

SALVATIONIST FUND CAMPAIGN COMES TO END

Amount Collected in Salem Expected to Reach Four Thousand Dollars

Leaders Commend Work Done by Young Business Men, Women and Students

The campaign for funds for the Salvation army in Salem ended last night with $3550 on hand, represented by cash and pledges.

Several solicitors had not yet turned in their amounts. These, together with the contributions previously promised by several prominent citizens, will, it is thought, swell the total amount to $4000.

The campaigners will now turn their attention to the country districts and smaller towns where an effort will be made to complete the drive in one more week, according to statements made by Secretary Norene.

"We have received a city lot in Fairmount Park as one of our contributions," said A. C. Bohrstedt, campaign manager. "This lot is the generous donation of Clark J. Seibel, residing at Shaw. The lot is conservatively valued at from $200 to $300. I think we shall sell this lot at public auction so as to make certain that we will get all it is worth for the Salvation people."

All things considered, the campaign has been a brilliant success. No other drive could have met with so generous and whole-hearted response from the people of Salem.

The success met in this campaign is an expression of the kindly feelings entertained by all classes of people for the real good service being given the needy by the Salvation Army.

Dr. B. F. Pound, one of the directors of the campaign, speaking of the force of young men and women who did the soliciting, said last night:

"I have never seen such tireless, energetic workers. Their heart was in the work. The force made up of salesmen, clerks and university students. It is an inspiration to have been associated with them in this campaign."

holding the railway lines, which had also been cut in numerous places. General Santos said that flight northward was impossible. Should Carranza attempt to reach the Tampico region, General Santos added, he would face innumerable perils, since that district was controlled by the followers of Felix Diaz and Manuel Pelaez, with General Arnulfo Goberzere among those present. Huerta with about 1000 Yaquis threatening Tuxpan and Vera Cruz.

Apparently Carranza's attempts to evacuate the capital in force and establish headquarters in Vera Cruz, which had been stocked with ammunition and supplies more than a month ago by General Candido Aguilar, had been a complete failure.

The last of ten long trains carrying troops, munitions, national funds and other supplies, as well as government officials, including President Carranza, his cabinet members and a few loyal generals, hardly had passed when the rear guard was attacked on the afternoon of May 7 near the suburb of Guadalupe Hidalgo.

A wild engine crashed into the rear of the second from the last train, killing more than 40 soldiers, women, children and camp followers.

Colonel Alberto Salinas, nephew of Carranza, was wounded in an attack on a train carrying airplane equipment. He was taken back to a hospital in Mexico City. A train with funds of the national railways of Mexico was also captured.

Travelers from the Orizaba district report that other trains were held there by the destruction of the railway by hand grenades.

Meanwhile temporary high officials are being named by the rebel government. General Jacinto Trevino has been chosen acting military commander of the liberal revolutionary forces; General Sidronio Mendez, chief of the capital's garrison; General Manuel de Los Santos, head of the war department; General Gustavo Elizondo, commander of the valley of Mexico; Senator Juan Sanchez Ascona, acting charge of foreign office.

The censorship, which was drastic throughout the Carranza administration, becoming virtually prohibitive since the liberal revolutionary movement began to show strength, has been removed entirely.

MEXICO CITY, May 15.—(Via Laredo Junction and Dallas, Tex.)—Reports that General Manuel Diguez has been captured were confirmed Wednesday by a wireless dispatch from Guadalupe, given out by Obregon headquarters and signed by Colonel Isasie Castro relating that Diguez, together with his staff and General Sebastian Alonzo are imprisoned.

EL PASO, Tex., May 15.—Reports from Laredo, Tex., and Nogales, Ariz., that President Carranza and his escort of 800 men had been captured by the revolutionary forces of General Guadalupe Sanchez, operating in the state of Puebla, lacked confirmation here tonight, according to revolutionary leaders.

The only official advices were from Governor Adolfo de la Huerta of Sonora, supreme commander of the revolution, who reported that General Francisco Murguia was attempting to hold back the rebels while Carranza escaped to the mountains with his escort.

