See the Norway Pictures— At First Congregational church Sunday evening. Subject of address "Chorus of Nature."

Home From Convention— T. E. McCroskey, manager of the Salem Commercial club, returned yesterday from a visit to Pendleton and Seattle. At the former city Mr. McCroskey attended the first annual meeting of the secretaries of Oregon commercial clubs which took place Monday and Tuesday. His visit to Seattle was in interest of the local organization.

Moose Hall, Tonight— Dancing, singing and "Revelation" harmony. Harley C. Pugh.

Little Girl Injured— Mrs. Mae Harrington, 1353 North Fifteenth street, notified the police yesterday that her little girl had been run over and bruised by two boys riding a bicycle.

"Revelation" Music— For dancing at Moose hall tonight. Harley C. Pugh.

Those Wanting Kimball Cultivators— Should get in touch with Charles R. Archer implement company at once.

He's Now in Jail— The Salem Sewer Pipe company telephoned to the police station yesterday and asked to have an officer sent to its place of business. Chief Welsh responded to the call and arrested L. C. Bumgardner, who was lying on the floor in an alleged drunken stupor. Bumgardner had come to work, it is claimed, in a drunken condition and on being discharged, wanted to fight, but before the police arrived he had taken the count from "Old Kid Morphous." He is now an inmate of the city jail and will be given a trial before Justice yesterday that his bicycle had been stolen from the high school.

"Revelation" Harmony— And "Revelation" pep at Moose hall tonight, for dancing.

Bicycle Stolen— Ellis Von Eschen notified the police yesterday that his bicycle had been stolen from the high school some time Thursday. The number of the wheel is 320105.

Hansen to Build— The county recorder's office issued a building permit yesterday to A. C. Hansen for a one-story frame building to be erected at 251. Leftel street. The estimated cost of the building is $1090.

Moose Hall, Tonight— "Revelation" music, dancing and singing. Harley C. Pugh.

Stay Here Is Brief— Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Curtiss have been in the city several days, having stopped here on their way to New York from Berkeley, Cal., where they have been making their home since leaving Salem about a year ago. Their stay here at this time was shortened by a telegram yesterday announcing the serious illness of Mr. Curtiss' brother in New York.

Dancing at Moose Hall— Tonight, "Revelation" music. Harley C. Pugh.

Chicken Dinner— Johnnie Jones Special—$1. Illahce Country club, 1 to 3 p. m. Sunday.

Visitors Attracted— The Salem camp grounds, although not quite complete, are already attracting visitors who are very much pleased with location and they say that it is one of the best they have run across while touring the Pacific coast. The plumbers were on the job yesterday preparing to pipe city water to the grounds and within a few days everything should be in first-class shape. G. C. Van Emberg of Aberdeen, Wash., stopped at the Park Thursday on his way to southern California. G. E. Merrick of Los Angeles was another guest. Mr. Merrick is touring the United States and his car is virtually a home on wheels, having a kitchenette, sleeping compartment and a handy set-up dining table.

CARGO BUSINESS IS STILL HEAVY

West Coast Lumbermen's Association Reports Recent Operations

Cargo business accepted by 131 lumber mills of western Washington and western Oregon for the week ended May 15 aggregated 14,246,291 feet, according to the weekly barometer of the West Coast Lumbermen's association. Of this volume 11,521,291 feet is destined for California delivery and 2,715,000 for export.

The cargo business continues an important factor in the west coast industry. Orders for both export and domestic delivery have maintained a high average through the last few months.

At the same time domestic rail business is steady. Orders for rail delivery last week were 42,240,000 feet, or 1403 cars, The mills have a balance of 2116 cars or 273,480,000 feet of unfilled orders on their books.

Total new business of all kinds for the week was 59,136,720 feet, while shipments were 79,755,093 feet.

The same standard of production that has prevailed through the last several months continues. The cut for the week was 92,249,701 feet at the 131 mills contributing to the report. This was only 2,560,299 feet or 2.7 per cent below the normal production for the same period.
