

CHARLIE CHAPLIN

Marie Dressler and Mabel Normand in

"TILLIE'S PUNCTURED ROMANCE"

BLIGH THEATRE—TUES.—WED.—THURS.

Flares and Flickers

"The Confession," the photoplay you have all been waiting for will be shown at The Oregon theatre soon.

The tale of a Jigger who put the Jay in Jazz. A laughing picture with a heart of gold. It's "The Dancin' Fool" with Wallace Reid at The Oregon today.

"By Golly" the new Sennett comedy showing at The Oregon today is dedicated to Charles Murray for his birthday. He takes the leading role and is director of the plot which is in the nature of a birthday party.

Photoplay fans who recall the luxurious beauty of Gloria Swanson in "Male and Female" will hardly recognize her in the opening scenes of the new Cecil B. DeMille production, "Why Change Your Wife?" which will be the attraction at the Oregon theatre next week.

Local admirers of Enid Bennett, the winsome Ince star, will welcome the news that she is coming to the Oregon theatre next Wednesday and Thursday in a new picture, "The False Road," an original photodrama by C. Gardner Sullivan. It is a Paramount Artercraft picture and was directed by Fred Niblo.

A group of important police officials of New York, who witnessed a private showing of Vitagraph's latest picture, "The Silent Avenger," are reported to have recommended the production as a teacher of police tactics. William Duncan, known as "the Sandow of the screen," is star.

votes much attention to the scientific methods of training used by modern police departments. At the Bligh next Sunday.

"Are They Easy to Get?" Bob Morehouse thought so, and it cost him $5000 to discover that he was wrong. It all happens in Marguerite Clark's new screen comedy, "Easy to Get," which will be in view at the Oregon theatre next Sunday and Monday.

Tom Mix in "The Daredevil" will be shown at The Oregon Friday and Saturday of this week. This is his latest picture and as usual is full of thrills and action.

Mary Miles Minter in her first Reelart picture will appear at Ye Liberty theatre for a three days' engagement, beginning today. "Anne of Green Gables" is the title, and it is one of the famous "Anne" series written by L. M. Montgomery and adapted to the screen by Frances Marion.

Anne is a pretty little orphan girl and is adopted by Matthew Cuthbert and his sister, Marilla, as they are becoming tonsorial in the big country home, "Green Gables."

"Tillie's Punctured Romance," Mack Sennett's master comedy revival, featuring Charlie Chaplin, Marie Dressler, Mabel Normand, Chester Conklin and Mack Swain, which will be shown at the Bligh theater on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, is a remarkable example of perfection in detail, evident in every inch of the six reels of side-splitting fun.

No play has given the public a more decided insight into life as it is lived in the great north woods than "The River's End," the first of Marshall Neilan's independent productions, taken from the story by James Oliver Curwood and distributed by the First National Exhibitors' circuit. The play will be shown at Ye Liberty theater soon.

Ladies who like sealskin coats will have the thrill of seeing the seal by hundreds in his native waters in "The Bottom of the World," the Sir Ernest Shackleton south polar expedition picture, which will be seen at Ye Liberty theater next Sunday. It is a Robertson-Cole production.

June and Irene Melva, two pretty girls who are pastmasters of the xylophone and versatile musicians of remarkable ability, have combined an offering of musical originalities that is distinct and artistic in its repertoire. At the Bligh today.

Frederiks and Palmer are a couple of overseas entertainers who enlisted their services with Uncle Sam in time of war and have entertained more than a million doughboys, sailors and marines throughout devastated France and Belgium. At the Bligh today.

Corinne Griffith will be seen in her latest feature, "Human Collateral," at the Bligh today.

Eddie Phillips, a clever young chap with a world of personality and a keen sense of humor, is presenting an original vaudeville revue, adapted for his style of work, introducing song specialties, humorous stories and eccentric dances that is entirely new and different as his chief stock in trade. At the Bligh today.

PLANKS ARE FOREMOST G. O. P. ISSUE
(Continued from page 1)

the party's affairs and that some consideration must be given to the chiefs from the provinces. The statement by Governor Beekman of Rhode Island that he was not sure whether he was going to "a republican convention or a senatorial caucus," has been construed as a notice from the governors and state leaders that they will demand to be heard.

AT THE LIBRARY

"Siberia, Today," a breezy account by a captain with the intelligence department of the A. E. F., who is convinced that the salvation of the country lies in education of the peasants, by E. F. Moore.

