

BONUS OPPOSED BY CONVENTION

Nurses Would Give Service Men Land for Homes Instead of Financial Help

ATLANTA, Ga., April 17.—Opposition to a flat bonus for ex-service men and women and indorsement of land grants and long term loans and increased payments to those disabled was expressed in a resolution adopted today at joint sessions of the conventions of the national league for nursing education, the national organization for public health nursing and the American Nurses' association. Miss Anna Jamme of California and Edna L. Foley of Chicago were elected presidents of the league for nursing education and the organization for public health nursing. The convention adjourned late today to meet two years hence in Seattle, Wash., provided the choice of the delegates is confirmed by their directors.

Polk county farmer, and a native of Russia, was refused citizenship papers when he stated that he would refuse to take up arms for the protection of this country against an enemy. Reimer's investigations were conducted by V. W. Thomlinson, a naturalization agent from Portland. Several other applications for final papers were refused for various reasons.

MOOSE JAW WINS GAME

scooped up Swartz's grounder and flung him down at second. Salem—Hall was out Bell to McKain. Cole reached first on Corri-gan's error. Swartz passed Cohn which advanced Cole to second. Bishop fled to Swartz and Proctor fanned.

Fourth Inning. Moose Jaw—Griffith singled. Williams was out Kracke to Bishop and Griffith took second on the play. Blair whiffed and Corri-gan went down Cole to Bishop.

Salem—Hays singled. Kracke struck out. Miller went out at first and Holmes' high foul was caught by Bell. Hays again dying on a base.

Fifth Inning. Moose Jaw—Reipi hit safely and Shoots slammed out a double, advancing Reipi to third. McKain took first on Cole's error which allowed Reipi to score. Bell fled to Miller and Cole struck out Swartz and passed Griffith. Williams went clear to third on an error by Miller while Shoots and McKain scored. Blair was out Miller to Bishop.

Salem—Hall flew out to McKain. Cole was out Swartz to McKain and Cohn fled to Griffith in left field.

Sixth Inning. Moose Jaw—Corri-gan went out Cole to Bishop and Reipi fled to P. Holmes. Shoots singled and after stealing second went to third on a wild throw by Kracke. McKain hit for two bases, scoring Shoots. Bell fanned.

Salem—Bishop fled to Williams who made a beautiful catch. Proctor fanned. Hays was walked and Swartz also handed a pass to Kracke which put Hays on second. Each advanced a base on a wild pitch by Swartz. Hays stole home, making Salem's first score and he was given an ovation by the grandstand and bleachers. Miller singled, scoring Kracke. Holmes struck out after Miller had stolen first and second bases.

Seventh Inning. Moose Jaw—Swartz fled to Bishop. Griffith was out by Bishop unassisted. Williams doubled, but Blair fanned.

Salem—Hall's high one was caught by Bell. Cole singled. Cohn singled, advancing Cole to second. Bishop kissed the apple for two sacks, scoring Cole. Proctor reached first when Bell allowed a third strike to get by him and Cohn scored on the same bungle, and a moment later Bishop scored on a passed ball which allowed Proctor to go to third. Hays walked and Swartz showed the same generosity to Kracke. Holmes fled to Williams who doubled the play by throwing Miller out at third.

Eighth Inning. Moose Jaw—Corri-gan singled. Reipi doubled. Corri-gan taking third. Shoots hit a long single, scoring Corri-gan and Reipi. McKain sacrificed Shoots to third. Bell singled and Shoots scored. Libke, who batted for Swartz, fanned and Griffith went out Cohn to Bishop. When Moose Jaw took the field Leshar supplanted Swartz in the box.

Salem—Hall, Cole and Cohn were struck out in succession by Leshar, in whom Nick Williams believes he has a find.

Ninth Inning. Moose Jaw—Williams fled to Hays. Blair was out. Proctor to Bishop. Corri-gan was fanned by Cole.

Salem—Bishop hit a pretty drive that netted him two bases and went to third on a passed ball. Proctor and Hays struck out. Kracke was out Shoots to McKain.

OFFICER PUNISHED.

DALY QUILTS JOB AS PRICE FIXED

Too Much Red Tape and Lack of Encouragement Causes Resignation

PORTLAND, Or., April 17.—Will H. Daly, federal fair price commissioner for Oregon, announced today that he had resigned giving as his reason that red tape in government affairs "makes it impossible to get the results the public expects."

"There has been absolutely no encouragement for my work from the higher authorities except the United States district attorney here," declared Daly in his statement. "Under the circumstances and in view of the red tape that hems everything about the government activity, it appears to me to be impossible to get results. I decline to suffer for the failures of others in this regard."

Former Teacher of Deaf Dies at Home of Niece

John Lamme, formerly a teacher in the Oregon School for the Deaf, and one of the leaders in the upbuilding of the institution, died at the home of his niece, Mrs. J. S. Taylor at Sherar's Bridge, near Corvallis, Friday. He was 65 years old and began his teaching in the state school about 30 years ago. He was well known in Salem and though unable to hear often attended the Methodist church with his old time friend, W. T. Rigdon, who would write down the important parts of the sermon for him to read.

The body will arrive from Corvallis Monday and will be taken to the Rigdon establishment. Burial will be in Odd Fellows cemetery but as yet further funeral arrangements have not been made.

Willamette Student Body Will Help Raise Big Fund

The Willamette student body has passed a unanimous resolution to aid in every possible way the campaign for the Greater Willamette fund. This fund of $100,000 is desired and needed for the completion of Waller hall and the larger Lusanne hall. Construction on these two buildings is well under way but more money is needed to assure their completion by the beginning of the fall semester.

