Republican Platform Committee in Conference

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Executives of the Republican committee of 171, in conference with other leaders in the party, today put the finishing touches on the data collected by the committee for use in framing the national platform.
(Completing two days of discussion on the 21 subjects covered by the committee's report, the party chiefs declared complete harmony had been attained on these subjects and a big stratagem toward constructing the frame work of a platform on which all Republicans could unite. In the form to which it has been revised, the committee report will be distributed to convention delegates and submitted to the convention's platform committee for its guidance.
All of the subjects included in the committee's report and discussed yesterday morning, however, relate to domestic affairs and do not touch on some problems which are expected to be storm centers at the convention. The treaty of Versailles, Mexico and liquor were among the topics omitted alike from the committee's report and from the round table discussion.
The subjects are expected to be taken up in consultations during the next few days, although leaders said no final program could be agreed on before the meeting of the convention. Will H. Hays, national chairman, and other prominent Republicans will remain in Washington most of this week and with the report of the committee of 171 out of the way, they are expected to turn their attention to other issues.
The final signing among the titular leaders of the party is understood to be that Republican senators can most easily work out the party's declarations on foreign affairs, including the plank on the treaty. The senators already have done considerable work in that direction, but it was said tonight that there had been no agreement on details.
