

SOCIETY

By RUTH LENORE FISHER.

MRS. AND MRS. Frank Myers, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Galloway formed a motor party to Portland last night to attend the "Passing Show of 1920."

Miss Amanda Otto, stenographer for Edgar B. Piper for more than 20 years, will arrive this morning to spend the week-end at the house of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pettit. Miss Otto is a charming woman and her friends in this city are planning a number of social courtesies for her during the short time she will be in the city.

Word comes from the state federation of women's clubs meeting at Enterprise this week. Mrs. William Everett Anderson of this city is attending as the delegate from the Salem Woman's club. One of the features of the meeting so far is the endorsement of the Intermountain and Coast Federation of Women's clubs. The western federation will include Oregon, Washington, California, Utah, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, Wyoming, New Mexico and Arizona. They are to co-operate with the State Chamber of Commerce to protect the resources of the west and secure the necessary legislation for these districts. Mrs. Ida H. Callahan of Corvallis, state president, is presiding over the federation and addresses are being made by numerous prominent women of the northwest. Reports have been made from the clubs at Portland, Salem, Corvallis, Hood River, Pendleton, La Grande, Enterprise and Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Steelhammer of Woodburn have returned to their home after visiting for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Shantz on Market street.

The missionary society of the First Congregational church will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Louis Olson at her home, 1490 McCoy street, for the regular monthly meeting. She will be assisted by Mrs. Harry Elgin and Mrs. George Bain. The meeting has been called for 2:30 o'clock and Dr. W. C. Kantner will review the chapter, "The Price of National Unity," in the book the society is reading.

Mrs. F. L. Purvine has returned from Portland where she visited for a week with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Everett Charles of Portland has arrived in Salem to be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Neill for several days.

Farewells will be said this morning to Mrs. C. J. Green and her children, who are leaving for their homestead near Roseburg where they will spend the summer. Mr. Green is already there, but in a short time will return to Salem.

Mrs. Guy Harris has gone to Portland to spend a visit of a week with her mother-in-law, Mrs. T. V. Yance.

The friends of Miss Caroline East who has been seriously ill at her home on Court street will be glad to know that she is much improved.

Mrs. Fred Buchtel returned yesterday from Portland where she spent a week visiting with friends.

The bridge and tea party at the Illabebe golf club this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock will attract a large number of maids and matrons. Mrs. Curtis Cross will be the hostess and will be assisted by Mesdames Harry Hawkins, Dan Fry Jr., David Eyre, William Connell Dyer, Frank Spears, Erceel Kay and Joseph McAllister.

Mrs. Squier Farrar of Portland, who has been visiting at the Edwin Weller home for the week left yesterday for her home.

Mrs. Frederick W. Neale of the interior of Africa, where she and her husband, a former Salem man, are missionaries, will be guest of honor at a missionary society meeting of the First Presbyterian church and a tea following the meeting this afternoon.

noon. Mrs. Neale will speak to the women on the habits and customs of the natives of that country. They have been in Africa for many years and Mr. Neale has the largest Presbyterian church in the world there in the interior of Africa. The both are in the states on a several month's leave of absence. Several years ago Mr. Neale was a student in the Salem schools, later going to the east to continue his studies.

The meeting this afternoon has been called for 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. E. E. Fisher spent yesterday in Portland in the interest of the baby clinics for which she is a prominent worker.

very enjoyable time was had at the home of Mrs. J. W. Fruit Monday evening. At a late hour ice cream and cake were served by the hostess Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Wentz of Portland were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Moisan.

Charles Cliffindaffer of Portland visited his wife and children at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Moisan Sunday.

John Carey had as his guest on Sunday his niece and her daughter from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens of Portland were guests of their son, H. C. C. Stevens Monday.

Mrs. J. Dorcas, Frances Dorcas and Ruth Manning of Portland were the week-end guests of Mrs. Sylvester Manning.

Mrs. Albert Nys came home Saturday afternoon from the Deaconess hospital where she underwent a surgical operation.

Mrs. S. A. Harris came home Sunday from a local hospital where she has been under the care of Dr. Hickman of Gervais.

VISITORS HAVE SPECIAL CAR.

SEATTLE, June 2.—Washington Republicans who will attend the Republican national convention as spectators will be passengers on a special car leaving Seattle Friday morning, it was announced today. West side Republicans will board the car at Seattle, while those from the east side of the state will join the party at Spokane.

ASTORIA EXPECTS FAMINE

ASTORIA, Or., June 2.—Astoria is expecting a gasoline famine and a number of Portlanders who came here to spend the Memorial holidays at the seashore became stranded for lack of fuel. The Standard and Union Oil companies report their stocks extremely low and say they must last until July 1. The Astoria port commission is to make an investigation.

RUSSELL BOOK RETURNED.

PORTLAND, Or., June 2.—Five thousand copies of "The Finished Mystery," apocryphal work by Pastor Russell seized by federal authorities during the war because of alleged seditious paragraphs, were returned today to the representative of the Russell Publishing company here.
