If You Wish To Have—

In the future as in the past, "Economy and efficiency" in the recorder's office, vote 15 X Earl Race, City Recorder. (Paid adv.)

Crowded Into Ditch—

M. Suttman reported to the police Sunday that the automobile which he was driving on the Pacific highway was crowded off the road into a ditch, causing the car to turn over. No one was severely injured and the auto was only damaged to the extent of about $50. Mr. Suttman said the accident occurred when he came up behind a car bearing Oregon license No. 75720, and when he gave the signal to pass the car turned out to the right, but just as he was passing it turned back to the left, causing his auto to be pushed over the embankment into the ditch. The police have not ascertained who owns the other automobile.

Verden M. Moffitt—

For city marshal. A courteous and fearless enforcement of the law. (Paid adv.)

Deaf Pupils to See Show—

The students of the Oregon school for the deaf will be entertained at Ye Liberty theater at 4 o'clock this afternoon by Manager Frank Bligh who will show the play "In Old Kentucky" for their benefit. Superintendent Tillinghast has informed Mr. Bligh that about 40 of the pupils will be present.

Pamphlets Big Item—

One hundred and fifty mail sacks filled with voters' pamphlets are being handled by the Salem postoffice each day, or about 3,500 pamphlets. And as there are about 350,000 registered voters in Oregon it is estimated that it will take 10 days to complete the shipment. This means a revenue of $350 a day of $3,500 for the 10 days for the post office department in postage.
