GRANT COUNTY PROTESTS TO HIGHWAY BOARD

Apportionment of Market Road Fund Declared to be Contrary to Law

MARION COUNTY IS HIT Levy of Local Court Alleged Illegal; Large Amount Is Involved

Contending that the apportionment of market roads moneys to the counties on April 3 by the state highway commission under the Pierce market road act of 1919 was not made according to law, the Grant county court, through District Attorney A. D. Leedy, has filed a protest, demanding a redistribution.

The protest avers that some counties have received far greater sums than they are entitled to in accordance with their specific levies for market roads purposes, that other counties have received much less than the amounts to which they are entitled, that apportionments have been made to a number of counties that have not made specific uniform levies for market road purposes, and that in the case of Marion county an apportionment has been made while the county made its levy illegally. The protest asks that Grant county's share be increased to $25,011.99. Should the protest prevail the state highway commission would face the task of redistributing $990,455.47, the total amount of the apportionment.

Bigger Sum Claimed
The attitude of the Grant county court that every county under the act should make a levy specifically for market road purposes of at least 1 mill to meet the state apportionment, that counties failing to levy more than one mill should not participate in the surplus and that counties that do levy more than one mill should receive an apportionment to the full extent of their levies. Grant county levied 3 mills and claims an apportionment equal to that amount. The law exempts the levy from the 6 per cent tax limitation amendment to the constitution. Section 2 of the act reads as follows:

"Insofar as practicable the state highway commission shall annually apportion the appropriation provided for under this act among the several counties in such amounts that each county shall receive an amount at least equal to its contribution to the appropriation herein provided for except that no county shall receive in excess of 10 per cent of the total amount raised hereunder in any year. Should any county fail or neglect to accept the provisions of this act, then and in that case the amount apportioned thereto shall be subject to the disposition of the state highway commission for distribution among counties accepting and operating under the provisions of this act."

Counties Are Named
Section 4 reads: "The county court of any county desiring to avail itself of the provisions and benefits of this act in any year shall provide by uniform levy on all taxable property of the county, for the specific purpose of market road construction, such an amount as may equal the amount apportioned to said county by the state highway commission under this act." The Grant county protest names as the counties that have received in excess of the amounts to which they are entitled, Baker, Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Coos, Deschutes, Douglas, Harney, Jackson, Josephine, Lane, Lincoln, Linn, Malheur, Morrow, Polk, Tillamook, Umatilla, Union, Wallowa, Wasco, Washington and Wheeler.

It is asserted that large sums have been apportioned to Hood River, Jefferson, Klamath, and Yamhill counties and that this is illegal for the reason that they have made no levies for the specific purpose of market road building.

It is averred that the commission has refused to apportion to Columbia, Crook, Curry, Gilliam, Grant, Lake and Sherman the sums to which they are entitled as equal to the amounts provided by each under the special uniform levy.

GRANDMOTHER KNOWS WHAT'S GOOD

Mrs. V. M. Katz 502 Armondale St., N. S., Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "I used Foley's Honey and Tar for my little grandson as he had a bad cold, and it did him lots of good. I used a lot of it when my own children were small." This old reliable medicine helps coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.—J. C. Perry.

"Chapel March" and "Flunk Day" Observed by Seniors

Yesterday was "chapel march" at Willamette.

The seniors appeared at chapel in caps and gowns and entered after the rest of the students were already in their places. All of the students and faculty stood while the seniors entered, thus paying their respects to the out-going class.

The chapel convened upstairs in the main auditorium of the Methodist church instead of in the Sunday school room as is customary, and the seniors marched in to the melodious pipe organ rendition of their senior-freshman glee song. After a short chapel service the seniors led the state in a grand march through the state grounds, through the state capitol and back to Willamette campus where the entire student body which had marched in double formation formed a living "W", except the seniors who placed themselves so as to form a "20", their class numeral. After all of the cameras were through clicking the students dispersed. This followed the "senior flunk day" which the seniors observed by taking a holiday without previous

"Awakening of Spring" Is Tremendous Success

"The Awakening of Spring," the pageant by the pupils of Mrs. Ralph White, which was given under the auspices of the women's auxiliary of the Illahee Country club last night at the Grand Opera house, was one of the most successful and beautiful affairs of the kind which has ever been produced in Salem. Last night's performance and the matinee this afternoon are given as a benefit for the children's ward in the new Salem hospital, and at last night's performance over $500 was taken in.

Over 100 children participated, as well as a number of the members of the younger social set. Solo dances and group dancing with vocal solos made up the entertainment which was given to a packed house. So enthusiastic are Salem people over the production that every seat in the house was sold several days before the performance.

Two Universities Play May Day Tennis Matches

One of the athletic features of the Willamette May day festivities will be a tennis tournament between Willamette university and the University of Oregon. This will take place on Saturday, May 8, at 10 a. m. and will be of unusual interest as each college has a man who ranks high in this sport in the northwest.

Mortimer Brown of U. of O. has for several years been college champion for the state of Oregon. Willamette also has a tennis champion, Noble Moodhe, who has not been defeated in the game for several years and won over a worthy O. A. C. opponent last year. Mr. Moodhe is do-

Botulism to be Subject Before Medical Society

Dr. Lawrence Selling of Portland will address the members of the Polk-Yamhill-Marion Medical society in a meeting at Independence May 4 on the subject of botulism which the state board of health recently has placed on the list of reportable diseases. Following the address discussion of the subject will be opened by Dr. J. Shelley Satterman of Salem.

Several applications for membership in the society will come before the society. A good dinner at $1 a plate will start the program.
