B. F. Pound, of the Salem American Legion post, they immediately gave her work their hearty endorsement. Mrs. Ellis will be in Salem from Friday afternoon until Monday morning. This will be the only opportunity the ex-service men will have for getting her help.

A man in the Y. M. C. A. last night said. "We heartily congratulate you on ecuring Mrs. Ellis. We know her and she has done wonders for our family." She comes to Salem today from Albany, arriving at 1:50 p. m. She will address the student body at the high school at 3:10. Plates will be laid in the Y. M. C. A. dining room for 75 ex-service men, who will be the guests of the association at dinner this evening. The dinner will be served promptly at 6:30 so the men can get away before 8. The only address will be given by Mrs. Ellis. Mrs. John Carson, one of the best friends of the soldiers and sailors of Salem, phoned the "Y" Thursday declaring that the War Mothers of Salem just must have this remarkable woman to address them. So Mrs. Ellis will speak to the War

Saturday and Sunday Mrs. Ellis will be occupied in individual conferences with the ex-service men. She has straightened out many prob-
