

SOCIETY

By RUTH LENORE FISHER

Tuesday evening in the library, the Salem Arts league will hold the last meeting of the year. At this time officers for the next year will be elected and Mrs. Charles Bowen, who spent many years in the orient, will speak on "The Spirit of Japanese Art." The meeting has been called for 8 o'clock and is open to the public.

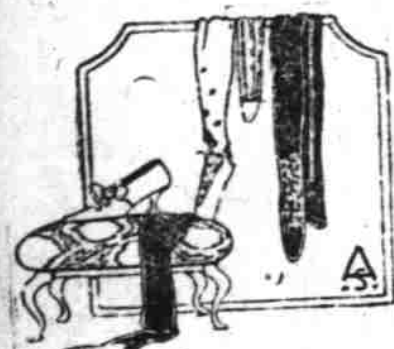

Miss Mariana McNulty and Roy R. Weatherhill were quietly married at the Elsie Methodist Episcopal parsonage Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock by Rev. Horace N. Aldrich. The only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Weatherhill.

Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Bennett motored to Portland Friday morning and are passing a few days with relatives.

Miss Josephine Baumbartner is home from the University of Oregon to pass the week-end and Decoration day with her parents.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop has been spending a few days in Portland visiting friends.

One of the delightful dinners of the week was the family gathering at the William McGilchrist, Sr. home on South Commercial street Wednesday evening when the children assembled to help celebrate the birthday anniversary of Mr. McGilchrist.

Hand Painted Hosiery

We have added this to our line of work and can supply you with any color of silk hose with fancy handpainted designs. Any design you wish.

Parisian Waist Shop
212 South Cottage Street
Phone 1620M

and that of his son Gordon, which occurred on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Cora Hendry will present her intermediate piano pupils Tuesday evening, June 15, in the First Presbyterian church and has extended an invitation to all their friends.

Mrs. R. F. Prael of Portland came up yesterday to spend the week-end with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Eldridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrea and small children motored to Portland Friday and are guests at the home of Mrs. Andrea's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Leadbetter.

In order that the members could attend the Apollo club concert on Wednesday evening the Daughters of Veterans held a very short business meeting Wednesday, the regular evening for meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Johnson have returned from a short trip to San Francisco which combined business for the former and pleasure for both.

Mrs. W. Carlton Smith is in Seattle for a few week's visit with friends in that city.

Miss Ila Spaulding came over from Corvallis Friday and yesterday joined her parents on a motor trip to Newberg and Dayton to spend the week-end and Decoration day with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Mills and their small daughters, Roberta and Ila, motored to Tillamook yesterday to spend the week-end and Decoration day.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding are passing the week-end and Decoration day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Gist at Cloverdale.

Miss Eulalia Lindsay is spending the week-end in Portland visiting friends, going down to attend a fraternity dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fields (Olive Beckley) of Pendleton, are visiting relatives in Salem, planning to later go to Corvallis to make their home.

Mrs. Amos Strong is in Portland, visiting with friends.

Mrs. W. B. Jackson of Portland has returned to her home after visiting for several days at the Fred Steusloff home.

Mrs. Edward Weller is visiting relatives in Hood River for several days.

Dr. John R. Sties and the department of music of Willamette university will present their pupils Wednesday evening in the First Methodist church for the annual closing semester recital to show to the parents and friends the progress of the work during the year. The pupils presented will be from all departments of the school of music.

Mrs. Louis Hucker (Ella Rineman), of Joplin, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Standford (Grace Rineman), came up from Portland yesterday and are passing the week-end and Decoration day with Mrs. F. P. Talkington and Miss Cora Talkington.

Mrs. Ralph Matthews of Woodville, Ill., has arrived in Salem and will visit for several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brown.

Mrs. William Everett Anderson will leave tomorrow for Enterprise where she goes as a delegate from the Salem Woman's club to the State Federation of Women's clubs which will be held in that city June 1, 2, 3, and 4. On her return she will visit relatives in Portland for several days.

Miss Jessie Miller is at Harrisburg visiting with her parents for a few days.

Miss Velma Baker, a former student at Willamette university, but who has been teaching at Wasco during the winter, is a guest at the Beta Chi sorority house.

Miss Marjory Flegel and Miss Grace Collins are spending the week-end in Portland with their parents.

Miss Ruth Ferguson of Portland has been the guest of Miss Rita Hobbs for a visit during the week.

Miss Rosa Martin of Creswell is a guest for the week-end of Miss Eva Parrot.

Mrs. N. N. Smith of Corvallis is visiting for a short time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hargrove.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred H. Thompson and Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Downs were in Portland a few days this week visiting with friends.

Miss Joy Turner, Salem's well known violinist, went to Woodburn Friday evening where she was engaged to appear in solo for the high school commencement exercises. Mrs. Charles Kent, a Woodburn pianist, accompanied Miss Turner.

Mrs. G. L. Converse of Walla Walla returned to her home Thursday after visiting for a time with Miss Elizabeth Lord. Miss Lord accompanied her as far as Portland.

Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, national vice-president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was in Portland Wednesday to report to the annual meeting of Multnomah chapter the annual national congress held in Washington, D. C., recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cox have returned from Portland where they visited for several days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Busick and Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Compton are planning to motor today up the McKenzie and remain until Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Laura Woodward and Miss Eva Woodward of Walla Walla are visiting for a time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Fletcher. Mrs. Woodward and her daughter have recently returned to the states from Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rineman and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rineman of Portland are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop for Sunday and Decoration day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. McMechen and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rahn motored to Government Mineral springs at Carson, Wash. Friday afternoon and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Miller until Tuesday.

