Counterfeit Coin Found—

C. M. Roberts, the grocer, took in a counterfeit 50-cent piece at his grocery sometime Thursday. Upon discovering it he took it to the police station. The half dollar looked good and was evidently made of a high grade of lead. When it was dropped on the counter it did not give out the clear ring of a treasury coin. The chief of police sent the coin to William A. Glover, federal secret service agent at Portland. Up till last night no other counterfeit money had been brought into the police headquarters.

Alderman Simeral Files—

Leroy J. Simeral, 980 North Cottage street, yesterday filed his declaration of candidacy for alderman from the first ward, with City Recorder Earl Race. Mr. Simeral has served on the council for some time, and believes he knows the "ins and outs" of the work. If elected, he says it is his intention to "serve the interests of the people of Salem to the best of my ability without respect to class or creed, but with a view of making Salem a bigger and better city."

Vehicles Come Together—

Earl McDonough, 660 North High street reported to the police Friday afternoon that he was driving south on Commercial street behind a truck belonging to the Marion creamery and attempted to pass it, but the truck turned, smashing into the passenger car. One fender and the right hand running board of the car smashed, but otherwise not damaged. Mr. McDonough said that the other truck driver did not signal that he would turn, but the driver testified that McDonough was on the left hand side of him, relieving him of the responsibility of the accident.
