High School Students Won't be Vaccinated

PORTLAND, Ore., April 19.—As the result of an order issued by the city health officer that all students at Lincoln high school must be vac- cinated or remain away from school for 21 days, teachers there said to- day that the attendance had been cut by 25 percent.

On Detail.
Private Napoleon Booker Wash- ington Simpson had obtained leave of absence to visit his buddy, who had been wounded and was in a nearby hospital. He was stopped at the entrance by an arm- y nurse, who asked him what he wanted.

"Has you got a dark complected man named Johnson what's been shot in the hospital?" he inquired.
"The nurse replied that there was such a person there, adding, 'But he's convalescing now.'"
"Ah beg you pardon?" said Nap. perked up, scratching his wool.
"He's convalescing now," she re- peated.

"Well," said Napoleon, "if yo' doan mind, I'll set right here and wait till he gets through."—Home Sweet.
