One of Modern Bluebeard's Affinities Thought Found by Police Chief

Welsh Acts on Tip Received From Los Angeles; Gets Quick Results

The alleged lurid and tragic career of A. Andrews, or Richard Huiirt, suspected by California officers as a modern bluebeard, connected up with Salem Tuesday night when Chief of Police J. T. Welsh located and interviewed Mrs. James P. Watson, whom he believes to be one of Andrews' numerous wives.

Mrs. Watson left Salem over the

Hair Grown on Bald Head
After being almost totally bald, a New York lawyer found something which brought out a new growth of hair of which he is so proud that he will send the information free to anyone who asks for it. Write John H. Brittain, Division 7, New York, N. Y. Money orders and checks have grown hair after all else failed. Cut this out, show others, this is genuine.

Southern Pacific later in the night, but would not give the chief of police her destination. Chief Welsh said he was positive she was one of Andrews' wives and thinks she either has gone to San Diego or Los Angeles. She declared a belief that the man under arrest is a different man from her husband. She declares she is innocent of any knowledge of his alleged escapades.

Found in Rooming House
Mrs. Watson came to Salem about two months ago and was living in a local rooming house.

Chief Welsh interested himself in the case when a message was received from Sheriff John C. Lime of Los Angeles, asking that he endeavor to locate Mrs. James P. Watson or Kathryn Watson. The message said a line on her whereabouts could be gotten through the Salem Bank of Commerce. The message also requested that Welsh find out the woman's financial circumstances. All the chief was able to uncover in this regard was that she was able to support herself and that she and her husband had a bank account at the San Diego First National bank.

Mrs. Watson told Chief Welsh that her name prior to marrying Watson was Kathryn Kruse, that she was married to Watson at Nelson, B. C. June 13, 1913, by the Rev. Mr. McIntyre, of the Methodist church, and that a witness to the marriage was the Rev. Mrs. King, of the Baptist church.

Woman of Young in Years
The woman, Chief Welsh thinks, is between 30 and 35 years old. She said her husband's age was 36. Her description of him does not tally with published descriptions of Watson or Andrews, except as to small gray eyes.

Mrs. Watson said she was in frequent communication with her husband and that he is now somewhere in California—just where, she said she did not know. As far as the officer could ascertain there had been no domestic trouble between the two.

Mrs. Watson's presence in Salem was discovered by the Los Angeles officers through the bank at San Diego, where the Watsons have money on deposit and on which she has been drawing checks.

One Wife Has Theory
LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 14.—The theory that Richard Huiirt, alleged to have married at least 25 women, is a "woman hater" and resorted to many marriages as revenge on women as a sex for sufferings caused him by a few, beginning with his mother, was advanced here today by Mrs. Elizabeth Williamson of Sacramento, Cal., who said she had married him August 28, 1919, when he was using the name of Harry Lewis.

Mrs. Williamson told newspapermen after her arrival here today from the north she has reached that conclusion since learning of the many marriages charged to Huiirt because of many statements he had made to her about women, especially concerning alleged cruelty to him by his mother when he was a boy.

Chief of Police Warren of Seattle, Wash., telegraphed Los Angeles officers he expected "complete identification of a body found at Plum Station, Wash., July 9, 1919, as Bertha A. Goodhue, married to H. L. Gordon, June 19, 1919."

H. L. Gordon is said to be one of Huiirt's aliases.

Chief Warren's telegram concluded with a request that the police ask Huiirt to account for his whereabouts June 9, 1919, and the succeeding 30 days.

He also stated that Alice Ludvigion, to whom Huiirt is alleged to have married under the name of Louis A. Hilton, was believed to have been murdered.

Huiirt Under Guard
Los Angeles officials say tentative identification has been made of the body of a woman found near Martinez, Calif.

They also said a joint account in a San Diego bank might disclose another "wife" in that city.

Huiirt still is under guard in a hospital here, receiving treatment for self-inflicted wounds.

P-T SESSION LIVELY ONE

New Building Is Urged by the Pupils of Lincoln School District

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher circle of Lincoln school which was held Tuesday night put well attended and matters of considerable importance to the school were considered.

A committee was appointed to bring to the attention of the school board the advisability of establishing an "ungraded" room with a special instructor. Mrs. Le Moine R. Clark, principal of the school, spoke in advocacy of the "ungraded" room as a means of aiding backward pupils, and pointed out that many progressive communities had already put the plan into practice with surprisingly good results.

The matter of the improvement of the school grounds by re-grading and graveling, was referred to the committee on grounds. J. W. Maruny, chairman of the committee, volunteered to donate his time in supervising the school boys in leveling off the ground. He expressed it as his opinion that gravel would only be required for the walks.

An interesting program was given, including an address by Miss Lois Fellows, president of the student body, on the desires of the students to have a new Lincoln school building. Her address was delivered in a very able manner and was interspersed with humor which brought forth general applause. She brought forth many concrete suggestions as to what was needed in the new building.

Miss Power, head of the physical training department, addressed the meeting, giving a detailed description of the "posture test" as it is being given in Salem.

A very interesting original paper on the influence of art on education was read by Mrs. Sheldon, supervisor of the art department.

The "attendance" picture was awarded to the second grade room for having the largest attendance of parents at the meeting.

More Organizations Want Millage Measures Passed
The Chamber of Commerce, the American Legion and the board of education have all passed resolutions at Astoria endorsing the 2-mill tax measure for maintenance of elementary schools, according to information received at the office of J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of schools.

At a county school board convention held at the Clatsop county court house last Saturday, representatives from all rural districts were in attendance and a resolution was adopted endorsing both the 2-mill bill and the millage measure for the maintenance of state educational institutions.

Also the school board members of Clatsop county adopted resolution fixing the minimum salary of rural teachers at $120 a month.

Dandruff Soon Ruins The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it. Then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and dizziness of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

Government Helps Oregon Relieve Shortage in Food

Governor Olcott yesterday received a telegraph communication from E. C. Morse, director of sales for the government in Washington, extending to the state the co-operation of the war department in relieving food shortage in Oregon due to the railroad strike.

"The department has in storage in Portland surplus stocks of canned roast beef," says the communication. "These are offered for sale through any sales agency which in your official capacity may designate, to any community buying association, or recognized distributors of food products. The prices quoted are for warehouses and apply to all purchasers. It is expected that relief organizations will add only sufficient amount to the war department sale price to cover overhead cost of distribution."

ADITORIAL

We Believe in Good Goods Service No Sales

Our last two editorials were on "Good-Goods" and "Service." Let us now tell you what we mean by No Sales

We believe in a "NO SALE POLICY" feeling that honest business today demands that everybody gets a SQUARE DEAL.

When we see a garment advertised as worth $100.00 reduced to $67.50 we are inclined to think that somebody lied. No merchant can remain in business unless he sells his goods at a profit. We maintain that a garment is worth the same at all times during the season.

To charge Mrs. Jones an exorbitant price early in the season so that Mrs. Smith can get here at a big reduction later on, and by so doing make our average profit, is not our way of doing business. To mark our goods "RIGHT" at the beginning so that Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Smith will both get a SQUARE DEAL is our policy.

We feel sure that as the years go by we shall win a warm spot in the hearts of Salem people. We are only human, and will make mistakes, but we assure you that they will be mistakes of the head and not of the heart.

We are one of you, we want you to be one of us. Let's get acquainted!
