

SOCIETY

By RUTH LENORE FISHER.

A pretty beththal shower for Miss Dollie Smith, one of the summer bride-elects, was given by the teachers of Garfield school Thursday evening at the home of Miss Greta Phillips. The gifts were miscellaneous. One attractive gift was from the teachers of the school where she teaches, and was given her in a novel manner. Miss Smith was given a card on which appeared a clever verse, telling her to see what she could find at the end of the string attached to the card. After searching the rooms she found a casserole. The party was passed in the best of spirits, and the hostess, Miss Greta Phillips, served dainty refreshments at the close of the evening.

Those present were Miss Smith, Miss Margaret Cosper, Miss Ocie Brown, Miss May Roberts, Miss Emily Brown, Miss Georgia Ellis, Miss Nellie Deyoe, Miss Mary Chadwick, Miss Lucy Stoughton, Miss Laura Bell, Miss Theda Perkins, Miss Laura Wagner, Mrs. M. B. Shirley, Mrs. J. B. McCaffery, Mrs. E. Sheldon, Mrs. L. H. McMahon and the hostess.

The members of the Amicus Sewing club are to take their husbands for an all-day picnic today to Vitae springs. They will leave town early.

cally the same conditions. In the freshman class Miss Mary Elizabeth Bayne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bayne of Salem received first honorable mention.

To honor Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davidson, who leave this week for Michigan to live, the Tillicum Dancing club of which they are members, gave a jolly informal dancing party Tuesday evening in Moose hall. About 40 couples, members of the club, attended. The Sykes orchestra furnished the music for the evening and punch was served at an attractive table.

Mrs. E. C. Bradford, house mother at the Y. W. C. A., is spending the week-end visiting Portland friends.

Mrs. James Elton of Portland passed through Salem Friday for Eugene to spend the week-end with her sister, Miss Doris Churchill, at the Delta Delta sorority house. She will return to Salem and spend a part of the week visiting at the home of her father, J. A. Churchill, and her sister Miss Marie Churchill.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buchner returned Friday evening from a several weeks' motor tour through California. They left Salem with the Ad club caravan and were in Stockton to see the governor and Lieutenant Kelly arrive after their flight from Blaine, Wash. They were reluctant to return so soon, but the shortage of gasoline made it almost impossible to continue the trip.

Miss Constance Maclean of Lanesboro, Minn. Marcy Bates and Mrs. Sydney W. Hall assisted the Kimball quartet in the program at the Willouville Methodist Episcopal church Friday evening.

Mrs. J. H. Race and children, Alice Dorothy Jane and James H. Jr., left yesterday afternoon for The Dalles where they will meet Mr. Race to make their future home in that city. They will visit Portland friends for a few days before going on to their new home. Mr. Race will be associated with the Libby, McNeal & Libby company of The Dalles.

The friends of Miss Harriet Griffith are happy to know of her work in Portland where she is continuing her studies of voice, studying now with Miss Evelyn Calbreith. She also is studying piano with Miss Helen Galbreith at the Aren studio. At present Mr. Arens is at his Hood River home.

Miss Griffith has a sweet very high soprano voice and her voice has splendid possibilities for great work in the future. During the time that Miss Griffith was in the south for the winter she studied continuously with Franz Arens.

Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall were hosts to the members of the Djoheko club of the First Methodist church at their home Tuesday evening. The chandelier which hung over the table was shaded with a large pink rose and a French basket filled with pink and white blooms formed the centerpiece. Pink shaded candles and pink nut baskets finished the pretty table adornments. Parties were set for Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Little, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Kirk, Mrs. Julia Head, Mrs. S. M. Lindsay, Miss Beryl Holt, Miss Marie Marshall, U. G. Holt and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall.

A very pleasant surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. George L. Cummings at their home at Hood and Fourth streets Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cummings for dinner, and after a motor car ride returned to their home to be greeted with about 30 guests, to celebrate with them their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. At a late hour a dainty repast was served.

Miss Mabel Gardner and Miss Edith Brown were Portland visitors yesterday.

Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Miss Ruth Barnes, Mrs. E. Hesson and two children, Eliza and Mary, Mrs. Frank Powers and Miss Florence Powers
