Takes Fire To Station—Bringing a fire to the fire department is the newest labor and money saving device invented by a local street car man. Yesterday morning about 6 o'clock a street car, with fire and smoke pouring from beneath it, stopped in front of the fire station on Chokeketa street. The motor-man ran into the station and told the firemen that the car was on fire and that he had brought it to the station to be extinguished. The blaze, which had started from faulty wiring underneath the car was quickly con-

Women in Convention—At the United Evangelical church are gathered state delegates of the Women's Home and Foreign missionary society in convention. They are a group of enthusiastic, energetic and consecrated women. Rev. Dubba and wife, who for 29 years, have served in China, are among the speakers. Sessions will be held all day Thursday and Friday, including evenings.

Will Entertain Students—The Laella Kimball club will give a luncheon to the Kimball students at Dr. Edwin Shorwood's home tonight. During the evening there will be an interesting program given by members of the Kimball student body.

Another Good Time—Tonight the big dance of the week with snappy music at Army.

Quartet Entertains—
The Kimball Theological college quartet, composed of Murray Keefer, S. W. Hall, P. M. Blenkinsop and Alfred Bates, assisted by Mrs. Murray Keefer, Mrs. S. W. Hall and Mrs.
Minnie Bates, gave an interesting program at Hopewell church, near Amity, on Wednesday night of this week. A large audience applauded the entertainment.

Go! Tonight High School—Auditorium, 8:15.

Post Catches Fire—
The fire department was called out last night to extinguish a fire which had started in a rubbish pile around a telephone pole at Trade and South Commercial streets. Evidently some careless pedestrian had dropped a lighted cigar or cigarette in the trash and the pole was blazing merrily when the firemen arrived, but was easily controlled.

Cut Flowers and Potted Plants—At Arthur Plants greenhouse, 15th and Wilbur.

Attorney Is Appointed—Governor Olcott yesterday appointed J. M. Blank of Canyon City as district attorney for Grant county, to succeed A. D. Leedy, who has resigned. Blank is the Republican nominee for the office. Private business is given as the reason for Leedy's resignation.

Hear Titonson Sing—Saturday night at the Dreamland dance. Warren Hunt, jazziest drummer.

Approval Requested—
The Fairmore irrigation district of Clatsop, Or., has requested Percy A. Copper, state engineer, to approve the project which covers the approximate area of 300 acres of land adjoining Ontario. It is proposed that the water for irrigation purposes be taken from Snake river. The approximate cost will be $15,000. The district has recently been organized.

Vernon Suckow, Xylophonist—Extraordinary, will play at the Dreamland dance Saturday night.

Brush Piles Reported—Councilman Wenderoth reported to the police yesterday that there are brush piles in front of property located on River street, between Water and Front streets, belonging to C. H. Trow, and on the southwest corner of Commercial and River streets, property owned by D. D.
Gorsline.

Dance at Doerfler Farm Postponed—The dance advertised for June 5 has been postponed.

Gains Files Answer—F. W. Gains, defendant in the suit of Sanford Mills vs. F. W. Gains, filed an answer to the complaint in the circuit court yesterday. Mr.
Gains alleges that Mills sold him property by misrepresenting the value of it, and asks the court for a decree dismissing the complaint and for judgment against the plaintiff in the sum of $800 and costs of the suit.

The Dance Announced—For Saturday night at Macleay will be postponed until two weeks from Saturday night.

Licensed to Marry—Roy R. Weatherill of Turner and Mariana McNulty of Salem were issued a marriage license by County Clerk U. G. Boyer yesterday.

Ladies' Night Postponed—Circumstances have arisen that make it impossible for the Elks to have ladies' night next Tuesday evening at the temple, and the time is postponed to Tuesday night, June 5.

Postoffice to Close—The Salem postoffice will be closed Monday, which is a legal holiday.
Postmaster Hucklestein announces.
With the exception of the general delivery and stamp windows, which will be open for one hour, from 9 to 10 a. m. These windows will stay open for the accommodation of the transients, and there will be no carriers present to take care of any but transients.

Love, Watchmaker and Jeweler—337 State street, Salem.

Cherrian Band Invited—Whether or not Salem has a Fourth of July celebration is becoming quite a factor with the Cher-rian band. According to John Graber, leader of the organization, several offers have come to him from other cities to play for celebrations.
He is waiting, however, to see what the home city decides, before making any plans.

Song Recital—
Miss Lena Belle Tartar will present her vocal class in song recital.
First Christian church, June 3, at 8:30 o'clock. Public invited. Admission free.

Floral Society to Meet—Directors of the Salem Floral society will hold a meeting Monday night when they will discuss plans

For their summer campaign to make Salem a city beautiful. This meeting will be held in the rooms of the Salem Commercial club.

Who Said H. C. L.—
When you can buy fine fresh Newport fish, steamed and ready to fry for 12c or 10c by the whole fish at Fitts Market.

Salemites Visit Mine—
Arthur J. Edwards and C. M. Carlison of Salem made a trip to the Silver King mine, near Elkhorn, on Sunday. They made the trip by automobile with C. M. Chappell, salesman for the Silver King Mining company. Mr. Edwards says that the mine seems to be all that the company claims for it, and that as soon as good roads are built, production of ore will start on a large scale.
Mr. Edwards brought back several samples of the ore, which assays very high, the principal metals being silver, lead and zinc.