MEXICO CITY, May 12.—Governor de la Huerta, was called upon to summon the national congress to name an ad-interim president at a meeting held at the national palace tonight attended by numerous leaders of the liberal revolutionary movements.

General Obregon and Gonzales Pelaez, with General Arnulfo Goberzere among those present. Huerta was selected to summon a congress as leader of the liberal revolutionists. Those present at the meeting pledged themselves to accept the ad-interim president regardless of his political beliefs. General Obregon was selected as commander of the liberal revolutionists in the federal district.

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, May 15.—Prior to receipt of the wireless message it had been decided to send General Benjamin Hill with a strong column to capture Diguez. Other statements made by liberal revolutionists headquarters indicate fighting is still going on in the vicinity of San Marcos, state of Puebla, between the column guarding the presidential trains and revolutionary forces.

Obregon's headquarters announced that permission had been given General Guadalupe Sanchez to allow General Candido Aguilar to pass through revolutionary lines to confer with President Carranza with a view to avoiding more bloodshed. General Aguilar later to surrender.

With forces under General Sanchez opposing assaults by General Francisco Murguia, who is attempting to cut a way through toward Vera Cruz, revolutionary forces under General Cosio Kobelo, have left Puebla with the object of attacking Carranza forces from the rear. Heavy casualties are reported in General Murguia's four assaults near Rinconada.

GALVESTON, Tex., May 15.—W. A. Body, British consular agent at Vera Cruz, who was reported with President Carranza and for whose safety fears were entertained, reached Vera Cruz tonight, according to private dispatches received here.

The dispatches made no mention of the two Americans said to have accompanied Consul Body.

EL PASO, Tex., May 15.—Revolutionary forces attacking President Carranza's convoy near Rinconada, in the state of Puebla, have captured all the money, archives and valuables Carranza took with him on his flight from Mexico City, according to a message received by revolutionary agents here tonight from General Obregon at Mexico City. The valuables were captured from trains which accompanied President Carranza, according to the message, and are valued at many millions of dollars. The treasure cars are being returned to Mexico City.

W. A. Body, British consular agent at Vera Cruz, who was reported with President Carranza, was "set free" by General Obregon, the message said, and given "every consideration and facility" together with all other "privileges."

SENATE VOTE ON PEACE RESOLUTION

Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, in explaining his vote in support of the Knox resolution, said:

"In my opinion the treaty of Versailles is so full of international injustices that it is a service to our country to do whatever I can to prevent ratification in its original form."

The Knox resolution, he added, "was the only constructive measure suggested tending to remove the chaotic state of the country," and protested against his party being compelled to make any such defense in the next election of the "international injustice and robbery" which he said had been placed in the treaty.

YOUR SHARE, NO MORE

"Pay your share of the tax and no more" is the slogan under which Jerome F. Jones of Salem is running as a candidate for Marion county assessor, and Mr. Jones believes his experience and his understanding of property valuations are such that he can protect the people against paying more than their share of the taxes, to see that assessments are equalized.

Mr. Jones is now district deputy sealer of weights and measures and is in charge of the county and district offices under that department of the state government. His efficiency has caused him to be retained in that office under three administrations, having served under Fred G. Buchtel, Spence Wortman and now under W. A. Dalsiel.

Salem, or the vicinity of Salem, has been the home of Mr. Jones for 20 years. He has been farmer, stock raiser, fruit grower, buyer and packer, and for four years served as a member of the Salem city council. As a member of the council Mr. Jones took a pronounced stand for civic improvements, and that also has been his policy outside of official life. A vote for Jerome F. Jones will be a vote for the best interests of Marion county.—(Paid adv.)

O. J. Moe has ordered a new Stud-baker car. Victor Madsen spent the week-end in Portland as a guest of Quincy Davis, who is attending medical college.

W. H. Egan has purchased the Coultrin residence on Third street. N. P. Holman, who has been at the Milwaukee sanitarium for several months, was taken to his home in South Silverton Wednesday.

The iron foundry back of the Silverton Blowpipe company is now completed. Miss Alma Hansen is employed at the N. P. Holman home assisting in taking care of Mr. Holman and his two daughters, Miss Clara and Miss Mammie Holman.
