BY RUTH LENORE FISHER.

The annual junior-senior banquet of students at Willamette university which was given last night in the dining room of the First Methodist church was one of the leading pre-announcements among the college folk. The long tables were lavishly adorned with white and yellow spring flowers intermingled with fernery. Plates were set for over 100. Paul Flegel was toastmaster for the occasion and toasts were made by Misses Ray Peringer and Rita Hobbs, and by Ray Attebury, Merrill Ohling, Kenneth Legg and Harold Emmel. The banquet was served by the freshman class.

Hearst's Magazine—a Liberal Education

"Remorselessly he spread out the whole ugly story of her past!"
From THE MASTER OF MAN, the new novel by HALL CAINE

The two great novels of 1920—by Hall Caine and Blasco Ibanez—seven brilliant stories by Donn Byrne, Robert W. Chambers, Bruno Lessing, Dana Gatlin, Maurice Level and other great writers—interesting articles by Bernard Shaw, Conan Doyle, Edgar Mott Woolley, Senator Hiram Johnson and others—these are just a few of the good things in Hearst's for June.

In this issue also are two remarkable anonymous contributions, "My Career of Crime," the life-story of an outlaw, and "Down the Dark Lane," the confessions of a drug addict; humorous features by Walt Mason, K. C. B. and B. L. T. and Hearst's five regular monthly departments—the Book, Poem, Play, Art and Science of the Month.

If you are easily satisfied—if you aren't always on the lookout for a better magazine—you won't want Hearst's this month or any other. But if you really want the works of the world's great writers, the words of the world's great thinkers—don't fail to make sure each month—starting today with the June number—of your copy of lem for homes in other cities. This was the first meeting in several years and the first time all the members were together for a long time. The living room of the Niemeyer home was radiantly adorned with large baskets of scarlet peonies and in the dining room purple columbine and white narcissi were very effectively combined. The afternoon was passed with reminiscences of the old club days. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. John Gobel, served a light repast at the close of the afternoon.

The Cecilia Music club furnished a happy evening for the week when the members entertained a company of friends for a picnic at the country home of Miss Mary Gilbert, Tuesday. Roasting wieners, marshmallows, soups and story telling made the hours after the picnic supper merry. The guests of the club were Harold Socolofsky, Percy Hammond, Herbert Wechter, James Putman, William Ashby, Ralph Hamilton, Milton Steiner, Cecil Shafer, Newton Muminy and Preston Baldwin; Miss Frances Perkins, Miss Lucille Watson, Miss Marjory Gilbert were chaperones, and the hostesses were Miriam Ruth Wechter, Lola Millard, Frances Hodge, Lucille Moore, Marion Emmons, Katherine Vincent, Florence Elgin, Florence Young, Helen Corey, Phyllis Walker, Junette Jones, Gertrude West, Junelle Vandervort, Mabel Marcus, Ava Miller, Miriam Lovell, Leah Ross and Mary Gilbert.

THE STATESMAN CLASSIFIED ADS. BRING GREAT RESULTS

It Makes Thousands of Friends by Its Every-day Performance

Men and women, everywhere, have acclaimed the Cleveland Six a winner. It has won thousands of them, and they are enthusiastic in its praise. It has won them because it brings them so much more of the pleasure of driving, such ease of driving and such unusual comfort.

The Cleveland has made its friends, too, because of the extraordinary performance of the Cleveland motor, developed through three years of tests in the laboratories and shops and on the road before being offered to the public. It has life, pick-up, power and endurance that you cannot find in many cars.

Cleveland bodies are of most graceful, dignified design, handsomely finished and upholstered in genuine hand-buffed leather.

Come in and see the Cleveland Six. Ride in it. Drive it yourself. Then you will know just how good it is.
