WORLD RECORD EXTRA INNINGS
Brooklyn-Boston Go Twenty-Six With Score 1 to 1 and Darkness Stops Game

BOSTON, May 1.—A new world's record for extra innings in major leagues was made today by Brooklyn and Boston, when the clubs went 26 innings before being called on account of darkness with the score tied 1 to 1. Cadore and Oeschger pitched the entire game.

The previous major league record was made September 1, 1906, when the Philadelphia Americans and Boston Americans played 24 innings at Boston, the former winning 4 to 1.

University of Oregon Wins Over Whitman, Score 14 to 6

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 1.—University of Oregon today defeated Whitman college 14 to 6 in the second game of the baseball series here. Ted Rich, second baseman for Whitman, will probably be out of the game for the rest of the season with a broken nose. While going to second on a double play, a hard thrown ball struck him squarely on the nose. He was knocked unconscious.

TENNESSEE FOR WOOD.
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 1.—Republicans of the second Tennessee district at a convention here today elected two national delegates, instructed to vote for Major General Wood.

MOLALLA WINS OVER LOCALS

Ringle Holds Rivals to One Hit, But It Proves to be Lucky One

Holding a team to one hit and losing the game by a score of 3 to 0 was the fate that befell Phil Ringle when Salem high school crossed bats with the Molalla high school at Molalla yesterday at Molalla. The lone hit was made in the seventh inning and with the bases filled. The locals pulled out of a tight hole by the aid of a rapid double play. Not to be outdone in that department of the game, Molalla came back in their half of the inning and ruined Salem's chances by a double play.

Ridings of Molalla pitched a good game, holding the local high school to two hits, both of which were made by E. Gill. Luke got on twice but the punch to put him across the plate was lacking. Jones, the star hitter in the McMinnville game, did not make the trip and his absence was keenly felt.

Two errors, a wild pitch and a passed ball were responsible for the three runs made by Molalla in their half of the eighth inning.

The game was played on a rough weed grown diamond and this was largely responsible for the numerous errors contributed by the Salem team.

The locals meet Molalla here in a return game next Saturday, May 8 and are determined to even things up with a vengeance.

Tomorrow the Salem high school crosses bats with the Estacada high school at Oxford park on South Twelfth street and a good game is assured.

Summary of the game:
Molalla R. H. E.
Salem 3 1 0
Batters: Salem; P. Ringle and E. Gill; Molalla; Ridings and Hartsless.

Ex-President Taft Worried About His Name in Oregon

United States Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington will withdraw his name from the Oregon Republican primary ballot as a candidate for president of the United States. Sam A. Koser, deputy secretary of state, was so informed yesterday in a telephone message from J. C. Herbsman of Portland. Poindexter's Oregon manager. It will be necessary for Senator Poindexter personally to file affidavits of withdrawal.

Ex-President Taft Worried About His Name in Oregon

Commenting on the rather sharp letter from William Howard Taft re-stating, was so informed yesterday in a telephone message from J. C. Herbsman of Portland. Poindexter's Oregon manager. It will be necessary for Senator Poindexter personally to file affidavits of withdrawal.

for president, Sam A. Koser, deputy secretary of state, says that if the Taft petitions had been filed the secretary of state would have been without discretion in the matter and under the law would have been compelled to put the name on the ballot. This is in accordance with a ruling of the supreme court on a similar request from Charles Evans Hughes in 1916. However, the Taft petitions were not filed and the name does not go on the ballot.

Did You Ever Feel That You Weren't Dressed For the Occasion

Many have that feeling because they do not use judgment in selecting their clothing. They pay sixty dollars for a suit of clothes ready to wear—the result is that in a few months the suit begins to look worn out.

The fine woollens used in a made-to-measure suit keep the suit looking its best for many months. The care used in making the suit fit your person prevents it from becoming shapeless as does a suit not made for you.

Let us measure you at once. We can give you a suit you will be proud to wear—at a price you can afford to pay. You put yourself under no obligation in calling and looking over our goods.
