20 PAMPHLETS TO BE ISSUED FOR ELECTORS

Kozer Shows Work Before Department Election on May 21

FEE TOTAL IS HEAVY

General Fund Is Increased From Money Paid in by Party Candidates

Out of 343 candidates who filed with the secretary of state for delegate to the national Republican and Democratic conventions, and for federal, state and district offices for which nominees are to be chosen by the people at the primary election May 21, 269 are Republican and 74 are Democrats. The total fees collected from the filings, ranging from $10 for candidates for the legislature to $150 for United States senator, amount to $6265.

"Some 95 candidates have filed statements for the several party primary pamphlets, from which the total fees aggregate $5,710," said Sam A. Kozer, deputy secretary of state. "Some 20 different pamphlets will be required to be issued by the secretary of state. Of these 17 will include the statements of Republican candidates and three of those of the Democratic candidates. Only those statements which relate to the candidates of the respective district are included in the pamphlet going to the electors in those districts. This accounts for the considerable number of different pamphlets which the secretary is required to compile and mail to the voters under the corrupt practices act. This is the largest number of pamphlets issued at any election since the corrupt practices act went into effect, beginning with the elections in the year 1910.

"The fees received from the filings, as well as for the statements of the pamphlet, are converted to the state treasury for the credit of the general fund. The total from the two sources aggregates $11,975, and is a substantial offset to the expense which the state is to in the printing and distribution of the pamphlets authorized under the corrupt practices act of this state."

Rain Causes Cancellation of Games With Moose Jaw

NAVY BOXERS SHOW CLASS

The sailors have ever been interested in the manly art of self defense, and the editor of this page could fill it if he were to attempt to mention the champions of the world who have gained their training in the Navy. Tom Sharkey, Sailor Burke, Frank Moran, Gunboat Smith, and hundreds of other good boys might be mentioned.

The above picture shows a friendly set-to betwixt two youngsters at the Naval Training Station, Newport, R. I., where a number of good boys have been "turned out," as Paddy Partridge, the veteran trainer of Navy boxers, recently said.

A policeman, with more than usual avardnois and expanse of shoe leather, had just passed a little terrace with a bit of garden in front when a small boy ran after him. "Hello, kiddie!" said the arm of the law, genially; "what can I do for you?"

"Mother sent me out," answered the youngster, "to ask you if you would mind walking up and down our path for a minute or two. It's just been graveled, and we ain't got a roller."—Truth Seeker,

Not What He Meant

A small choir were practicing the well known anthem, "As the Heart Pants After the Water Brooks."

The rendering of the open stages was apparently not quite to the satisfaction of the gentleman who wielded the baton.

He considered it necessary, therefore, to tender some advice to the tenors and caused great consternation and not a little embarrassment among his little flock by the following announcement:

"Gentlemen, your expression is simply splendid, but the time is very spoot—really, your pants are far too long."
