MRS. T. A. LIVESLEY'S beautiful home on South Winter street was opened Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the bridge club with a few additional guests, which was one of the prettiest functions of the week. The house radiated the fragrance of many spring blossoms which were fashioned together of the dainty yellows and lavenders, blended with the pink and rose of the carnation. After the cards tea was served. The outside guests were Mrs. Oliver C. Locke, Mrs. Edwin L. Baker and Mrs. William H. Lytle.

Many of the members of the Bridge club are also members of the Illahee auxiliary and the meeting of the latter almost every day this week to sew for the pageant they are sponsoring has kept them so busy that the assemblage Wednesday with the time devoted to bridge and the leisurely social chat over the teacup which followed, was unusually recreational.

BEAUTIFUL in every detail was the dinner party which Mrs. Milton L. Meyers gave at her attractive Court street home Thursday evening in compliment to her husband, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. It was a family affair with covers laid for 13. A centerpiece was fashioned of daffodils and narcissi which completed the yellow appointment for the attractive table.

MRS. E. C. CROSS was one of the most charming hostesses of the week when she entertained the members of the Piety Hill club at her home Thursday afternoon. The rooms radiated a spring atmosphere with narcissi and fruit blossoms used in a pretty profusion. At the tea hour the hostess assisted by Mr. Curtiss Cross, Mrs. Frank Spear and Mrs. Prince Byrd served a dainty repast. Besides the members of the club, Mrs. Cross invited a group of matrons to pass the afternoon with them. There were Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. H. W. Thielens, Mrs. Ercel Kay, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Curtiss Cross, Mrs. Prince Byrd and Miss Virginia Byrd.

NEW FIGURE LINES REQUIRE NEW CORSETS.

It is a mistake to try and make the new styles in outer apparel look right when worn over last season's corsets. You will enjoy the immediate comfort and improved figure-lines in the new models we are showing in the line of Froilaset Corsets. Elastic and tree bandeaux for the stout figures. Special attention to fitting.

MRS. OLIVER C. LOCKE entertained with a beautifully appointed dinner Thursday evening at her home in the Court apartments. The rooms were done in yellow tones with a profusion of large narcissi being used. A large basket filled with the same blossom formed the centerpiece for the table. Covers were laid for ten. Later in the evening the men attended a business meeting and other guests to make three tables of bridge came in and the evening was passed with cards. Mrs. Edwin L. Baker won the prize for the highest score and Mrs. John J. Roberts received the prize for the second highest score.

Mrs. E. V. McMechen was a lovely hostess Friday afternoon when she entertained with a small tea as a farewell courtesy to Mrs. Charles G. Miller, who will soon leave Salem. It was delightfully informal, the women sewing over their fancywork while chatting. At the tea hour dainty refreshments were served. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. McMechen were Mrs. Miller, Miss Eunaine Craig, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Robert McMurray, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Lloyd Farmer, Mrs. Louis Josse of Portland, Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn, Mrs. Earle Coulson, Flegel, and Mrs. Dan Fry Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding were hosts at a prettily appointed dinner Friday evening honoring Mrs. Louisa A. Woods of Portland who is visiting relatives in Salem. Johns, A. S. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Dr. W. B. Morse, Frank Lovell, and the hosts.

Miss Margaret White will be spring in the pageant "The Awakening of Spring" which will be given by the pupils of Mrs. Ralph White and sponsored by the Illahee auxiliary as a benefit to the new Salem hospital. The scene is laid in a beautiful Italian garden and opens with the solo dances of the storm fairy, who will be Miss Mona Schomm. The dawn fairy, who will be Miss Jeannette Sykes, the fairy queen, who will be Miss Mildred Roberts and other fairies, some of whom will dance in groups and others will give solo dances. The Brownie

King, Jack Harrison, will give a solo dance and call out a party of brownies who are to dance. Spring will then awaken and dance calling to life the spring flowers, bluebells, black eyed Susans, rose bud dance, solo by Maxine Myers, and group of roses. The sleepy eye flowers will come out and give their little dance and these will be the Misses Marie Patton, Janette Patton, Katherine Sheldon, Jane Harrison, Mildred Schmidt, Eleanor Wright, Helen Ralph, Maxine Clark, Marjory Webb, and Katherine Gouley.

The Swallows will entertain the house for a while and the little maids who will personify the pretty birds are to be Misses Mildred Roberts, Janet Plimpton, Mildred Gilbert, Dorothy Livesley, Jeannette Sykes, Nancy Thielens, Maxine Glover, Myrtle Shipp, and Fay Wassum.

The Sherman Plimpton will give a solo dance "The Pipes O' Pan" then will be the dance of the Winds by Fay Wassum, Mildred Gilbert, Maxine Glover and Pauline Monarch. The King of jesters and his party will dance for the people and the king will be Darel Myers, and his party includes Jack Minto, Chandler Brown, Junior Deley, Sherman Plimpton, James Campbell, Henry Thielens and Bert Hoffline.

Little Miss Maxine Clark will give the Tinkie Bell solo which will be decidedly clever, and one of the prettiest dances of the evening. The Grecian girls will give their dance and they are the older maids including Miss Margaret White, Miss Mona Schomm, Miss Leah Nichols, Miss Gusie Solof, Miss Valerie Briggs, Miss Marie Briggs, Miss Frances Ward, and Miss Ruby Welsh.

