

Flares and Flickers

An exceptionally fine cast is pictured in the "Soldiers of Fortune" now appearing at Ye Liberty theatre. Norman Kerry, Anna Q. Nilsson, Melburne McDowell and Wilfred Lucas being among the principals in this Real-Art picture. Their work is as flawless as the manner in which Allan Dwan has produced this picture.

Is Your Blood Starving For Want of Iron?

Iron is Red-Blood Food—Nourished Iron Helps Put Roses into the Cheeks of Women and Gives Strength and Energy to Men

If you were to go without eating until you became weak, thin and emaciated, you could not do a more serious harm to yourself than when you let your blood literally starve for want of iron—iron that gives it strength and power to change food into living tissue, muscle and brain. Without plenty of iron in the blood, no matter how much or what we eat, your food simply passes through you without doing you any good—you don't get the strength out of it and instead of being filled with youthful strength and energy you are weak, nervous and all run-down. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can walk or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two iron tablets of ordinary Nourished Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks, then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Numbers of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance simply by taking iron in the proper form. But don't take the old kind of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like Nourished Iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. For an absolute guarantee of satisfaction or your money will be refunded.

Universal photodrama of the Alps, which is to be shown at Ye Liberty theatre next Thursday.

When thieves fall out is in effect one of the high lights of Vitaphone's big picture, "In Honor's Web." This production, with Harry T. Morey as star, will be seen at the Bligh theatre today.

The Pacific coast village of Laguna was stirred with excitement over the presence of the Screen Classics, Inc., company that was filming night scenes of a shipwreck for the production of "Should a Woman Tell?" according to the report brought back by David Thompson, Metro studio manager, upon his return to the studios in Hollywood from the beach location. This stirring drama of a soul in doubt is showing at Ye Liberty theatre next Sunday.

Conroy and O'Donnell as "The Parcel Postmen," are a couple of veterans on the vaudeville stage, but they seem to get better as they go along, and now are at the height of their career as laugh-producers and comedians. At the Bligh today.

Nazimova, in "Heart of a Child" coming to Ye Liberty soon.

Pathe News now showing at Ye Liberty.

Ye Liberty theatre offers today, and all week, Richard Harding Davis' "Soldiers of Fortune," an Allan Dwan production, based on Augustus Thomas' dramatization.

According to all advance notices and criticisms, Mr. Dwan has brought the characters of the story to life in a manner which lives up to the way in which our imagination has pictured them. As the story is the gripping, dramatic type that Mr. Davis wrote, there are scenes of raids and action, also the sort of love interest in this Real-Art picture that all delight in seeing on the screen.

Tom Mix in "The Man Within" at the Bligh today.

Kineca Kilties, leaders of all life, Scotch ensemble musical acts with dancers and comedians. This is the original combination organized by George Davis some time ago, who continues to manage it and keep it up to a high standard for which it has always been famous. There are ten active members, mostly girls attractively costumed. The men are stalwart, talented, good singers and musicians. A special scenic mounting aids in giving a true Scottish atmosphere to the offering. At the Bligh today only.

The scenic settings for William S. Hart's new Paramount Artercraft picture, "The Toll Gate," which will be seen at the Oregon theatre today, are declared to be among the finest ever chosen for a film drama.

The very latest Sennett comedy, "Fresh From the City," is the added attraction at the Oregon today.

"A Lady in Love," the successful stage play by Harriet Ford and Caroline Duer, has been pictured by Alice Eytan and will be shown at the Oregon theatre Wednesday and Thursday, with Ethel Clayton as the star.

Ye olden time concert, by Ye Organist Charles W. Hawley, Jr., will be a delightful treat for the patrons of the Oregon theatre Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week.

ALICE JOYCE

Of all the reigning favorites of the early motion pictures, Alice Joyce alone shines as a star today. With such notable plays as Charles Klein's "The Lion and the Mouse" and "The Third Degree," the famous Drury Lane melodrama, "The Sporting Duchess," Rex Beach's story, "The Vengeance of Darrang," and "Slaves of Pride" as her mediums, Miss Joyce has entered an era of steadily increasing popularity. She occupies a place among the rulers of the screen.

Farm Lecture to be Given by Ohio Speaker

"How to Keep the Boys and Girls On the Farm" will be the theme of a lecture delivered by R. H. Kroh, of Akron, Ohio, at the Salem armory on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

The speaker comes here under the auspices of the Marion County Community Federation and the agricultural department of the Salem Commercial club. He is considered one of the foremost orators in the United States and is very familiar with farm conditions and means by which farm life may be made more attractive to the young men and women of today. L. J. Chapin will preside at the meeting.

Only three cities in Oregon will be favored by addresses from Mr. Kroh. He will speak at Salem, Portland and Corvallis during the next week. There will be no charge for the lecture and local people who are interested in farming or in farm conditions should make every effort to hear Mr. Kroh.
