OAKLAND 9, ANGELS 4.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 6.—Ten thousand fans saw Oakland defeat Los Angeles in the opening game of the season, 9 to 4. When the Oaks gained an early lead, some of those who had crowded into the right field bleachers, prepared to cheer the home team to victory, became disgruntled, amused themselves for a time by a cushion fight and went home.

The Northerners won largely through converting their hits into runs, which the Angels, with more hits, were unable to do. The latter made a strong rally in the eighth but it was not strong enough to overcome the stronger lead of R. H. E.

VERNON 7, FRISCO 4.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Before a crowd that taxed the capacity of Recreation Park, the eVron Tigers opened the baseball season here today by clawing their way to a 7 to 4 victory over the San Francisco Seals. William H. McCarthy, president of the Pacific coast league, started the ball-rolling by tossing a perfect strike to the Tigers' lead-off man.

Captain Jim Scott was sent to the mound for the eSals by Manager Graham. He lasted two and a half innings, the Tigers sending his offerings all over the lot. Lewis relieved Scott but gave way to a pinch hitter, Cole taking up the burden and holding the Southerners scoreless for the remainder of the game.

"Wheeler" Dell was in rare form for eight innings and the eSals were helpless against his delivery. He eased up in the ninth when the Seals sent four runners over the pan.

The Pacific coast baseball league's 1920 season opened today with games at San Francisco, Los Angeles and Salt Lake City, promises to be more closely contested and more interesting than that of last year.

Financially it is expected to equal the record breaking 1919 season. This is the second year of the league as an eight-club organization and the first under the presidency of W. H. McCarthy of San Francisco.

Seattle, the tall-end last year, Portland and Sacramento have strengthened their teams so that a better balanced race is promised. Last year Los Angeles and eVron, the latter club having its official home at Los Angeles also, held an almost commanding lead during the greater part of the season.

McCarthy has signed up four new umpires and has held over four from last year. The new men are Bill Byron, Anderson, Holmes and McGrew. The hold-overs are Jimmy Toman, Maj Eason, Ferlie Casey and Billie Phyle.

The season closes October 17.

PICKETS FLY FOR IRELAND

In a tiny snowstorm about the windows of Dolly Madison's house, half a mile off; circled Andrew Jackson's rockinghorse in Lafayette square, and were almost wadded into the White House grounds by the gusty squalls of early April and showered down on groups of romping children in Dupont circle.

Evidently somebody in the embassy thought the pickets deserving of some reward for their nerve effort, for late in the day, as official Washington was streaming home, ward and the diplomatic corps was out for promenade on Connecticut avenue, there appeared in a front window of the embassy one of the banners previously captured from the militants.

"Down with British militarism," was the legend it blazoned from the old mid-Victorian mansion all evening. It furnished the capitol with a topic for discussion of British humor.

But quite behind the curtain of good-natured banter which has accompanied the exploits of the pickets so far, is something more serious to which the government is giving careful consideration. The international tinge of the affair, officials feel, make it of more moment than the demonstrations of the militant suffragists which were considered quite important a year ago. The resumption of the picketing was marked early today by the arrest of four women pickets on charges of violating the federal statute making it a felony to offer an insult to diplomatic representatives of a foreign government.

The women who were arrested gave their names as Mrs. Honor Walsh, Germantown, Penn.; Miss Elaine Barrie, Philadelphia; Miss Helen O'Brien, St. Louis, Mo., and Miss Kathleen O'Brien, Philadelphia.

Michigan Woman Looking for Son Who Disappeared

Mrs. Eva Smiechowski of 1502 Pennsylvania avenue, Detroit, Mich., has written Governor Oleott asking that he assist in the search for her son, Edward Smiechowski, by appealing to the proper authorities in this state. Evidently a similar search is being made in other states, since the mother has no assurance that he is in Oregon, and does not know whether he is dead or alive.

The young man, who is 24 years old, disappeared October 29, 1919, ten months after he had received his discharge from the army. A picture of the youth in the army uniform accompanies the letter. Previous to his disappearance he lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Smiechowski, in Detroit.

The governor has replied that he will give the case publicity through the newspapers.

The injunction was granted through a suit brought by the various foreign language newspapers of Oregon.

New York Becomes Tenant Paradise

NEW YORK, April 6.—Nearly 1,000 evicted tenants assisted by courts to enforce new laws against rent profiteering. In many cases either the landlords agreed to delay eviction until the tenants whose rent had been raised could find other apartments, or the magistrates summarily granted stays of eviction varying from one to six months.

Many courts could handle nothing but rent cases. Streets in front of some courts were blocked and police reserves were called to handle the crowds, for whole families went to court, baby carriages and all.

A sample tenant's story was that of a woman whose rent had been increased from $7 to $37 a month for a six-room apartment and then jumped to $65. The latter sum she could not pay and she was ordered out. She received permission to stay in the apartment at the last rent she paid until she could find another home.

Plans were made today for 200 lawyers to give free legal aid to tenants with district boards similar to those acted on in draft cases during the war.

CHICAGO, April 6.—Aldermen were elected today in nine city wards in a supplemental election under the non-partisan election law. There were but two candidates in each ward; the others having been eliminated in the first election February 26, at which 26 aldermen were chosen.

Five sitting aldermen were defeated today. Four of the victors had the backing of Mayor Thompson.

Charges of fraudulent voting were made and disorders were numerous. In the fifth ward, States Attorney Hoyne made a roundup of men charged with fraudulent voting, ballot box stuffing and bribery. Alderman Robert J. Mulcahy, who was elected in the fifth, complained to Chief of Police Garrity, that the state's attorney's men kidnapped his precinct captains in an effort to throw the election to his opponent.

New York Landlords Are Now Badly Out of Luck

NEW YORK, April 5.—New York landlords lost the first round today in the fight waged between the tenants and rent controllers when the new anti-rent profiteering laws were given their first court test. More than three thousand men and women crowded municipal courts in the Bronx and Brooklyn to appeal in 600 eviction notices and rent increase cases.

In every instance tenants were granted from one to three months stayovers when they proved their inability to find new homes. In a majority of cases landlords had served notices effective April 1 and May 1.

In Brooklyn, Municipal Justice Ferguson collected more than $1000 in rentals from tenants after landlords had refused to accept amounts thought fair by the court.
