Messenger Pigeon Arrives—

The only sign seen in Salem Sunday of the racing messenger pigeons that were supposed to pass here on that day was one of the birds that reached the home of Judge Earl Race, 1105 South Twelfth street. The pigeon arrived at the Race home about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and is still there. It was very weary upon arrival and sat in one place on the roof of a building for four hours.

Big Brothers to Meet—

A meeting of the entire personnel of the Big Brothers' committee of the Salem Elks has been called by Fred Erickson, chairman, for the night of Tuesday, April 27, at the Elks' club rooms for the purpose of going over in detail plans for the Boy Scout entertainment at the armory on the following night. Every effort is to be made to bring out a crowd that will fill the armory to overflowing, according to Mr. Erickson.