Next Sunday is Willamette day in all of the Methodist churches in Oregon and the first week in May will be Willamette week in Oregon.

In both of these efforts the students will assist and they have also appointed a committee to raise funds among the students. The students are responding loyally to the needs of the institution and are contributing to the fund themselves and are giving their support to the campaign in every way possible.

Dallas Youth Killed in Mills City Logging Camp

DALLAS, Or., April 17.—Theodore Berg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Berg, of Dallas, was killed according to word brought here today, in an accident in a logging camp at Mills City, Or., last Wednesday. He was a veteran of the world war.

Mrs. Mary Nibler Dies at Her Home in Gervais

GERVAIS, Or., April 17.—Mrs. Mary Nibler died at her home at Gervais Friday, April 16, after a brief illness.

Mrs. Nibler was born in Alsace, Ind., on March 14, 1840, crossed the plains in 1867 and had been a constant resident of Gervais since.

Those who survive her are one son, August Nibler, and two daughters, Misses Minnie and Sophia Nibler, all of Gervais.

The funeral will be held from the Gervais Catholic church on Monday at 10 a. m., with interment in the Gervais Catholic cemetery.

Eugene Hop Crop Sells at 70 Cents per Pound

The hop market has taken another hop upward. John H. Seavey, pioneer hop grower of Lane county, has contracted with a Portland firm to sell his 1920 crop of hops at 70 cents a pound, which is said to be the highest price ever quoted in Lane county on a contract basis.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lyniff, who have a 50-acre hop ranch in South Bottom have just finished setting out 20 acres of new hops on their farm.

Delegates Free to Act in State Deliberations

SPOKANE, Wash., April 17.—Spokane county's 120 delegates to the Republican state convention at Bellingham, will go uninstructed, it was decided at the Republican county convention here today. A resolution providing that the delegates to the national convention from this state should be released from their support of the nomination of United States Senator Poindexter for president only by Senator Poindexter himself was tabled.

Another Irishman Shot on Streets of Belfast

LONDON, April 17.—Another sensational attempt has been made to assassinate the Letvian premier, Karl Ullman, this time while he was engaged in an electoral campaign, according to an announcement by the Letvian legation. The assassins, whom the Letvian authorities presume were Communists, acting in concert with Russians, exploded a quantity of dynamite at the base of a tree beside the road just as the premier's party, which was armed, stopped and engaged in a pistol duel with the assailants, who fled.

Another Attempt Made on Life of Karl Ullman

BELFAST, April 17.—Thomas Mulholland, an employe of the Dundalk Urban council, was shot on the street in Dundalk, 45 miles northwest of Dublin last night and died en route to the hospital.

In a statement, he said a policeman shot him. The police, while not admitting that they shot Mulholland, say that three policemen while patrolling were attacked by a mob of civilians; two policemen were knocked down and the third fired three shots at their assailants.

Mulholland was interned after the rebellion of 1916.

The shooting of Mulholland has created a considerable sensation, as it is the first event of the kind reported so near the Ulster border.

Miner's Wage Scale Is Submitted to Committee

BILLINGS, Mont., April 17.—Coal miner representatives in a conference with a committee of coal operators of Montana here today submitted, it is said, a list of proposals which would determine the wage scale for miners in the Montana fields.

The proposals are understood to have been formulated by a scale committee of the miners which completed its work Friday night.

The joint committee had no report to make public when the session ended tonight. The conference is expected to close shortly.

Bryan Voices Opposition to Compulsory Training

WAKEFIELD, Neb., April 17.—Discussing national issues to a crowd here today, W. J. Bryan declared his opposition to compulsory military training. He said he was in favor of a bonus being paid to discharged soldiers, the money to be raised by additional taxes on "big business." It was a disgrace, he said, to make the League of Nations a political issue.

Tobacco Market Boosted by Action of Congress

WASHINGTON, April 17.—To stimulate a market for natural loose leaf tobacco, the house passed today and sent to the senate an amendment to the 1918 revenue law which places a tax of 7 cents a pound on the tobacco sold by retail dealers and provides that the loose leaf product, except when sold by growers, shall be packed in three, six, nine, 12, 15 and 18-pound lots.

Butte Unionists Refer Dispute to Arbitration

BUTTE, Mont., April 17.—Butte unions have been given until April 26 to accept the principle of arbitration as a permanent medium of settling labor disputes by the associated industries. Business and mining interests have pledged $100,000 to carry through the arbitration principle. A committee from the Butte Workmen's union will present demands Monday for a $1 a day increase. It is understood that bakers' demand for an increase will be presented at the same time.

Columbia Rate Action Argued in Washington

SPOKANE, Wash., April 17.—The Portland freight rate case was argued before the interstate commerce commission at Washington today on behalf of Spokane, Portland and Puget Sound cities by J. B. Campbell of this city. J. M. Teal of Portland and Scott Henderson of Tacoma, respectively, according to a special dispatch to the Chronicle from Washington. Mr. Campbell argued that distance should be the controlling factor in rate making.

'SWANEE RIVER'

Through all the Years---They Live!
As real, as fresh, as appealingly human today as when Mark Twain—his eyes a-twinkle—called them from his heart and wrote them down forever in the world's greatest romance of youth.
Freckle-faced Huck Finn; Tom Sawyer, with his marvelous plans; "Pap" Finn and his jug of rum; those seedy old rascallions, the "King" and the "Duke;" Black Jim and sweet-faced Mary Jane.
Now, in this irresistible photoplay, they live before your very eyes—with all their charm, their escapades, their lovable, laughable ways.
A tale of other days on the Mississippi—Pulsing with a hundred immortal adventures—Mellowed with much laughter—Softened by a few tears.