Mrs. W. S. Mott returned Friday from Portland after spending a visit with relatives.

The many friends of Mrs. R. E. Pomeroy who has been ill at her home 1340 Marion street, will be pleased to know that she is much improved and is able to see her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Webb have as their guest Mrs. Webb's father, Hugh Elliott of Portland, who arrived Friday for a visit.

After visiting for a month at the home of her brother, T. A. Livesley, Mrs. M. V. MacDonald of San Francisco, left yesterday for Portland to visit friends for a short time before going to Seattle for a visit.

To compliment Captain and Mrs. Earle Coulson Flegel, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., are hosts at a dinner at their new home on South High street Thursday evening. Plates were laid for ten.

Mrs. Frank Haffin and her two attractive children Lydia and Mary, are visiting at the E. T. Barnes, J. A. Mills, and J. H. Walker homes for two weeks while on their way to their home in Pittsburgh after spending the winter in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gouley and small son, Junior, joined Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Apperson of McMinnville on a trip to the Apperson summer home at Neskewin for the week-end.

Contrary to the usual custom at the Iliabe Country club there will be no dinner served there today.

The Julius Caesar Literary society of Salem high school will be hosts to the annual picnic tomorrow when they will motor to Ellendale, the farm of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Boise, west of Dallas, and spend the afternoon and evening.

Rev. and Mrs. E. T. Randall, formerly of this city, but now of Monroe, Ore., announce the birth of a daughter on May 20 in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert, Misses Mary Jane and Josephine Albert and Mrs. J. C. Griffith motored to Portland and were joined by Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krause to motor to Hood River to pass the week-end and Decoration day.

The postponement of ladies' night at the Elk lodge until Monday, June 14 is cause for regret among the Elks and their friends for these evenings have proven most enjoyable during the winter months.

Miss Marie Churchill is passing the week-end and Decoration day with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Elton in Portland.

Mrs. T. K. Ford and her daughter, Miss Loreta Ford, returned home Friday evening from a visit with friends in Portland.

Judge and Mrs. George G. Bingham arrived home Friday evening from Portland after visiting with friends.

(Continued on page 2.)

PRACTICAL DRESSES---PRETTY, TOO!

A Dress That You Can Wear Gaily On a

Shopping or marketing expedition, for a picnic or an auto ride, and feel it's becoming and full of style. A dress you can pop into the tub, sure it won't lose its pretty colors and will be just as comfortable after washing as ever—those are reasons why you'll like

MINA TAYLOR DRESSES

For Discriminating Women

There's no end to the variety of attractive Mina Taylor dresses here. There are the crisp, cool, sturdily made dresses for work about the home and there are the frilly, dainty ones for afternoon wear.

You'll find them here in most appealing colors and designs, and made so well and with such thorough workmanship that they satisfy the most exacting requirements.

The woman of ample proportions, too, will find here just the dress she wants. There's a size that will fit her, designed for the full-formed woman and which will really fit without a lot of "fixing over."

Come in and see the Mina Taylor Dresses here—make your selection early. For they're wonderfully pretty and now is the time to have your pick of the choicest models.

A special lot of smart new gingham wash dresses consisting of short lines and sizes for Misses and small women. We want to clean up on this lot and they are a wonderful value at $3.95

Store Closed All Day Monday

Ladies' Store
466-474
State St.

Men's Store
416
State St.

Store Closed Monday, Decoration Day

Next Week

H. Liebes & Co.'s

Million Dollar Fur Sale

The entire made up stocks of our Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Pasadena and Santa Barbara stores will be placed on sale Monday simultaneously at

25% to 50%

Reductions from our regular low marked prices.

It will pay you to make a special trip to Portland to buy your next winter's furs while the savings are so great.

Don't miss this wonderful opportunity

PORTLAND H. Liebes & Co OREGON
ESTABLISHED 1864 FURS 149-151 BROADWAY

RIBBON TIES and TONGUE PUMPS

Vie with each other for fashion this season and we were fortunate in securing a goodly variety of these wanted ribbon ties and pumps, both Tongue and Opera, in Patent, Black and Brown Kids. They carry the new modified long point last that is favored this season and are

EXTREMELY REASONABLY PRICED

Oxfords

Black Kid Military Heels	$6.17
Black Kid School Heels	$7.88
Black Kid Cuban Heels	$10.71
Black Kid French Heels	$7.65
and up to	$9.45
Brown Kid, Cuban Heels	$8.53
and up to	$12.72
Brown Kid, French Heels	$8.15
and up to	$10.80
Specially Priced for this sale

Eyelet Ties

Brown Kid French Heels	$8.22
up to	$13.86
Black Kids, French Heels	$7.87
and up to	$11.70
Patent Kid, French Heels	$11.02

At The Electric Sign "SHOES"

Tongue Pumps

Black Kid, Baby Louis heels	$7.20 and up to $11.02
Black Kid, French Heels	$7.65 and up to $11.38
Brown Calf Baby Louis Heels	$12.47
Brown Kid French Heels	$13.14
Specially Priced for this Sale

STORE CLOSED ALL DAY MONDAY FOR DECORATION DAY