PERSONAL MENTION

C. B. Clancy returned home yesterday morning from San Francisco where he has spent two weeks combining business with pleasure.

Face Peeling Habit Becoming Fashionable

Women of fashion and refinement seem to have been acquiring the mercurized wax habit, depending less and less upon cosmetics for their complexion difficulties. It does seem a pity when it just peels off the worn-out skin when it loses its youthful color and appearance—now that this can be done so easily, safely, painlessly and economically. There is no trouble getting mercurized wax at any drug store (an ounce will do), since its virtues have become generally known here, and there's no trouble using it—just as you use cold cream, applying at night, washing it off next morning. The wax takes off the old scurf skin in tiny flakes, a little each day. The new under-skin which gradually appears, is velvety and beautiful, white, radiant with girlish loveliness. Any surface trouble like pimples, red or yellow patches, freckles, etc., vanishes of course with the discarded cuticle.

PLAY PRESENTED AT HIGH SCHOOL

"The Scarecrow" Successfully Produced by Members of Senior Class

The class of 1920 of the Salem high school scored a distinct success last night when it presented "The Scarecrow," a tragedy of the ludicrous, by Percy Mackaye. The play was cast in an old New England atmosphere, where devils and witchcraft worked hand in hand. Turfield Schindler, a Yankee impersonation of the devil, and Joanna M. James as Goody Rickby (the witch) created a human being from a scarecrow and like the German professor who created the Frankenstein, they were unable to handle it. Malcolm G. Smith, as Lord Ravensbane (the scarecrow) had a very difficult part, but showed that he was equal to the occasion. Elmer E. Dierks as Justice Martin, and Ruth E. Ross as the justice's niece, were also exceptionally good in the parts they played. The cast throughout handled the parts with the skill of seasoned actors, and much credit is due them and to Miss Mabel A. Davenport, who directed the piece. The cast was as follows: Dickon, (a Yankee impersonation of the devil), Turfield Schindler; Goody Rickby (the witch), Joanna M. James; Lord Ravensbane (the scarecrow), Malcolm G. Smith; Justice Martin, Elmer E. Dierks; Rachel Martin, Ruth E. Ross; Squire Richard Talbot, William Earl Shafer; Mistress Martin, Hazel M. Hill; St. Charles Reddington, Edward M. Edmundson; Amelia Reddington, Jean J. Bailey; Fannie Reddington, Mattie E. Jarman; Captain Bugby, Guy P. Prather; Minister Dodge, Seire D. Bue; Mistress Dodge, Flora E. Fletcher; Rev. Mr. Rand, Ambrose W. Bagley; Rev. Dr. Todd, Wayne G. Allen; Micha, Kenneth H. Warren. Miss Francis Ward entertained the audience between curtains with several songs and the high school string orchestra gave several very pleasing selections.

Patriotic Program Is Given at Grant School

The following program was given at the Grant school on the occasion of the annual visit of the G. A. R. and kindred patriotic organizations Friday: Star Spangled Banner. School Invocation. Rev. Thomas S. Anderson Song, "Hail to the Flag." "In Flander's Fields." Fannie Lee "America's Answer." Vernon Perry

Piano Duet—Alphie Holcomb and Lorraine Fletcher.
Violin solo.....Norma Maier
E. E. Dennison and J. T. Neer represented the G. A. R. and each spoke fittingly to the pupils as did also Mrs. Martin, who with Mrs. Folrick represented the W. R. C.
Rev. Mr. Anderson closed the hour with a short but stirring address and the recitation of "Barbara Fritchie."
