Stupid and careless base running cost Portland any chance it had for a victory. The Seals made their lone run in the ninth on a pass to Corban, Cavaney's sacrifice and Fitzgerald's single to right.

HIGH SCHOOL TO PLAY TOMORROW

First Baseball Game of Season for Students at Oxford Street Grounds

The first baseball game of the season for the high school will be played with McMinnville high at Oxford park tomorrow, weather permitting. With the two mainstay pitchers of last year, Fischer and Ashby, reporting, assisted by Phil Ringle, a returned service man, the local high school is well supplied in the box.

The two Gills, Luke and Amory, need no introduction to followers of high school athletics, and both are showing up well. Luke will probably be the first choice as catcher, while Amory will play short.

The entire team is composed of stick artists, who promise to cause

SAILORS AS BALL TOSSERS

Local baseball fans will be interested in the above picture of one of the Navy's crack teams. These boys are from the different states of the Union, but are now attached to the Training Station, Mare Island, Calif. "Fred, do you remember where you were in 1910?" asked the bride of a few months.

"Why, no, dear, I don't remember exactly," replied the young husband. "Why do you ask?"

"Why I was reading today in the paper that it is said that in 1910 one person in every 800 in this country was in prison."