The next part will be a nature study dance, the first part being Marguerites, the second buttercups, and the third part evening. The little tots who will participate in this are Elizabeth Waters, Cynthia LeLano, Leon Davidson, Maxine Oliver, Mildred Roberts, Janet Plimpton, Fay Wassum, Maxine Myers, Mildred Gilbert, Henrietta Bishop, Dorothy Livesley, Pauline Monarch and Hazel Martin.

The Misses Leona Davidson, Maxine Glover, Mildred Roberts, Mildred Gilbert, Jeannette Sykes, Dorothy Livesley, Janet Plimpton and Pauline Monarch will give the next dance. Miss Nancy Thielens will give the Moonbeams dance, which will be beautiful, and the first part will close with a tableaux by the ensemble.

Mrs. Zadoc Riggs returned last night from Portland where she passed several days visiting friends. While there she joined the Daughters of the Nile, the women's auxiliary to the Mystic Shrine.

Miss Theresa Fowie was a charming hostess Tuesday evening at her home when she entertained the Christian Endeavor society of the First Congregational church. A business meeting, during which officers were elected for the coming society year occupied the early hours of the evening, after which music and games were played.

The officers elected are: President, Leon Jennison; vice president, George White; secretary, Miss Nell Fake; treasurer, Hugh Conrad. A dainty repast was served by the hostess. Those present were Misses Constance Kantner, Josephine Brosse, Doris Neptune, Margaret Livesley, Nell Fake, Florence Young, Genevieve Endicott, Thelma Young, Dorothy Lovell, Mildred Strevey and Messrs. George White, Hugh Conrad, Russell Patterson, Hayword Fowie and Leon Jennison.

The Philodians and Philadorian literary societies of Willamette university were the guests of Miss Marguerite Cook at the B. C. Miles home Friday evening for an indoor picnic which was enjoyed in the spacious attic. A program called "The Chorus of Earth" was the source of much amusement, and games and general singing around the fireplace were enjoyed. Light refreshments were served. Professor and Mrs. Morton E. Peck were chaperones of the evening.

The girls of Lausanne hall of the Willamette university were hostesses for a happy informal stunt show Thursday evening at the hall when they had as their guests the girls of the Beta Chi house.

Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Williamson of Portland, but former Salem folk, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers for Thursday and Friday.

The Order of the Eastern Star are planning an unusually delightful social evening for Tuesday, the regular meeting date of the order. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Robertson will give a duet and Mrs. Harry Styles will sing a solo. Two scenes will be given from the classic comedy, "A School for Scandal," by Richard Sheridan, with Ralph Thomas of the public speaking department of Willamette university taking the part of Lord Teazle. This was given at the recent concert of Mr. Thomas, and parts will be repeated Tuesday evening. Miss Mary Notson will take the part of Lady Teazle.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the evening is Mrs. Percy Cupper, chairman, and Mrs.

Miss Margaret White, who will take the part of spring in the pageant "Awakening of Spring," the hospital benefit to be given soon

It is with regret that friends will say adieu to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schmidt the first of May when they leave for Brighton, Canada, to make their home in the future. Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt have been popular in the social set in Salem during their residence here and will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Bliss L. Darby entertained the members of the Monday Afternoon Bridge club at her home recently. Mrs. Wilson H. Darby was a guest of the club for the afternoon.

After the cards Mrs. Arthur Moore received the prize for high scoring. A profusion of wood flowers in the various shades of lavenders, yellows and whites made the rooms charming. The hostess served a repast at the close of the afternoon.

The Get Acquainted club was delightfully entertained at the residence of Mrs. E. H. Durrell, its initial meeting, Thursday evening. The first part of the evening was spent relating traveling experiences, which were not only educational but in many instances highly amusing. To be eligible for membership each member must have traveled not less than ten thousand miles. A delightful lunch was served later in the evening. The table decoration was a huge basket of double Jonquils and purple violets. The members present were Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Burrell, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kupper, Mr. and Mrs. De Souza, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Diggs, Miss A. E. Lyons, Miss Clair Bust and Miss Anna Mullen.

The American Legion will give a dancing party Friday evening in the armory which will call out a large number of the lovers of the dance. This will be the third dance given by the organization since its formation in Salem and the committees in charge are making special arrangements for this to be the largest and most elaborate they have given. Revelation orchestra will play and the ballroom will be beautifully decorated.

Omer Leroy Kennen and Miss Ruby Perkins were married at Tillamook, April 13, at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Kennen is well known in Salem, having been a sergeant in company M, 162nd Infantry on the Mexican border in 1916. While in France he was commissioned second lieutenant and served for several months in Paris.

CLASSY WAISTS

We have opened our shop at 292 South Summer with the plan of giving Salem's stylish lady-folk the best that can be had in the way of waists. Still it is not our plan to charge a fabulous price for these, the best waists that can be had.

We intend to keep our expenses down to such an extent that we will be able to give you the very best in waists for not over $15.00—the same waists that other stores are charging from $20.00 to $30.00.

Ours are handmade, hand designed by one of the best artists and designers who has ever come to Salem. There will be no two waists alike, but each one will be made in whatever pattern, the customer wishes.

Phone us for an appointment to get your measurements and the pattern desired. You won't be sorry after having given us one order.
