Major Louis Hough of the United Determined That Hunger Strikers Shall Not Gain Their Point

LONDON, April 13 .- Indications that the government will firmly resist yielding on the question of liberating the Irish hunger strikers, was the outcome of a debate started in the house of commons today by T. by John R. Clynes and other labor members.

Earlier Andrew Bonar Law, the government leader, admitted that many of the Irish prisoners, both at Mountjoy, Dublin, and in English institutions, are being detained without charges and with na plans to bring them to trial. Mr. Bonar Law was replying to questions and added that under existing conditions in freland, where murder was rife, it was necessary for the protection of lives that persons be arrested on suspicion.

During the debate, Mr. Clynes, pointing out the danger of the labor disturbances in Ireland spreading to England, urged that the arrested men be either tried or subjected to special treatment. Sir Donald Mac-Lean, national liberal member, also supporting Mr. O'Connor. Problem for School Board

At the meeting of the school board last night the question of con-H. McNutt, a local broker, prior to tracts and pay for teachers the comhis death last summer. The Mcing year was brought up. Superintendent il. W. Todd showed that Salem must pay as much for teachers after the finding of the body of Meas Albany and Eugene and other cities, which would mean practically a 25 per cent increase. At a special meeting to be held Friday night at the high school, Mr. Todd will give figures showing how much will have to be added to the present school tax to cover the rise in pay.

The McKinley school will be opened again next fall, though only one or possibly two grades will use the school. There are two first grade departments at Lincoln, and that school is entirely too crowded. Plans the walkou to San Bernardino, Bar- are under way for a re-districting of the city.