"Theodore Roosevelt," an intimate biography, by William Roscoe Thayer.

"Graphic Methods of Presenting Facts," suggestions for plotting curves and picturing the relationship of facts and figures, carefully described and fully illustrated, by W. C. Hinton.

"The Grizzly," everything about bears told in a narrative form, by Enos A. Mills.

"Waifs and Strays," a new book of O. Henry's short stories, by W. Sydney Porter.

"A Man for the Ages," Irving Bacheller's new book, having Abraham Lincoln as a character.

"The Green-Pea Pirates," a novel by Peter Kyne.

"Tom Strong, Lincoln's Scout," a book for boys, by A. B. Mason.

"Huggins' Bird Book for Children," well written and beautifully illustrated.

"Theodore Roosevelt's Letters to His Children."

PASSENGER TRAIN WRECKS.

DURANGO, Colo., June 5.—One man was killed, twenty injured of whom some may die, when Denver and Rio Grande passenger train No. 116 was wrecked today at Toltre. A parlor car rolled 150 feet down the mountain.

SLACKERS HOUSED UP.

BOSTON, June 5.—Warrants for the arrest of 5000 men listed as slackers because of failure to reply to draft questionnaires, were issued by the federal district court here today.

LADIES

When irregular or suppressed use Triumph Pills. Safe and always dependable. Not sold at drug stores. Do not experiment with others; save disappointment. Write for "Katie" and particulars; it's free. Address: National Medical Institute, Milwaukee, Wis.

MARY MILES MINTER
Born Shreveport, La., April 4, 1902, stage career as child actress supporting Nat Goodwin, Robert Hilliard, Mrs. Fiske, Bertha Kalich and Dustin Farnum, for four years appeared in the title role in "The Littlest Rebel." Height, 5 ft. 2 in. Weight 112 lbs. Golden hair and blue eyes, address 56 Fremont Place, Los Angeles, Cal.

ANOTHER DANDY SHOW STARTS TODAY

Dainty—Delicious—Delectable

MARY MILES MINTER

Where Youth and Beauty Meet in L. W. Montgomery's classic novels of American girlhood—the famous "Anne" books—takes its title from one of them.

ANNE OF GREEN GABLES

The sunny-tempered and vividly original "Anne" has a living counterpart in Mary Miles Minter, whose bewitching charm, in five years of screen stardom, has made her one of America's national assets.

Director—WILLIAM D. TAYLOR who directed Mary Pickford in "Johanna Entists" and others

Scenarioist—FRANCES MARION author or adaptor for Mary Pickford of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," "Johanna Entists," "Amarilly of Clothesline Alley" and "M'Liss"

PATHE NEWS

KNIGHTS & KNIGHTIES
A Nightmare of a Comedy

ORCHESTRA MUSIC EVENINGS

LIBERTY

The Sandow of the Screen
WILLIAM DUNCAN

THE SILENT AVENGER

This is the super-society, million-dollar serial in which Duncan, known as the Sandow of the screen, out-gazes a thousand deaths.

He toys and juggles with fate; he braves flames, knives, guns and the lynchers' noose. He grapples with crime, and out-games, outwits and out-gazes death.

It's a Vitagraph Masterpiece

BLIGH THEATRE STARTS NEXT SUNDAY

This Station is equipped and stocked to render prompt, A-1 service on ALL makes and types of

MAGNETOS

From the single cylinder magneto to the most complex twelve cylinder or two point style.

Platinum and tungsten contact points—replacement parts—re-magnetizing equipment. Moderate charges

R. D. BARTON

171 South Commercial Street

Today
Monday
Tuesday

Today
2:15, 4:00,
5:45, 7:30,
9:15 p. m.

WALLACE REID

THE DANCIN' FOOL

A Paramount Artercraft Picture

A Syncopated Romance of Jazz, Jugs and Joy

Jazz in his feet at night—for a cool two hundred a week. Jugs in his head by day—for six dollars per and Uncle Enoch's "cusses." Joy in his heart all the time—through June Hudd of Broadway's "Garden of Roses." Until—

See All the Latest Steps and Fads in Dancing—and Then Some!

With Witching Bebe Daniels and "Wally" Reid's Own Jazz Band

"BY GOLLY"
By Sennett
B' Gosh

Charley W. Hawley, Jr.
Plays
"Let the Rest of the World Go By"

Coming Next Week—"WHY CHANGE YOUR WIFE"