

PORTLAND WINS FROM SENATORS

Beavers Land Hard on Sacramento Pitchers and Take Contest, 9 to 2

ANGELS BEAT VERNON

San Francisco Defeats Oakland in Hard Fought Battle by Score of 8 to 2

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 17.—Portland batters found the deliveries of Pitchers Kuntz and Horwedge easy to fathom and walked away with today's game, 9 to 2. Portland started to hit in the first inning and kept it up until they forced Kuntz out of the box in the third inning. Horwedge also proved unable to stem the tide. Eight of Portland's nine runs were obtained before the fourth inning. Sacramento to was only able to get five hits off Pitcher Sutherland of Portland. R. H. E. Portland . . . . . 9 13 2 Sacramento . . . . . 2 5 1 Sutherland and Koehler; Kuntz, Horwedge and Schang.

Los Angeles 21; Vernon 9. LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 17.—Los Angeles again defeated Vernon, 21 to 9, in two and a half hours of playing wherein the wild mingled with the spectacular. Crawford, with the cooperation of five opposing pitchers, made a single, two doubles, a triple and a home run into deep right bleachers. Everybody in the Los Angeles team made at least one run, except a few pitchers who did not stay in long enough to get a second chance.

R. H. E. Los Angeles . . . . . 21 19 2 Vernon . . . . . 9 13 2 Thomas, Dumovich, Keating and Bassler, Lapan; Schellenback, Sneliders, Hill, Moffet, Eddington and Sullivan.

San Francisco 8; Oakland 5. SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Agnew's home run in the first inning with the bases full won San Francisco's game today with Oakland. The final score was 8 to 5. Schlick started the run-getting, singling and scoring of Corban's double. Corban dashed home after Cavney walked and O'Connell singled. Connolly also walked, and followed Cavney and O'Connell across the home plate when Agnew hit into the left field bleachers.

R. H. E. San Francisco . . . . . 8 16 2 Oakland . . . . . 5 6 4 Couch and Agnew; R. Arlett, Winn and Mitze.

Opponents Break Even.—SALT LAKE CITY, April 17.—Seattle and Salt Lake broke even in a double header today. The Bees winning the first 12 to 6 and losing the second 8 to 6. In the first game the locals landed on Brenton and Sweeney, Seattle pitchers, in the fourth frame and landed eight runs. In this inning most of Salt Lake's heavy stick work was done, Krug getting a homer and two other Bee players doubles. Sheely got a home run in the second with one on bases and Murphy of Seattle got his in the sixth, first at bat.

The second game was a much tighter contest. In the ninth inning Wolter, Seattle right fielder getting a home run, scoring Cunningham who had tripled.

First game: R. H. E. Seattle . . . . . 6 14 2 Salt Lake . . . . . 12 17 1 Brenton, Sweeney and Adams; Matteson and Byler. Second game: R. H. E. Seattle . . . . . 8 12 3 Salt Lake . . . . . 6 10 3 Shore and Rohrer, Adams; Baum and Jenkins.

JOSEPH AFTER DAY'S NANNY

Platform Declares He Is Opposed to Man and Methods Used by Him

"Having been informed that I. N. Day is a candidate for the office of senator, and knowing him to be unfit to represent the people, I am a candidate in opposition to him and his methods."

This is a statement from the platform of George W. Joseph, of Portland, who Friday night filed with the secretary of state as a candidate to represent Multnomah county in the state senate.

Mr. Joseph's declaration was one of the important ones to reach the secretary of state's office on the final day allowed under the law for the filings, and Mr. Day's came in about the same time.

Democrat for Commission. A Democratic aspirant showed up for the public service commission in the person of W. D. Bennett of Portland. He seeks the western Oregon representation on the board. C. P. Strain, Pendleton Democrat, did not file for the eastern Oregon candidacy as was expected.

W. T. Vaughn will be the running mate of W. G. McAloo in Oregon, having filed for the vice presidential candidacy. Insufficient petitions came in to place the name of William Jennings Bryan on the ballot, those

FACTS ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

By Rev. J. R. Buck.

Every society is founded for some particular purpose. One may be for social intercourse, another for temporal interests and a third for literary or scientific pursuits, etc. The Catholic church was founded to make people holy—and through holiness attain eternal happiness. We are therefore Christians and should imitate Christ. For this reason we have the crucifix, the image of Christ and His saints in our churches, our homes and in Catholic communities, in the streets and walks.

We do not worship these images, as the ignorant may imagine, but venerate them as one venerates the ones he loves by placing their pictures in prominent places. And at every stage of the church's existence, she has produced saints of eminent distinction. What church or institution can point in the present generation, as it were, to such a man as the late Father Damien, who, though born of wealthy parents, and with every inducement the world might offer for a life of pleasure, left all, denied himself the comforts and love of home and children of his own, that he might become a priest and for what? To go to the island of Molokai, Hawaii, to live, administer to and long life among the lepers, the putrid wrecks of humanity. It is true other good souls followed him, but he is certainly a striking example of a holy man which was produced by the Catholic church in our own time.

And there are thousands of the same stamp in the past decades of Christianity. Practically every country and nation have been brought to the knowledge of Christ and converted to Christianity by that same holy church. And if we examine her literature we shall also find holiness there. True again, other good books and writings have been born through other channels, but how do they compare with Catholic writings of the same stamp? Compare Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress" with A. Kempis' "Imitation of Christ," Butler's "Lives of the Saints," with Fox's "Book of Martyrs." The "Book of Common Prayer" is taken from the Catholic Missale, etc. It is true that all who bear the name of Catholics are not holy. Even among the twelve chosen by Christ there was a Judas. Luther, Zuinglius and Knox were Catholic priests, and Calvin had studied for the priesthood. Have their works been holy and are they standing the test of time? Then why so many conflicting religions today? Because they left the firm foundation of Christ and built upon the sands of an ever-changing world. God grant that the havoc they wrought may be remedied, is ever the earnest prayer of the children of Catholicity.

that were filed containing less than the required 1000 names. Numerous additional aspirants showed up who hope to attend the national Republican convention, including James S. Stewart, Hiram Johnson's Oregon manager, and Dow V. Walker, state manager for Leonard Wood.

Chief Clerk of Railroad—Another farmer is suing us on account of his cow.

General Manager—One of our trains killed it, I suppose?

Chief Clerk—Not this time. He complains that the passengers lean out of the windows and milk his cow as the trains go by.
