JUDGE RYAN IN SENATE CONTEST
Former Assistant Treasurer Would Come to Session From Clackamas
Judge Thomas F. Ryan of Oregon City, who was assistant state treasurer under T. B. Kay, yesterday filed with the secretary of state his declaration as a candidate for state senator from the 12th senatorial district.
"Sensible constructive legislation for promotion of interests of Clackamas county and Oregon" is Judge Ryan's slogan. His platform follows:
"I have no interests to serve excepting those beneficial to all the people. I will use my ability and wisdom of state affairs, acquired as deputy state treasurer and county

Judge to pass constructive legislation that will promote the moral and material welfare of farmer, dairyman, manufacturer, businessman and laborer. Will introduce measures to safeguard the trust funds of the state and require sensible economy in state departments and in transaction of state and county business. Favor legislation that will reduce taxation, bring about co-operation of labor and capital, and insure justice for our boys who defended the flag.

Other candidates who filed yesterday were:
E. H. Belknap, Monroe, Republican candidate for representative from the 10th district, comprising Benton county.

E. F. Williams, Portland, Republican candidate for representative from the 18th district.

William G. Hare, Hillsboro, Republican candidate for state senator from the 11th senatorial district.

A. B. Flint, Scholls, Republican candidate for representative in the legislature from the 15th representative district.

Zadoc J. Riggs, Salem, Republican candidate for representative in the legislature from the first district.

George W. Denman, Corvallis, Republican candidate for district attorney for Benton county.

James T. Brand, Marshfield, Republican candidate for district attorney for Coos county.

John H. Carson, Salem, Republican candidate for district attorney for Marion county.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL
Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c.
