ALL IS SET FOR MEN'S SINGLES

First Round in All-City Tennis Tournament to be Played Tomorrow

The first round of the men's singles in the All-City Tennis tournament will occupy the stage during the first day's play, which starts tomorrow.

With a big entry list, the event promises to be one of the most interesting ever played on the local courts. The last few days have seen the court filled nearly all the time. It is too early to predict who shine as stars in the men's event, but Moodie McDougal and Dr. Bates are bound to furnish some hot competition for their opponents.

The first round of women's singles, mixed and men's doubles will be played on Friday, drawings and schedules to be announced later.

Below are complete drawings for the first round in the men's singles. The time schedule for these matches will be announced today and will be published tomorrow.

LOST

Six $100 Liberty Bonds have been lost. These bonds have serial numbers 2308143-45-46-48-51-52, and all coupons had been clipped. Anyone finding same will please notify the city marshal and receive suitable reward. Any one knowing of any or all of these bonds being offered for sale will please notify the city marshal or any member of the Salem police force immediately. Across the front of each bond was written the name "H. Cunningham." This name may have been erased and in that event there will be the mark of the eraser. The party who lost these bonds has been placed in a very embarrassing position financially and is very anxious to recover them. If they are returned to the city marshal no questions will be asked and the finder will be suitably rewarded.

SILK SPORT SKIRTS

Of Silks, Satins and
Crepe de Chine

Fashion has decreed the sports skirt a necessity of the summer wardrobe. And surely it is a delightful necessity when one finds such lovely models as we are now showing. Your skirt may be a gleamy white or a pastel shade of delicate tint. When worn with the sheer blouses of the present mode, a silk sports skirt becomes a thing of beauty.

We regret that we were able to secure only a hundred and fifty of these skirts, for they were such a fortunate buy that we are able to price them most attractively. We will doubtless have many more calls for these skirts than we can accommodate, but, of course, it is the early shopper that will reap the advantage of this sale.
