Automobile Robe Stolen—
A robe was stolen from an automobile belonging to J. B. Parker Sunday night while it was parked in front of the Jason Lee church. He reported to the police, and described the robe. The police are making an effort to recover it from the thief. Mr. Parker believes that some one was molesting the car, as he was unable to start it after church.

Tractor Owners Attention—
You should be interested in a small thrasher with wind stacker and self-feeder, now on exhibition at the Charles R. Archard Implement company. Call and examine it.

Boys Taken to Portland—
Officers Ferry and Abbott of the Portland police arrived in Salem at noon yesterday to take Harry Evans, 20, of Portland, Jack Wellner, 20, of Seattle and Earl Townsend, 24, of Hillsboro to Portland where they are wanted on a charge of stealing an automobile belonging to Dudley Clark. They were caught at the fair grounds by J. H. Graham of the Graham Motors company in Portland, where Mr. Clark is employed. The car was left at the fair grounds garage and was driven back to Portland by Mr. Clark, who accompanied the police. Mr. Graham recognized the car as he drove past the fair grounds store, and stopped. As he was getting them from the car, Wellner broke and ran, and Hadley Doe, who believed Graham to be an officer, ran after and captured Wellner. They were held there until Chief Welsh and Officer Rowe arrived.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Makes Food Taste Good
Creates an Appetite
Aids Digestion
Purifies the Blood

Promotes assimilation so as to secure full nutritive value of food, and to give strength to the whole system. A well-known Justice of the Peace in Indiana says Hood's Sarsaparilla made "food taste good," as after taking three bottles he eats three hearty meals a day, works hard and sleeps well. It will help you to do this. Fifty years' phenomenal sales prove its merit. Prepared by educated pharmacists. Get a bottle today.

Herndon Is Held—
Word has been received from Auburn, Wash., that H. D. J. Herndon wanted here for forgery, is held by the authorities there awaiting the arrival of Constable De Long of Salem who will leave today to bring the prisoner to Salem. About two weeks ago Herndon is said to have forged a check for the amount of $29 and passed it here.

Girl Wanted—
Gray Belle.

Postoffice Is Rushed—
According to Postmaster Hucksstein, approximately 1,332,000 letters passed through the local postoffice between December 1st last year and April 2 this year. On Wednesday and Thursday 29,000 letters went through the cancelling machine, while on Friday records show about 34,000 left the postoffice. These figures do not include any parcel post packages. The office is being taxed to the limit, the postmaster says, and if the business kept up at the present rate it will be necessary to add to the staff in order to secure as good service as given in the past.

For Sale—
Cash register. The Spa.

Kirk Re-elected—
R. L. Kirk, formerly principal of the Salem high school was re-elected treasurer of the Inland Teachers association at the meeting held recently in Spokane. Mr. Kirk is now city superintendent of schools in Eugene.

Tuleja Must Appear—
Following the statement of Joseph Tuleja that his father, Jacob Tuleja, was preparing to leave the city without first fulfilling the obligations of guardianship, Judge Bushy issued an order yesterday for the older Tuleja to appear in court. He will be required to show why he should not furnish suitable bonds in the guardianship of the Tuleja minors.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Ida Miller, who several years ago operated a restaurant on South Commercial street, returned yesterday to her home in Los Angeles. She has been visiting for the past few weeks with friends and relatives in Portland and Salem.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Riley of Calexico, Calif., are spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Riley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Fromader at 2013 North Front street. The Rileys motored from Calexico and report the roads are almost impassable in some places. After a short stay here they will motor to Seattle.
Dr. C. E. Linnton of Waldport, author of "The Earth Motor," is in the city. Dr. Linnton is receiving flattering notices from eastern publications.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Anderegg of 1868 Ferry street announce the birth of an eight-pound daughter who arrived yesterday.

G. H. Addis of Woodburn was a business visitor in Salem Monday and Tuesday.

Nora and Clara King and R. M. Gray of Veneta, Or., were Salem visitors Monday and Tuesday.

John Conger of the Conger Printing company was the guest of his son, Allard Conger, in Portland over Easter.

Leo Schmidt spent yesterday in Portland transacting business. Herbert Nunn, state highway engineer, is on a tour of inspection over the coast highways. His trip will extend mainly from Clatskanie to Toledo through Lincoln county.

HOW DO YOU LIKE THE LOOKS OF THIS PARTY?

You can't blame him for looking sour. He has the Grip, a grouch, his nose runs, his bones ache, and he looks on the world through blue glasses, just as we all do when we have a Cold.
You need a medicine to reduce the fever, stop the ache, carry the cause out of the system. Here is a preparation that is fever-reducing, anodyne, and pleasantly laxative. Try one box. You will like it.
